

WEATHER FORECAST FOR FORT WAYNE AND VICINITY.

FAIR TONIGHT; TUESDAY, FAIR AND SLIGHTLY WARMER.

SENTINEL WANT ADS
BRING THEM

CRISIS NOW VERY NEAR IN MEXICAN SITUATION

Most Alarming News Comes in Reports to High Government Officials in Washington.

NATURE IS CAREFULLY KEPT SECRET

Washington, July 21.—Alarming reports of an approaching crisis in Mexico have been received here by high government officials. It was authoritatively stated today upon unimpeachable authority that the development of the coming two weeks are regarded as fraught with tremendous importance to the United States.

No delicate is the information that the stipulation that it was unimpeachable and that it should not be represented as being the view of any official of the United States government.

Authoritative publication of the nature of the advice, it was said, probably would precipitate the very crisis the dispatches forecast. The means by which the predicted events were to be brought to pass or what was to follow were not hinted at in the reports, which so far have failed to reflect in military or naval preparations by the United States.

Wait for Ambassador.

Meanwhile the administration is working time on the Mexican problem pending the arrival of Ambassador Wilson from Mexico City, which is expected by Thursday or Friday.

President Wilson finds himself in the same state of doubt as to actual conditions in the rebellion in Mexico as he did when in the hope of getting at the facts, he summoned the American ambassador to the capital. He realizes that even the Americans scattered throughout Mexico individually are unable to get a comprehensive view of the situation in the whole country, their judgment being affected by purely local events. From the Mexican capital come reports that have caused every government in a federal victory and so far the administration has found absolutely nothing out through the press reports from the confidential side of the case.

Would Hear Other Side.

This has led to an intimation that information of reliable character from that source would be welcome by the administration. At the request of Secretary Bryan, Surgeon General Blue, of the public health service, has ordered quarantine officers at Havana and Key West to expedite the passage of Ambassador Wilson.

The suggestion from Consul Lecomte, at Frontera, Tabasco, that United States gunboat would quiet the fears of Americans who are apprehensive because of the reports of the attack that port and already have occupied a few American owned plantations near the city, is being considered, but no request has yet been made to the navy department for additional war craft in the Gulf of Mexico.

WILSON'S STEAMER DELAYED.

Havana, July 21.—The arrival of Henry Lane Wilson, ambassador to Mexico, was awaited at sunrise today, but the steamer Mexico was delayed on its voyage from Vera Cruz and is not expected to reach here till late this afternoon.

AMERICANS IN DANGER.

Mexico City, July 21.—The American embassy acting under instructions from Washington today, made representations to the Mexican foreign office relative to the danger in which a number of Americans in the town of Madera, in the state of Chihuahua, were placed. The embassy urged the dispatch of troops for their protection.

NICARAGUAN PLAN WINS MUCH FAVOR

Wilson's Policy Commended by Senate Leaders of Both Parties.

WILL ENDORSE TREATY

Washington, July 21.—Strong support has developed in the senate for President Wilson's policy of protection and supervision over Nicaragua. An informal poll of the committee on foreign relations today indicated that the treaty proposed Saturday by Secretary Bryan will be endorsed with a safe margin of votes and come into the senate with the backing of influential members of both political parties.

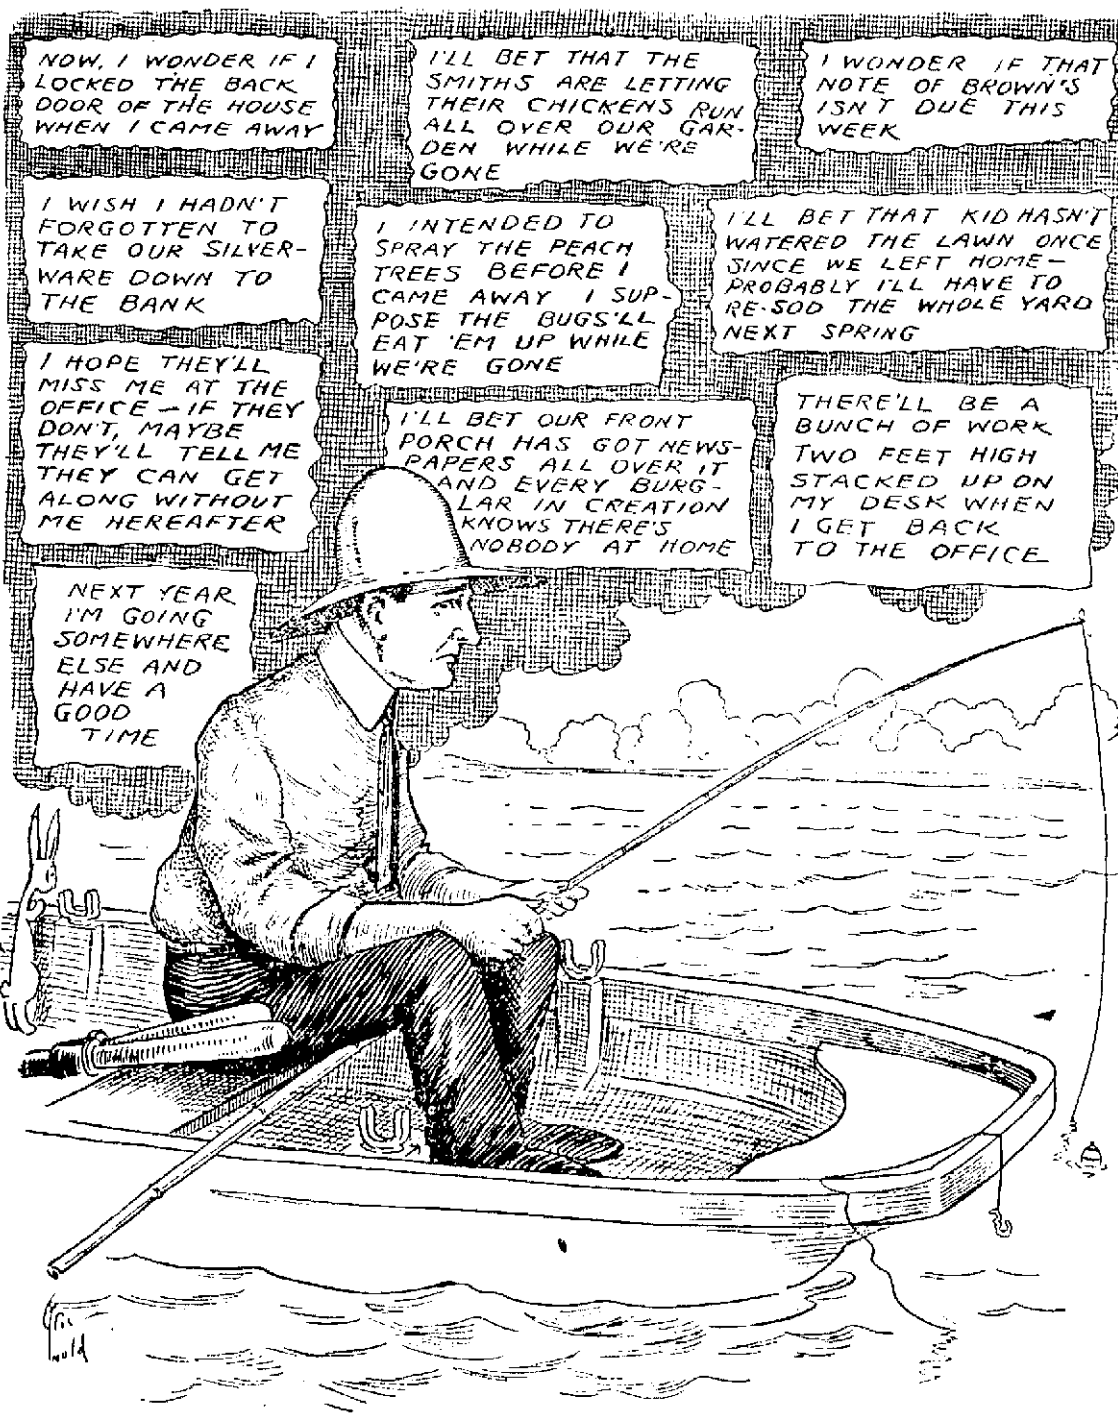

(Continued on Page 15, Col 2.)

THE NEW J. P. MORGAN GOES TO WORK ON A YACHT—WIFE GOES SHOPPING.

The most recent picture of J. P. Morgan, the head of the great house of Morgan, is seen in this photograph with his wife, who was Jane N. Crew before her marriage. Morgan makes daily trips to business from his summer home, Central Island, Oyster Bay, L. I., aboard his steam yacht, Veranda. The yacht is usually anchored off the New York Yacht club station at Twenty-third street and East river. On many of these daily excursions to business Mrs. Morgan accompanies her husband to the city, where they are met by an automobile. Mr. Morgan does her shopping and makes calls, returning with her husband in the evening.

Puzzle Picture--Find the Vacation

POLICE NAB MRS. PANKHURST AGAIN

Arrest of Suffragette is Followed by Furious Attack by Women.

STAB WITH HATPINS

London, July 21. Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, the militant suffragette leader, who outwitted the police on Saturday, was arrested this afternoon when she was entering a public hall to attend the weekly convulse of the Women's Social and Political Union. She had intended at the meeting to issue another defiant challenge to the government.

A big force of uniformed policemen closed up behind Mrs. Pankhurst and her captors, and attempted the rush of infuriated women, whose yells of "murders, assassins," drew great crowds to the scene. Some of the women used hat pins as weapons of offence, and several persons were badly hurt.

When she arrived at Holloway jail, Mrs. Pankhurst refused to leave the taxi and was carried in by detectives.

Detectives pounced on Mrs. Pankhurst with dramatic suddenness and whisked her away in a taxi. A few of the women accompanying Mrs. Pankhurst made an attempt to rescue her and in doing so vigorously trounced the detectives with their umbrellas. Six of them were arrested.

INDEPENDENTS READY TO MEET

Joint Committees to Discuss Candidates and Adopt a Platform.

ONE WORKER'S VIEWS

Political interests in Fort Wayne this week centers in the meeting of the independent democratic, progressive and republican committees, to be held within a few days. Prominent men of all political faith declare that more supporters of the independent movement are joining the ranks each day, and that everything is in excellent shape for the official launching of the non-partisan ticket.

At the joint meeting to be held this week, the committees representing the democratic, republican and progressive

(Continued on Page 15, Column 3.)

FRED TRESSLETT DIES SUDDENLY

Heart Attack is Fatal to Well Known Young Business Man.

ILL BUT FEW DAYS

Frederick T. Tresslett, one of the city's well-known businessmen, died suddenly at 9 o'clock this morning at the family home, 215 East Jefferson street.

Death was due to heart disease from which he had suffered since last January. His condition, however, had not been regarded as serious until Saturday.

FREDERICK T. TRESSLETT.

when he suffered a severe attack. He was greatly improved Sunday and was able to be about the house, but another and more severe attack early this morning resulted in death. Mr. Tresslett was forty-seven years of age.

Many of Mr. Tresslett's friends did not know that he was ill and news of his death came as a great shock to his hundreds of acquaintances. He had lived in Fort Wayne all of his life and was associated with his brothers, Herman and Oscar Tresslett in the City Milling company, one of Fort Wayne's earliest established flouring mills. His acquaintances were numbered by the hundreds throughout the city and county and his death comes as a sorrowful shock to all who knew him.

Mr. Tresslett was born in Fort Wayne, July 1, 1866 and was a son of the late Christian Tresslett, who passed away one year ago last Saturday. He was

(Continued on Page 2, Column 1)

SHOOTS MOTHER, THEN HIMSELF

Son of Wealthy Chicago Man Enacts Double Tragedy at Bass Lake.

WAS CRAZED BY DRINK

Knox, Ind., July 21.—Martin Strasburger, son of Frank Strasburger, a wealthy Chicago manufacturer, today shot his stepmother through the head and then committed suicide at the summer home of his father, on Bass lake near here. Mrs. Strasburger is not expected to live.

No cause for the shooting has been learned as neighbors said there had been no hard feeling between the young man and his stepmother. The father heard the shot while working in the garden. He started on a run to the house and met his wife near the door. She fell in his arms.

According to Bass Lake authorities young Strasburger had been living a fast life in Chicago and had been drinking hard. It is believed that his excessive use of alcohol caused him to become mentally deranged.

VATICAN GUARDS LIST GRIEVANCES

Mutinous Swiss Present Memorial to Cardinal Merry del Val.

DEMANDS ARE SET OUT

Rome, July 21.—The mutinous Swiss guardsmen at the Vatican today presented to Cardinal Merry del Val, papal secretary of state, a memorial relating their grievances and the conditions on which they are disposed to remain in the service. The conditions are:

- 1.—The dismissal of the commander of the Swiss guards.
- 2.—An increase in the Swiss guards from 80 to 100.
- 3.—The commander and all officers to be chosen from among themselves.
- 4.—The abolition of the prohibition against the guards frequenting taverns on the right bank of the Tiber and the granting of permission to frequent wine shops.

SPANKING FOR MR. BEVERIDGE

Urged by Schwedtman, Who Wanted Mr. Watson to Undertake Job.

MULHALL IS BACK ON STAND AGAIN

Imposing List of Congressmen Were on Blacklist,
He Declares.

BULLETIN.

Washington, July 21. Martin M. Mulhall, late lobbyist for the National Association of Manufacturers testified today before the senate investigating committee. A letter from Thomas Gibson, a New York financial writer, from whom David Lamar testified he got information to base his charge of an $82,000,000 forgery on the books of the Union Pacific railroad, was put in the record. Gibson wrote he did not now believe there was a forgery and was sending out a retraction to his subscribers. Paul D. Cravath, counsel for the railroad put in a letter from a firm of public accountants explaining the apparent discrepancies upon which Lamar based his sensational charge.

(Continued on Page 2, Column 3.)

DAIRYMAN IS FATALLY HURT

O. F. Nees Dies of Injuries Received When Street Car Hit Wagon

TOSSED TO CURB; SKULL CRUSHED

Accident on Creighton Avenue Causes Death in Few Hours.

Otto F. Nees, a dairyman aged 38 years and residing on a farm a few miles from the city, received fatal injuries at 8 o'clock this morning when his dairy wagon was struck by a street car at the corner of Creighton avenue and Fox avenue.

The injured man was hurried to the Lutheran hospital suffering from a crushed skull and died there at 10:45, less than three hours after he had been hurt.

Mr. Nees was driving north on Fox avenue and drove directly in front of car No. 207, east-bound on the Broadway line. The car hit his wagon, partially overturning it and tossed the driver high in the air. He alighted upon his head on the curbstone and his skull was frightfully crushed by the impact.

Could Not See the Car.

Owing to the height of ground on the west side of Fox avenue at the corner of Creighton, Nees could not see and perhaps could not hear the approaching car and did not know his danger until the car was upon him.

Mr. Nees was driving north on Fox avenue and drove directly in front of car No. 207, east-bound on the Broadway line. The car hit his wagon, partially overturning it and tossed the driver high in the air. He alighted upon his head on the curbstone and his skull was frightfully crushed by the impact.

Hurled to the Hospital.

The police ambulance was called as soon as it was seen that Nees was badly injured, and he was hurried to the Lutheran hospital where Dr. J. M. Danner attended him.

Nees' head was literally split open by the terrific impact of his skull against the curbstone. A gaping fracture extended from the top of the frontal bone

(Continued on Page 2, Column 2.)

SINKING STEAMER IS RUN ON BEACH

Panic-Stricken Passengers
Safe After a Two-Mile Race With Danger.

ALL ARE TAKEN OFF

Longbeach, N. Y., July 21.—The steamer Tremper, loaded with panic-stricken passengers was beached on the east side of the Hudson here today, with the water pouring through a big hole in her bottom. The Tremper, bound from Newburgh to Albany, ran on a reef on Eggan island.

The boat had settled very low before she reached the mainland after an exciting two mile race.

The Tremper was run around in the mud near Stadtburg. All the passengers were taken off without difficulty. The steamer rests on the bottom in a safe position and her freight is uninjured.

Charley Hausbach's Valuables

WHEN Charley Hausbach, machinist at the Walbach shops, returned to his work the other day, he followed his usual custom of removing his street clothes and putting on the clothing more suitable for the sedentary work of the shops. While doing this he laid his watch, keys and pocketbook on his bench. After hanging up his good clothes, he returned to his bench.

The watch, keys and pocketbook were gone.

"Why," exclaimed Hausbach, "he's swiped my money and my keys and my watch!" Whereupon he made a quick dash for a telephone and called up the police station. To the officers he told his story, and Detective Ward Hall was hurried out to the shops to chase down the thieving hobo. The joke had gone a little further than Gabriel and McNally had planned. Nevertheless, they got the detective's attention, after Hausbach had told his story, and Roy Spambauer, to whom the "spoils" had been transferred, gave the property to the detective. The latter put the stuff into his pocket and carried it down to the police station.

An hour or two later Hausbach was called to the shop phone. It was the chief of police.

"Hausbach?"

"Yes."

"Chief of Police talking?"

"Yes, chief."

"Well, I guess we've got your stuff all right."

"Good—where did you find it?"

"Oh, we gathered in a couple of suspects down at the yards, and found a watch and keys and a pocketbook that they couldn't account for. You'd better come down and identify it."

Hausbach lost no time in reaching the police station. He had no difficulty in identifying the goods and was about to depart with it when Chief Abbott said: "I suppose you are Mr. Hausbach without doubt, but I can't let you have the property until Mr. Hall comes back to identify you. And so the visitor sat and sat and sat for two solid hours before the detective came in and spoke the word which gave him back his property."

And Charley now says he won't do a thing to the hunch that got him so excited right in the hottest season of the whole year.

SCHIEFER'S

Summer Shoe Clearance Is Now On

Don't fail to take advantage of the wonderful bargains we are offering

Men's Oxfords, $3.00 and Women's Oxfords, $2.50 Children's Oxfords, $1.50
$3.50 Value, and $3.00 Value and $1.75 Value,
$1.00 $1.00 75cH. H.
Hartwig,
Mgr.

SCHIEFER'S

Established
1865.108 EAST COLUMBIA ST.
FORT WAYNE'S OLDEST SHOE STORE.FIVE-YEAR-OLD BOY IS DROWNEDLeo F. Christen Tumbles from Pier While Waiting for His Father

TO REACH ROME CITY

Leo Francis Christen, the five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Christen, of 533 East Tabor street, fell from a pier in front of the summer home of his grandfather, John Suelzer, at Rome City, Sunday morning, and was drowned. The boy went to the landing to look for his father, who was expected in a boat from the station about 10 o'clock. Nobody saw him fall into the water, and his fate was not known until 12 o'clock, two hours after he had left the house.

When his absence attracted the notice of those at the cottage, it was supposed that he had gone to church with other members of the family, but when he did not return with the others it was feared that he had met with some mishap, and Albert Suelzer, an uncle, in diving about the end of the pier located the little body.

The child had been at the resort for ten days, and was to have returned to Fort Wayne Sunday evening with his father and younger brother Albert, aged three. He anxiously inquired about his father's arrival at the cottage, and during the morning went to the landing several times to see if the boat from the station was in sight.

The body was brought to Fort Wayne at 7 o'clock Sunday evening and removed to the home of the grandparents at 518 East DeWald street. Funeral services Tuesday morning from St. Peter's Catholic church.

FRED TRESSELT
DIES SUDDENLY

(Continued from Page 1.)

educated in the public and parochial schools of the city, and later graduated with honor from Concordia college. At the age of eighteen years Mr. Tresselt accepted a position as bookkeeper in the Robert Ogden Plumbing company in this city. He remained there but two years, however, and then became associated with his father and brothers in the milling business, in which he had engaged ever since. He was at his place of business daily, and all who visited the big plant at the corner of Clinton and Superior streets delighted in meeting him and conducting their business negotiations through him.

In 1891 he was united in marriage to Miss Rosalie Seidel, and since that time

TAKE IT UP WITH RAIL HEADS FIRSTBoard of Conciliation and Mediation is at Work in New York.

SEE TRAINMEN TODAY

New York, July 21.—The conference committee of railroad managers held their first meeting today with members of the board of mediation and conciliation who are trying to mediate in the dispute between the eastern railroads and their trainmen and conductors. The members of this board, Judge William L. Chambers, Martin A. Knapp and G. W. Hanger, decided first to hear the position of the railroads and later to receive the representatives of the employees. W. C. Lacy, president of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, and A. B. Garretson, head of the Order of Railway Conductors, waited at their headquarters in a down town hotel. They expected an opportunity to appear before the federal board this afternoon as soon as the commissioners finished their conference with the railroad managers.

Judge William L. Chambers and G. W. Hanger, who were appointed by President Wilson on Saturday as commissioners of the conference committee, to hear the position of the railroads and later to receive the representatives of the employees. W. C. Lacy, president of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, and A. B. Garretson, head of the Order of Railway Conductors, waited at their headquarters in a down town hotel. They expected an opportunity to appear before the federal board this afternoon as soon as the commissioners finished their conference with the railroad managers.

The federal commissioners arranged for their first business today to meet Eliza Lee, chairman of the railroad managers' conference committee, to learn the railroad's side of the dispute. A prevailing belief was that the railroads would consent to a compromise by withdrawing their grievances for the time being, with the understanding that they will be taken up as soon as the employees' demands have been arbitrated. It was said that the union leaders would stand firm against the arbitration of the two controversies at the same time, but were willing to agree to the separate hearings.

Erwin Kuntz, of 718 High street, has been removed to Hope hospital to undergo the fifth operation within a period of one and one-half years. The first operation was for appendicitis and trouble has developed ever since.

Miss Mabel Bryan, of Delphos, Ohio, was admitted to Hope hospital yesterday for treatment.

FIRST POLO FATALITY.

London Player Succumbs to Injuries in Accident.

London, July 21.—Although polo is popularly regarded as a dangerous game to play, the first fatality in connection with the game here, where it has been played regularly since 1871, is just recorded. Lieut. Harmon died yesterday from injuries received when his pony threw him in a match at Ranelagh on Thursday. There have been only three other polo fatalities in the entire history of the game in England.

NEW PLACES FOR PRIESTS.

Bishop Herman J. Alender Makes Three Changes in Diocese.

Three priests are affected by appointments which Rt. Rev. Bishop Herman J. Alender has just announced. Rev. James H. Durham, pastor of St. Mary's church, Dunkirk, has received the pastorate of the Holy Family church, Gas City. He takes the place of Rev. Charles E. McCabe, who recently retired on account of failing health. Father Durham was for three years the assistant at St. Patrick's church of Fort Wayne, and is well known here. Rev. Charles Marr takes the pastorate of St. Mary's church at Dunkirk. He was a former assistant at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, but later assigned to St. Lawrence's church, Muncie.

Rev. John Costello, of Anderson, one of the young priests ordained at the Cathedral by Bishop Alender on June 20, has been appointed to succeed Rev. Marr.

AMOS P. BEATTY
DIES AT DECATURAdams County Lawyer and Representative Yields to Heart Disease.

ILL BUT SHORT TIME

(Special to The Sentinel.)
Decatur, Ind., July 21.—This city was gripped today to learn of the death of Representative Amos P. Beatty, one of the best known lawyers in this section of the state. His death occurred last night after a brief illness from heart trouble. An especially sad feature of the case is that his wife has been an invalid for several years, and during that time has been at the point of death on a number of occasions.

Mr. Beatty was a prominent lawyer, having once served as prosecuting attorney, and during the last session of the legislature was the representative from Adams county there. He also served as probate officer for Adams county, and last week was appointed to the state board of charities as a member of the committee on child welfare.

He was about 65 years of age and is survived by his widow and three children—Florence, wife of George Kinzler, and Simon and Carl Beatty, who are connected with the W. H. Fargo Express company at Des Moines, Iowa.

SPANKING FOR
MR. BEVERIDGE

(Continued from Page 1.)

Fall-Out with Loudenslager.

The late Representative Henry Loudenslager, of New Jersey secretary of the republican congressional committee in 1908, seemed to have incurred the enmity of Mulhall in October of that year. Mulhall wrote to Secretary Schwedman of the manufacturers: "I told this gentleman that the manufacturers of this country were tired of pin head politics and pin head politicians. When I through Mr. Loudenslager offered an apology, claiming that he would be good from this time on, but I plainly gave him to understand that when he comes up for re-nomination he had better not fall out with Loudenslager."

Mulhall did not fully explain why he had fallen out with Loudenslager.

Spanking for Beveridge.

Schwedman wrote Mulhall in October: "I do hope that when James E. Watson of Indiana gets in the governor's chair, he will by a half dozen of his good friends, to over his knee and spank them to beat the band, including your special friend Senator Beveridge. I'd hate false friends more than I do the worst enemies."

Mulhall said all his accounts were kept by an expert who accompanied him on his trips, evidently his wife.

"She was drove crazy in the Sixth New Jersey campaign," said he. "She kept all my accounts and she was the best politician I ever knew."

A Long Blacklist.

A long "black list" of congressmen, republicans and democrats, who had incurred enmity of the National Association of Manufacturers, and were to be opposed when they came up for reelection, was presented by Mulhall. William Hughes, New Jersey, now senator; William B. Wilson, of Pennsylvania, now secretary of labor; Thomas D. Nichols, of the Tenth Pennsylvania; George A. Pearce, of the Sixth Maryland; and John L. Burnett, of the Seventh Alabama, were described by Mulhall as being on his "black list." He said that he was always in favor of labor legislation. Against all these men we made every effort to drive them from public life," said he.

On another list Irvine L. Lenroot, and Henry A. Cooper, of Wisconsin; Augustus P. Gardner, Massachusetts; Herbert Parsons, New York; William S. Greene, Massachusetts; Victor Mondak, Kansas; James T. McInerney, Illinois; Champ Clark, Missouri, and Gilbert N. Haugen, of Iowa, were described as "Cannon's list," and were in disfavor of the organization. Mulhall swore, because of their opposition to Speaker Cannon. On another list were Morse and Nelson, Wisconsin; Harry L. Maynard, of Virginia, and Loudenslager, of New Jersey. Mulhall swore that the names had been furnished by Congressman Watson or by "Mr. Childs," a clerk to the house committee on war claims in 1910.

Had Been Their Friends.

November 2, 1908, two days before the election, Mulhall wrote Schwedman: "Following is a list of congressmen I would advise having I feel sure will be fixed and who have been our friends in the past. The list included Sherman, Cannon, Burleigh, Dalzell, Denby, Dwight, Fairchild, Fassett, Fordney, Hepburn, Kiefer, Longworth, McKinley, Mally, Mann, Moon, Moore, Parsons, Payne, Rainey, and about forty others. On November 4, 1908, Schwedman wrote Mulhall: "So far we have wiced only Mr. Taft, Mr. Sherman and Mr. Cannon."

NINETY-SIX PLAYERS THERE.

National Clay Court Tennis Tournament Opens at Omaha.

Omaha, Neb., July 21.—The fourth national clay court tennis tournament opened at the Omaha field club today. Ninety-six players answered the referees' call.

LONG LANE MAKES TURN FOR HUBBYIda Cantwell Soaked Hard on Conviction of Scarlet Sin.

NEWS OF THE POLICE

A week ago Mrs. Ida Cantwell filed an affidavit against her husband, William, for desertion and failure to provide. Prosecutor Stephen A. Callahan instructed the police to hold up the warrant for investigation of the case before an arrest should be made. The prosecutor had a bona-fide hunch, for Ida was in the city court this morning facing a charge of prostitution, to which she made no defense. She was arrested last night by Officer Bireley at a rooming house at 613 Harrison street, where she had registered and taken a room with Fred Knell as his wife. Both entered pleas of guilty and the woman was given $10 and costs and ten days in jail and her companion was given $10 and costs. They went to jail. Mrs. Cantwell testified that she is the mother of a baby, which is now in the care of her parents, and that she is in the habit of visiting wineries with men. The Majesty of the Law.

Ralph Cort, charged with assault and battery, was impressed with the majesty of the law when on a charge that in itself was trivial Judge Mungovan fined him $5 and costs, added ten days and sent him over to put in the time for all of it. When arrested last week Cort was allowed to go on his own recognizance. His failure to appear annoyed the court and got the police in had for leniency shown him. He was arrested Saturday night by Officer Brennan and locked up. His abuse of parole furnishes the diagram to the fine and ten days. Cort had trouble with Pablo Polayo, a Filipino who runs a restaurant at 621 Harrison street, and during the dispute struck Mrs. Polayo, a trail little white woman. Cort is well known about town as a socialist agitator.

Communes With the Invisible.

Sam Larmore, a strikingly unkempt tramp cigarette maker, arrested while he was a sleep on the curb on Main street by Officer Madden, said he had a periodical vision of communing with invisible processes. He did this in highly animated fashion for half an hour in a Main street saloon Saturday night before he went out and laid him down to sleep on the chilly curbstone. Larmore carried on a long controversy with a presence that no one but himself could see, and seemed in a fair way to start commencing when he was shot into the street. "Great Scott!" exclaimed Judge Mungovan, "do many fellows as dirty as you make the cigars we fellows smoke?" Larmore didn't swear to it, but thought not, and the judge let him go.

Find Some Stolen Goods.

Jack Edwards, a negro who was shot by Special Officer Mulvihill, of the Washash, Saturday night when the negro was seen prowling in a Washash freight car in the yards, was held for hearing under $500 bond. A search of his room at 356 Mehta street, revealed a quantity of stuff believed to have been stolen from Washash cars. Edwards was shot through the fleshy part of his right leg above the knee by Officer Mulvihill and has a painful lough not dangerous wound.

Reputables Her Story.

Christina Birkenbeul, the sixteen-year-old girl upon the strength of whose story her father, Gearhart Birkenbeul, was arrested early Saturday and charged with an unsuited crime, now repudiates the testimony she gave to Deputy Prosecutor Callahan. She denies that her father made her the victim of his unspeakable crime. This morning Judge Mungovan paroled her.

Repudiates Her Story.

Christina Birkenbeul, the sixteen-year-old girl upon the strength of whose story her father, Gearhart Birkenbeul, was arrested early Saturday and charged with an unsuited crime, now repudiates the testimony she gave to Deputy Prosecutor Callahan. She denies that her father made her the victim of his unspeakable crime. This morning Judge Mungovan paroled her.

Repudiates Her Story.

Christina Birkenbeul, the sixteen-year-old girl upon the strength of whose story her father, Gearhart Birkenbeul, was arrested early Saturday and charged with an unsuited crime, now repudiates the testimony she gave to Deputy Prosecutor Callahan. She denies that her father made her the victim of his unspeakable crime. This morning Judge Mungovan paroled her.

Repudiates Her Story.

Christina Birkenbeul, the sixteen-year-old girl upon the strength of whose story her father, Gearhart Birkenbeul, was arrested early Saturday and charged with an unsuited crime, now repudiates the testimony she gave to Deputy Prosecutor Callahan. She denies that her father made her the victim of his unspeakable crime. This morning Judge Mungovan paroled her.

Repudiates Her Story.

Christina Birkenbeul, the sixteen-year-old girl upon the strength of whose story her father, Gearhart Birkenbeul, was arrested early Saturday and charged with an unsuited crime, now repudiates the testimony she gave to Deputy Prosecutor Callahan. She denies that her father made her the victim of his unspeakable crime. This morning Judge Mungovan paroled her.

Repudiates Her Story.

Christina Birkenbeul, the sixteen-year-old girl upon the strength of whose story her father, Gearhart Birkenbeul, was arrested early Saturday and charged with an unsuited crime, now repudiates the testimony she gave to Deputy Prosecutor Callahan. She denies that her father made her the victim of his unspeakable crime. This morning Judge Mungovan paroled her.

Repudiates Her Story.

Christina Birkenbeul, the sixteen-year-old girl upon the strength of whose story her father, Gearhart Birkenbeul, was arrested early Saturday and charged with an unsuited crime, now repudiates the testimony she gave to Deputy Prosecutor Callahan. She denies that her father made her the victim of his unspeakable crime. This morning Judge Mungovan paroled her.

Repudiates Her Story.

Christina Birkenbeul, the sixteen-year-old girl upon the strength of whose story her father, Gearhart Birkenbeul, was arrested early Saturday and charged with an unsuited crime, now repudiates the testimony she gave to Deputy Prosecutor Callahan. She denies that her father made her the victim of his unspeakable crime. This morning Judge Mungovan paroled her.

Repudiates Her Story.

Christina Birkenbeul, the sixteen-year-old girl upon the strength of whose story her father, Gearhart Birkenbeul, was arrested early Saturday and charged with an unsuited crime, now repudiates the testimony she gave to Deputy Prosecutor Callahan. She denies that her father made her the victim of his unspeakable crime. This morning Judge Mungovan paroled her.

Repudiates Her Story.

Christina Birkenbeul, the sixteen-year-old girl upon the strength of whose story her father, Gearhart Birkenbeul, was arrested early Saturday and charged with an unsuited crime, now repudiates the testimony she gave to Deputy Prosecutor Callahan. She denies that her father made her the victim of his unspeakable crime. This morning Judge Mungovan paroled her.

Repudiates Her Story.

Soda crackers are more nutritritive than any other flour food. Uneeda Biscuit are the perfect soda crackers.Though the cost is but five cents, Uneeda Biscuit are too good, too nourishing, too crisp, to be bought merely as an economy.

NEWS OF THE POLICE

A week ago Mrs. Ida Cantwell filed an affidavit against her husband, William, for desertion and failure to provide. Prosecutor Stephen A. Callahan instructed the police to hold up the warrant for investigation of the case before an arrest should be made. The prosecutor had a bona-fide hunch, for Ida was in the city court this morning facing a charge of prostitution, to which she made no defense. She was arrested last night by Officer Bireley at a rooming house at 613 Harrison street, where she had registered and taken a room with Fred Knell as his wife. Both entered pleas of guilty and the woman was given $10 and costs and ten days in jail and her companion was given $10 and costs. They went to jail. Mrs. Cantwell testified that she is the mother of a baby, which is now in the care of her parents, and that she is in the habit of visiting wineries with men. The Majesty of the Law.

Ralph Cort, charged with assault and battery, was impressed with the majesty of the law when on a charge that in itself was trivial Judge Mungovan fined him $5 and costs, added ten days and sent him over to put in the time for all of it. When arrested last week Cort was allowed to go on his own recognizance. His failure to appear annoyed the court and got the police in had for leniency shown him. He was arrested Saturday night by Officer Brennan and locked up. His abuse of parole furnishes the diagram to the fine and ten days. Cort had trouble with Pablo Polayo, a Filipino who runs a restaurant at 621 Harrison street, and during the dispute struck Mrs. Polayo, a trail little white woman. Cort is well known about town as a socialist agitator.

Communes With the Invisible.

Sam Larmore, a strikingly unkempt tramp cigarette maker, arrested while he was a sleep on the curb on Main street by Officer Madden, said he had a periodical vision of communing with invisible processes. He did this in highly animated fashion for half an hour in a Main street saloon Saturday night before he went out and laid him down to sleep on the chilly curbstone. Larmore carried on a long controversy with a presence that no one but himself could see, and seemed in a fair way to start commencing when he was shot into the street. "Great Scott!" exclaimed Judge Mungovan, "do many fellows as dirty as you make the cigars we fellows smoke?" Larmore didn't swear to it, but thought not, and the judge let him go.

Find Some Stolen Goods.

Jack Edwards, a negro who was shot by Special Officer Mulvihill, of the Washash, Saturday night when the negro was seen prowling in a Washash freight car in the yards, was held for hearing under $500 bond. A search of his room at 356 Mehta street, revealed a quantity of stuff believed to have been stolen from Washash cars. Edwards was shot through the fleshy part of his right leg above the knee by Officer Mulvihill and has a painful lough not dangerous wound.

Reputables Her Story.

Christina Birkenbeul, the sixteen-year-old girl upon the strength of whose story her father, Gearhart Birkenbeul, was arrested early Saturday and charged with an unsuited crime, now repudiates the testimony she gave to Deputy Prosecutor Callahan. She denies that her father made her the victim of his unspeakable crime. This morning Judge Mungovan paroled her.

Repudiates Her Story.

Christina Birkenbeul, the sixteen-year-old girl upon the strength of whose story her father, Gearhart Birkenbeul, was arrested early Saturday and charged with an unsuited crime, now repudiates the testimony she gave to Deputy Prosecutor Callahan. She denies that her father made her the victim of his unspeakable crime. This morning Judge Mungovan paroled her.

Repudiates Her Story.

Christina Birkenbeul, the sixteen-year-old girl upon the strength of whose story her father, Gearhart Birkenbeul, was arrested early Saturday and charged with an unsuited crime, now repudiates the testimony she gave to Deputy Prosecutor Callahan. She denies that her father made her the victim of his unspeakable crime. This morning Judge Mungovan paroled her.

Repudiates Her Story.

Christina Birkenbeul, the sixteen-year-old girl upon the strength of whose story her father, Gearhart Birkenbeul, was arrested early Saturday and charged with an unsuited crime, now repudiates the testimony she gave to Deputy Prosecutor Callahan. She denies that her father made her the victim of his unspeakable crime. This morning Judge Mungovan paroled her.

Repudiates Her Story.

Christina Birkenbeul, the sixteen-year-old girl upon the strength of whose story her father, Gearhart Birkenbeul, was arrested early Saturday and charged with an unsuited crime, now repudiates the testimony she gave to Deputy Prosecutor Callahan. She denies that her father made her the victim of his unspeakable crime. This morning Judge Mungovan paroled her.

Repudiates Her Story.

Christina Birkenbeul, the sixteen-year-old girl upon the strength of whose story her father, Gearhart Birkenbeul, was arrested early Saturday and charged with an unsuited crime, now repudiates the testimony she gave to Deputy Prosecutor Callahan. She denies that her father made her the victim of his unspeakable crime. This morning Judge Mungovan paroled her.

Repudiates Her Story.

Christina Birkenbeul, the sixteen-year-old girl upon the strength of whose story her father, Gearhart Birkenbeul, was arrested early Saturday and charged with an unsuited crime, now repudiates the testimony she gave to Deputy Prosecutor Callahan. She denies that her father made her the victim of his unspeakable crime. This morning Judge Mungovan paroled her.

Repudiates Her Story.

Christina Birkenbeul, the sixteen-year-old girl upon the strength of whose story her father, Gearhart Birkenbeul, was arrested early Saturday and charged with an unsuited crime, now repudiates the testimony she gave to Deputy Prosecutor Callahan. She denies that her father made her the victim of his unspeakable crime. This morning Judge Mungovan paroled her.

Repudiates Her Story.

Christina Birkenbeul, the sixteen-year-old girl upon the strength of whose story her father, Gearhart Birkenbeul, was arrested early Saturday and charged with an unsuited crime, now repudiates the testimony she gave to Deputy Prosecutor Callahan. She denies that her father made her the victim of his unspeakable crime. This morning Judge Mungovan paroled her.

Repudiates Her Story.

Christina Birkenbeul, the sixteen-year-old girl upon the strength of whose story her father, Gearhart Birkenbeul, was arrested early Saturday and charged with an unsuited crime, now repudiates the testimony she gave to Deputy Prosecutor Callahan. She denies that her father made her the victim of his unspeakable crime. This morning Judge Mungovan paroled her.

Repudiates Her Story.

SOLDIERS LEAVE
FOR ENCAMPMENTFort Wayne, Angola and Auburn Send Nearly 200 to Fort Benj. Harrison.

TRAVEL ON SPECIAL

Nearly two hundred militiamen from Fort Wayne, Angola and Auburn, left at 7:25 o'clock this morning in a special Lake Erie & Western train for Indianapolis, where they will attend the annual state encampment of the Indiana national guard at Fort Benjamin Harrison. The Fort Wayne men of Company D numbered forty, and were under the command of Captain Sharp and First Lieutenant James Bird. Major Clyde F. Driesbach, of this city, has been at Fort Harrison for several days. Sixty members of the Auburn company, with a carload of horses and guns, made the trip aboard the special, and the Angola troop numbered seventy members. Company D of this city, had been put through a long course of drilling and instruction covering a period of several months, in preparation for the encampment, and the Fort Wayne militiamen expect to make the best showing this year that they have ever boasted. The company is in excellent condition and expects to participate actively in all of the affairs at the fort.

AUTOS SWEEPING
TOWARD CAPITALSuffragists Awheel Prepare to Storm Washington
With Petitions.

MEET THERE JULY 31

Washington, July 21.—Scores of suffragists laden automobiles are hastening toward Washington bearing petitions to congress for a constitutional amendment granting universal suffrage, and by the end of this week, leaders of the National Woman Suffrage association said today these automobiles would be numbered by the hundreds. The senate and house are to be stormed by the motoring women July 31.

Already a number of state parties of women are on their way here awheel. An official announcement says that delegates are now on the road from Georgia, Tennessee, Virginia, New York, Massachusetts, Pennsylvania, New Jersey and several other states. These early starters are speaking for the "cause" along the way and swelling their lists of signatures to the petition to congress.

Extended preparations are being made for the general reception at Hyattsville, Md., to the women pilgrims. H. Martin Williams, reading clerk of the house, has volunteered to act as announcer as the several state delegations arrive in their cars. A huge number of senators and representatives have promised to serve on the reception committee provided public business will permit and there is to be music and other features.

Harry Hatfield, of 1510 High street, an employee at the Pennsylvania shops, was run down by an automobile Saturday night at the corner of Clinton and Jefferson streets. His injuries are not considered serious.

DAIRYMAN IS FATALLY HURT

(Continued from Page 1.)

back over the crown and to the rear of the right car. That death was not instantaneous was remarkable. He was unconscious when picked up, but groaning heavily. Examination at the hospital showed that he had no chance and his family were hurriedly sent for.

His mother and sister reached the hospital a short time after death had ensued and were overcome by the suddenness of the tragedy that had brought death into the family circle.

The remains were taken to the Kleim and Melching morgue to be prepared for burial.

Car Running at High Speed.

That the street car was running at high speed is the opinion of the police who were at the scene of the accident. The milk wagon was dragged a distance of sixty-six feet by the car before a stop was made. The car was one of the new pay-as-you-enter type and is equipped with airbrakes which are powerful enough to force a stop in a much shorter distance than ordinary speed.

There was a marked down grade from Miner street to Fox avenue, and the car gained additional momentum from gravity.

Must Have Been Outside the Wagon.

Nees must have been standing on the step of his wagon and on the side away from the car, else he could hardly have been hurled clear of the vehicle to the pavement. Milkmen commonly ride that fashion for the greater convenience of delivery of their product to customers.

The wagon came from the south on Fox avenue and had just turned into Creighton avenue, going in the same direction that the car was moving, when the collision occurred.

Victim Was Unmarried.

Nees lived with his widowed mother on rural route thirteen, a few miles east of the city. He was unmarried. His father, Henry C. C. Nees, died several years ago. Besides the mother there are surviving a brother, Rev. Albert Nees, Ossian, Ind., and three sisters—Mrs. Rev. Weichman, Hilbert, Wis.; Mrs. Henry Kramer and Miss Bertha Nees of this city.

The deceased was a man of exemplary character and stood high in the neighborhood where he lived and was well liked by numerous patrons in the city.

He had a dairy house on Schick street.

Committee in charge of the Elks' picnic to be held Tuesday night at Swimney park, have made arrangements to light the grounds with acetylene lamps.

Indiana Loan Co.

211-212 Shoaff Bldg., 2nd Floor
Estab. 1895. Home Phone 995

WE KEEP A

copy of your prescription always on file. If you are away and break your glasses, just write or telegraph your name. New glasses will be sent you same day we receive your message—another advantage in having us to do your optical work.

You need Shur-ons if you need glasses.

NO CHARGE FOR EXAMINATION.

ROGERS
EYESIGHT SPECIALISTAnthony Hotel Bldg.,
"Where the Good Glasses Come From."LEGAL RATE
LOANS2 PER CENT PER MONTH
We loan $5 to $100 and from one to twelve months' time. We have not changed our plan of long time and easy payments, which has become so popular with the borrowing public. On the other hand we have lowered our rates to conform to the new law, under which we operate and are bonded and bonded to the state of Indiana.

We loan on household goods, pianos, horses, wagons, fixtures, etc., without removal. Mail or phone applications receive prompt attention.

FORT WAYNE LOAN CO.

ESTABLISHED 1899.
Room 2, 2d Floor 708 Calhoun St.
Home Phone 833, Fort Wayne, Ind.

NEWS OF FORT WAYNE'S NEIGHBORS

STARTLING ECHO OF A TRIPLE TRAGEDY

Auto Accident in Which Three Were Killed Two Years Ago Brings on Manslaughter Charge.

Huntington, Ind., July 21. Based upon alleged new evidence which has developed since the tragedy nearly two years ago and subsequent to two grand jury investigations which failed to develop more than a charge of fast driving, a charge of manslaughter was filed against George Bechtold, driver of the automobile which was struck by a Washburn train in October, 1911, resulting in the death of Sterling Dubbs, his wife and a child.

Bechtold was placed under arrest by Deputy Sheriff Haley and brought before Judge Cook in the circuit court. Bond in the sum of $800 was given, signed by the defendant and Conrad and John W. Bechtold. Bechtold was released immediately.

The charge was filed by John Dubbs, father of the young farmer who met his death in the car driven by Bechtold.

Extreme reluctance surrounds the startling development in the case which was generally believed had been disposed of permanently. Other than the assertion that "new evidence has been unearthed," no statement is available from those connected with the contemplated prosecution.

Prosecutor Krieg declined to discuss the matter, intimating only that the charges are the outgrowth of strong pressure brought to bear by relatives of the tragedy victims. Mr. Dubbs and County Commissioner Thomas Powell already have retained a law firm to represent the prosecution and to all appearances, are determined to carry the fight to the limit. Mr. Powell was the father of the late Mrs. Dubbs.

Careless driving, it is understood will be the principal point upon which the prosecution depends for conviction. It will be shown also that Mrs. Dubbs was pregnant when killed, it is said.

A grand jury session in February, 1912, resulted in a charge of fast driving against Bechtold. To this he entered a plea of guilty and paid a nominal fine. This point also will be emphasized by the prosecution, it is understood, with the purpose of showing carelessness and, therefore, guilt of manslaughter.

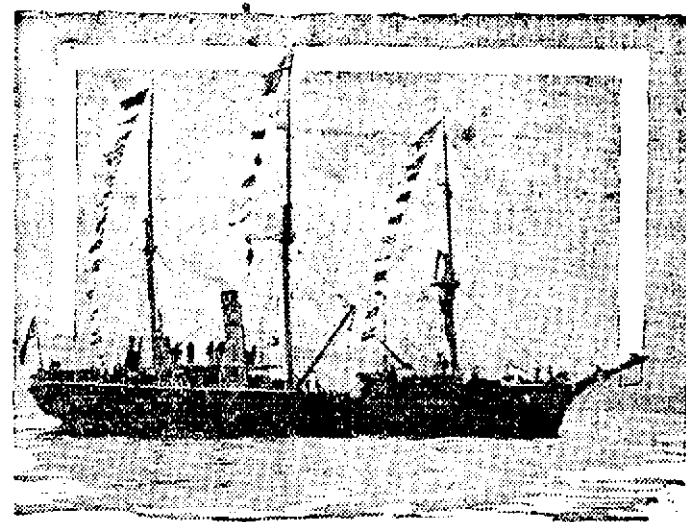

A second grand jury investigation, some time later, failed to bring further charges against Bechtold and the matter dropped, permanently it was then believed.

Since then, it is now alleged, additional evidence has developed. The accident in which the three persons were killed occurred on the Fawcett crossing, three miles west of the city.

GOSHEN SALOON IS BUSY.

Goshen, Ind., July 21. When the subject of the volume of business now being done by Goshen saloons was being discussed, it was stated by one person that Goshen saloons are at present taking 1,000 per week. While this may be one of the one saloons, it is evident that several of them are not taking in a portion of $1,000 per week.

CANNED MUSIC AND BRIGHT BOBSLEDS TO HELP THIS U. S. ARCTIC EXPEDITION.

THE U. S. ARCTIC LEAVING NEW YORK FOR THE ARCTIC.

New York, July 21.—Canned music to give the first test to the expedition which has just sailed on the steamer, which is to explore Crocker Land under the leadership of Dr. Donald R. MacMillan. Peary used gum drops and repeating rifles in his discovery of the north pole.

Dr. MacMillan, who has been in the far north several times, is staking the success of the Diana expedition on music to be provided by some seven phonographs, using over 300 records. And he is also banking on the popularity he will gain by distributing the contents of a crate of bright new bobsleds among the children. And, of course, the ship carries several barrels of gum drops.

GO TO Pfeiffer's
107-109 E. Columbia St.
For Screen Doors, etc.
We are 3 doors
from Calhoun St., and our phone is 484.

STRIKING HARD AT THE POOL ROOMS

Little Town of Monroe Places a Heavy Monthly License on Resorts of That Kind.

Decatur, Ind., July 21.—Billiards and pool come high in Monroe.

This is because of a new ordinance the town trustees passed at their last meeting.

For some time there has been a reform movement going on in Monroe and it included an agitation against pool and billiard playing. It is alleged that the patronage of the place is not sufficient without the support of minors and to permit minors to play is violating the law. The reform element say the minors shall not play and to keep them from playing steps are being taken to make the pool business so unprofitable that no one will engage in the business.

The new ordinance passed at the last meeting of the board of town trustees provides that every proprietor of a pool room must pay a license fee of $5 per month for each table operated by him. This makes the license fee in a room with three tables touch the high mark of $15 per month. This license added to usual rental of the property makes it expensive to run a pool room.

At Monroe the license is $20 a month for each pool or billiard table. A number of Monroe people wanted the same ordinance passed as at Berne but the town council kept it down to a place that is not entirely prohibitive.

One pool room is in operation in Monroe and the proprietor is certain he can pay the high license fee. He was formerly the marshal of the town but since the pool business must be worked to its limit to make it profitable, he has resigned his official position on the roster of town officials and a temporary man is now guardian of the peace.

MAY LOSE AN EYE.

Huntington, Ind., July 21.—Cecil Scott, prominent young farmer living near Pleasant Plain, is confined in the Huntington hospital, suffering from severe injury to his right eye as the result of being struck by a splinter of wood. Attending surgeons are unable to determine whether the Jefferson township man will retain the proper sight of the injured eye. While attending to duties about his farm, Mr. Scott was struck in the eye by a piece of timber, flying from a slab of wood which he was chopping. Immediately after the accident, Mr. Scott suffered severe hemorrhages from the wound.

COLLINS FIXES UNION DAY.

Columbia City, Ind., July 21. August 19 has been chosen as the date for the annual union festival at Collins. This was decided on at a meeting held here Saturday by farmers and business men of the vicinity of Collins. The name of the association was changed to the "Collins Agricultural Fair." William Sanders was elected president, O. R. Jones secretary and Albert Jagger treasurer. Arrangements were left to these officers and they will shortly meet and appoint the several committees necessary to the preparation of details.

LIVED UNDER A TREE.

Aged and Homeless Man is Cared for at Decatur.

Decatur, Ind., July 21. A most pitiful case was that of a man about sixty-five years of age, who for the past week has been lying around under the trees near the Monroe street bridge, and depending mainly upon crumblers, and depending solely upon the sympathy of passing people for means to get these. The man claims his name as Isaac Hipsher, and that he came from the west part of the state, and had no destination for which he was headed, merely roaming about. He claimed to have worked several years ago on the Chicago & Erie railroad, near Hobo, and while there made the acquaintance of Levi Schafer. He is mentally feeble as well as physical, is unable to tell his age, where he came from or spell his name. He also claims that he was born in Ohio and that he has no relatives. The case was taken before Trustee Butler by Jake Buhler and an order was issued to have him taken to the county infirmary where under good care he may be able in a short time to take care of himself.

LAY LIBRARY CORNERSTONE.

Impressive Ceremonies Mark Event at Kendallville.

Kendallville, Ind., July 21.—Impressive ceremonies marked the laying of the cornerstone of Kendallville's new public library Saturday. The affair was under the auspices of the Masonic lodge and the appropriateness of that fraternity marked the ceremonies. Hon. John W. Hagan, of Lagrange, grandmaster of Indiana Masons, conducted the ceremonies and made the principal address. Mayor Forest Field spoke briefly. Among the contents of the cornerstone is a history of the public library movement in Kendallville written by Mrs. C. W. Kimmel. To Mrs. Kimmel and L. J. Keller this city is mainly indebted for the movement which has issued in the fine structure now under way. Kendallville boy scouts had a large part in preserving order and managing the crowd.

TO HAVE OPTION ELECTION.

Warsaw, Ind., July 21.—Action is being taken toward the calling of an option election in Warsaw. The petitions were prepared on Saturday morning and they will be circulated immediately in the hope of securing the required number before the regular meeting of the county commissioners in August. A petition for an option election, in order to receive attention, must bear the signatures of at least 20 per cent. of the voters, the number to be determined by the number of votes cast at the last election. In November of 1912, the three candidates for governor received a total of 1,117 votes in Warsaw. Taking this as the basis the number of signatures needed on the election petitions is 224.

Huntington, Ind., July 21.—Guiseppe Caddi, a foreigner who had been in this country but two months, in the employ of the Erie-Shoemaker company, was killed instantly when the train on which he was working ran over his chest, grinding the bones to a pulp. Caddi had remarked only a few minutes prior to his death, as he had said times before, "That he wished that he was back in Italy with his wife and small daughter."

DIED IN OHIO SANITARIUM.

Columbia City, Ind., July 21. Mrs. Mary A. Trembly was buried Sunday from her home in this city. Her death took place at a sanitarium in Newark, O., to which she had been taken early last June in the hope of benefit to her health. Mrs. Trembly was born in Muskingum county, Ohio, and was 74 years old. She came to Whitley county forty-three years ago with her husband, who preceded her in death a score of years. Two children, S. F. Trembly, of this city, and Mrs. E. G. Evans, of Newark, O., survive. Mrs. Trembly was a member of the Grace Lutheran church here.

CULTURED PARROT DIES.

Decatur, Ind., July 21. Death has claimed the parrot that for many years had its home in the McMillan family here. The bird was brought here twenty-two years ago by D. M. Hensley, the jeweler, and is believed to have been eighty years old. It was long the intimate companion of the late Dr. W. W. P. McMillan and it is said the doctor's death six months ago and finally succumbed to grief. It was a famous talker and numerous stories are related of its accomplishments in English speech.

GIVES BOY FORGER CHANCE.

Bluffton, Ind., July 21.—Judge W. H. Elchorn, sitting in the juvenile court, has paroled Cecil Lidy, the fifteen-year-old boy who has lately made something of a sensation here by his forgery. The lad is now in the custody of his parents. Young Lidy secured about $20 by means of forged checks that he passed over the counters of local banks.

HURT IN RUNAWAY.

Columbia City, Ind., July 21.—William Plattner, a farmer of Columbia township, is laid up at home with a badly broken ankle received when his horse took fright at Dr. D. S. Linnell's automobile and ran away, throwing him out. Mrs. Plattner and her babe were also thrown out, but escaped serious injury.

MANIAC ESCAPES JAIL.

Angola, Ind., July 21.—Al Ready, an insane man, escaped from the Steuben county jail here while some plumbers were doing work about the building and left a door open. Ready was captured and returned to the jail by John Sheidler, a trustee about the place.

FORT WAYNE BOY KILLED.

Columbia City, Ind., July 21.—John Roenig is the name given by a youth of 18 who is in jail here on a charge of intoxication. He had a partially emptied bottle of whiskey when arrested and the authorities will try to learn where he bought it. Roenig claims Fort Wayne as his home.

WARSAW GUARDS TO ENCAMPMENT.

Warsaw, Ind., July 21.—Company H, Third regiment, I. N. G. of Warsaw, encamped at Fort Benjamin Harrison.

NOTICE Store
Closes at 6 P. M. on Saturdays
During July and August.

The Peoples Store

IN CONNECTION WITH OUR GREAT Semi-Annual Clearance Sale

Final Cut Prices on All Tailored Suits

To Vacationists, Tourists, etc., this should be welcome news, as you can provide yourself with that indispensable Traveling Suit at a mere fraction of its real value.

$12.50, $15, $17.50, $19.50
FINE TAILORED SUITS, NOW.....$5.00

Suits in plain colors, Novelty Mixtures, Fancy Serges, Mannish Cloths, etc., in the best colors and styles of the season, that formerly sold at $12.50, $15, $17.50, $19.50; Your choice for.....$5.00
(A Small Charge for Alterations.)

$22.50, $25, $29.50, $35
FINE TAILORED SUITS, NOW.....$7.50

Beautiful New Spring Tailored Suits, in plain colors, two-tone. Fancy Serges and Mannish materials, with the best of silk or satin linings, that formerly sold for $22.50, $25, $29.50 to $35.00; your choice for.....$7.50
(A Small Charge for Alterations.)

ODDS AND ENDS IN LADIES' MISSES' & CHILDREN'S GARMENTS.....$1.98

Suits, Coats, skirts, etc., a few odds and ends of Ladies' Misses' and Children's Apparel, all this season's models and perfect in every respect, that sold at $5 to as high as $20.00; your pick of the lot for.....$1.98

$6.00 TO $7.50 SERGE DRESSES FOR.....$3.98

About 100 Ladies' and Misses' $6.00 to $7.50 fine Serge Dresses, all colors, and most all sizes, perfect fitting models of the season's best creations, a splendid opportunity for vacationists; your choice of the lot for.....$3.98

$5.00 AND $6.00 LADIES' AND MISSES' DRESS SKIRTS FOR.....$2.98

250 Ladies' and Misses' $5.00 and $6.00 Dress Skirts, in Black, Blue, Brown, Tan, etc., French Serges and Novelty Materials, not a job lot, but our regular stock of fine Skirts, just to make a little sensation,

YOUR CHOICE OF THE LOT.....$2.98 EACH

150 Ladies' and Misses' $6.50 to $8.00 Dress Skirts, in the best of materials, all colors as well as black, never again will you get a selection like this at the special price of

YOUR CHOICE OF THE LOT.....$3.98 EACH

THE PEOPLE'S STORE

The special train also carried the Albion, Elkhart and Goshen companies.

PARALYSIS CAUSE OF DEATH.

Bluffton, Ind., July 21.—The funeral of Dora Lysse, a Well county pioneer, was held today at the Apostolic church east of here. The deceased was seventy-five years old and had long been a resident of the county. Death was the result of paralytic stroke.

DIES AT AGE OF NINETY.

Piercetown, Ind., July 21.—At the age of ninety years, sixty of which were spent in Whitley county, David Leedy was buried Sunday at Booneville, near here. He had spent the last six years at the home of his daughter, Mrs. James Greer, where his death occurred. Ten children survive.

COURT LIKE INDIAN VILLAGE.

Red Men and Pioneers Assemble to Hear Aged Squaw's Fight.

Spokane, Wash., July 21.—Veteran Indian chiefs of the San Poll tribe, grizzled pioneers who have seen the inland empire grow from a wilderness, weather-beaten old stockmen and old Susan Enos, the squaw who claims half of the John Enos (Portuguese Joe) $250,000 estate, made Judge J. Stanley Webster's court room look like a real post-war instead of a court of justice, when the legal battle began for possession of the dead pioneer's estate. Old Mrs. Enos claims to have married Joe in September, 1870, when she sat in an Indian tepee and was given to him by her mother and father.

Old Susan declared she was cast off by Joe when the whites came to settle in the wilderness and after she had herded his cattle, chopped his wood, done his washing and cooking and borne him three children.

POOR TO SLEEP IN PARKS.

Pittsburg to Convert Its Public Squares Into Outdoor Dormitories.

Pittsburg, Pa., July 21.—All the parks in this city are to be turned into outdoor sleeping quarters for the residents who desire to sleep in the open during the summer months. Director of Public Works Joseph G. Armstrong made the announcement after many poor women had appealed to him, saying that their children were suffering from the heat when rained up in the tenement houses in the congested district, and that many of them were ill on account of not getting fresh air. The director also ordered that the police protect any who wish to take advantage of the parks for sleeping quarters. He is arranging to have summer cots placed in the parks. The women will need only light bed clothing.

STARES AT FREAK FROCKS.

London Is Taking Up Question of "Impossible" Dresses.

London, July 21.—The craze for "freak" fashions is nowhere more noticeable than in Hyde Park, where almost every other woman seems to be cackling along in impossible skirts, that are first made tight to impede their natural walk, and then slit up so that they flap and flap about the legs and ankles. These dresses almost defy description. Everything is done to complicate the skirt and distort the shape of the body. They bulge where they should not bulge, and are looped up and festooned so as to be wide in the middle and narrow at the ends, like an inverted vase. There is already a distinct movement on the part of many dressmakers in London to resist the Danish prime minister, has just served three years' apprenticeship as a joiner. An English patent has been granted for a tender to be suspended in front of an automobile wheel to brush obstructions away.

Little Chairs for little people at Foster's.

THERE YOU ARE,

Mable—Why do you think she has never had any musical training? Harry—Because when she sings you can understand every word she says.

THE SENTINEL'S DAILY SCRIPTURE READING.

Luke 12:15-24.

15 And he said unto them, Take heed, and beware of covetousness: for a man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth.

16 And he spake a parable unto them, saying, The ground of a certain rich man brought forth plentifully:

17 And he thought within himself, saying, What shall I do, because I have no room where to bestow my fruits?

18 And he said, This will I do: I will pull down my barns, and build greater; and there will I bestow all my fruits and my goods.

19 And I will say to my soul, Soul, thou hast much goods laid up for many years; take thine ease, eat, drink, and be merry.

20 But God said unto him, Thou fool, this night thy soul shall be required of thee; then whose shall those things be, which thou hast provided?

21 So is he that layeth up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward God.

22 And he said unto his disciples, Therefore I say unto you, Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat; neither for the body, what ye shall put on.

23 The life is more than meat, and the body is more than raiment.

24 Consider the ravens; for they neither sow nor reap, which neither have storehouse nor barn; and God feedeth them: how much more are ye better than the fowls?

The Fort Wayne Sentinel

Entered as Second-Class Mail Matter at the Postoffice at Fort Wayne, Indiana.

PUBLISHED EVERY EVENING EXCEPT SUNDAY.

BY E. A. K. HACKETT.

Daily, Per Week, 10c.

Weekly, Per Year, $1.00.

(Daily by Mail, $5.20 Per Year.)

VOL. LXXIV.....No. 283.

MONDAY, JULY 21, 1913.

Up to the Citizen.

Speaking at Indianapolis a few days ago, Joseph W. Folk, former governor of Missouri, gave forceful expression to the old truism that first of all in order that civic and economic conditions in this country may be improved, the public conscience must be aroused and put in working order. Many of the governmental ills of which people complain are easy of remedy, but only when the people are aroused to a determination that they shall be remedied. It is not enough to provide laws which specify thus and so. There must be behind them a popular determination that they shall actually be just what they mean on their face. To a very large degree this is a condition that seems unfair. The private citizen, engrossed in his own affairs, argues that officers are chosen to enforce the laws and are sworn to do their duty; that it is an imposition to expect him to perform services for which others are specifically chosen and paid. The argument is excellent except for the fact that it doesn't "work" in practice. Reforms are always the result of popular opinion; never the outcome of isolated individual endeavor or the initiative of any executive without the specific demand of the people whom he represents.

Governor Folk is unquestionably correct in his declaration that the greatest impediment to better things is the indifference of the people, or, rather, the failure of the people to insist that their demands be obeyed. But just as unquestionably there is coming an awakened public conscience. It is plainly evidenced in the demand for governmental reforms in high places, in the war on graft and corruption and the insistence upon the rights of the people against the so-called "invisible government." It is apparent, also, in the growing tendency toward non-partisan action in municipal affairs and the determination by concerted endeavor to lift government to a plane where it will yield the fullest measure of efficient service in return for the money which the tax-payer invests in it. People are realizing today as never before that if they are to have the best of government they must depend upon themselves and not upon the man in politics as a profession to get it. The issue of good government is squarely up to the citizen.

South Bend is another Indiana city in which many voters have reached the conclusion that party misrule in municipal affairs has been endured long enough, and a citizens' independent movement has been launched there under the most promising prospects. As against partisan administration that benefits nobody save the particular crowd that happens to win, any system that will bring the people together in active co-operation for good government rather than for party triumph ought to be welcomed with open arms.

Thus far Colonel Mulhall's enemies have declared him a liar and a perjurer in connection with testimony before the senate committee which is investigating the lobbying activities of the past few years. Doubtless Mr. Mulhall is prepared to be called a good many harsher terms than those before the loving tributes from his former friends are all present or accounted for.

Washington dispatches say that many old friends of Colonel Bryan are loath to come to the defense of Colonel Bryan in his determination to fill lecture engagements during the summer season, but it strikes us that such defense is entirely needless, anyway. In the course of his long and unique public career Colonel Bryan has demonstrated that he is entirely competent to defend himself.

STRIKERS, EVICTED FROM HOMES, LIVE IN STREETS.

Millworkers in Ipswich, Mass., who are on strike, are now being evicted from their homes and forced to take up their residence on the public streets. The homes are the property of the mill owners. Here is shown a striker and his family, consisting of a wife and four children, eating their breakfast on the sidewalk. Behind them is piled their household goods. So far over 100 families have been evicted.

WOMEN POLICE OFFICERS.

(Grand Rapids Press.) Mayor Harrison's ordinance for the appointment of ten women as police officers has been recommended for passage by the committee on schools of the Chicago councilman act, which is said to assure its being carried. According to the plans, the new officers will be assigned to bathing beaches and public playgrounds. Several cities are experimenting with women officers, especially in the handling of young women who frequent the streets at night. In many respects a woman is better qualified to do work of this kind than a man is. For one thing, she often gains the confidence of those she is called upon to correct, and it is the right kind of a woman can do a constructive work in character building. Many of the girls picked up on the street only need straight, honest advice from some one they trust to mend their ways. A policeman can not always give this advice in the way that it should be given. In the first place, the bar of sex is always present between a male officer and a female prisoner, and, in the second, the policeman's general experience often makes him rough and callous. His contact with former cases of this nature leads him to look with suspicion and possibly a measure of contempt on any methods but the severely direct and harsh ones he is accustomed to using. The woman officer, if chosen for her duties after a careful consideration of her personality and her training for the work, should bring to it a freshness of viewpoint and a sympathy that would help mightily in keeping her from getting into a rut. With children and young people generally she would be able to exert an influence that would do more good, at least, than persisting in the first false step. The recognition that the time has come when the problem of vice must be attacked from a new angle, show an appreciation of the responsibilities by their readiness to try an innovation which, wisely handled, should help toward a solution.

PRESS ON PROGRESS OF MEXICAN AFFAIRS.

"Conditions Intolerable." Philadelphia Press: "That conditions have already become intolerable for Americans in Mexico is made clear by the steady exodus of our citizens from all the disturbed districts."

"Farical." Boston Globe: "It would have been farical for an administration at Washington, republican or democratic, to recognize the Huerta regime, considering the circumstances under which it came into power."

"End of Huerta." Macon News: "The outcome of the struggle in Mexico is difficult to see, but it appears to us right now, in the light of passing events, that President Huerta has about reached his end."

"Washington Policy." Philadelphia Bulletin: "The present policy—or lack of policy—at Washington is not helping the situation in Mexico, but rather furnishes the opportunity for its further aggravation."

"International Morality." Brooklyn Eagle: "Our government has refused, from highest considerations of international morality, to recognize a government springing out of assassination."

"Caution Justified." New York Evening Post: "Thus far he has not gone beyond a do-fact recognition of the Huerta regime, and events have shown that his caution in that respect was justified."

"Who Furnishes Money?" New York Mail: "It would be interesting just now to know who is furnishing the vast funds used in keeping the Mexican rebellion active. How much of this money is being furnished by American citizens?"

CARRYING CONCEALED WEAPONS.

(Louisville Courier Journal.) Ohio has a new law which makes the carrying of a concealed deadly weapon a felony, punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary from one to three years. Only peace officers, employees of express companies and persons who guard large sums of money are exempt from its provisions.

The enforcement of such a law would reduce the evil to a material extent. The principal difficulty is that a drastic law of this kind is not likely to be enforced. It is true that there is very little occasion for any man to carry a pistol. The habit is barbarous and dangerous and, in ninety-nine cases out of a hundred, altogether unnecessary. It is a very common practice in Kentucky, as it probably is in Ohio, and by no means restricted to the criminal element.

There can be no question that the pistol-carrying habit is responsible for much bloodshed and that if fewer pistols were carried there would be fewer killings. Here in Kentucky we have a law which prescribes a fine and a short jail sentence as punishment for the offense. Such a penalty certainly does not come under the head of criminal punishment. If the law were rigidly enforced the jails would be full of posted carriers from one year's end to another, but such is not the case. The man who is convicted of a violation usually manages by some means or other to escape the jail penalty. He pays the fine, it is a man of means or influence, but he never darkens the jail door. That part of the punishment is not for the special benefit of the lawbreaker who has neither money nor friends, or the inconvertible individual who is as much at home in jail as anywhere else.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

What the Sentinel Had to Say About Persons and Events Twenty-Five Years Ago.

Max Nirdlinger is on the sick list. Miss Maggie Gaffney is visiting friends at Roanoke. John Thieme is closing out his grocery business on Broadway. Congressman White, of this city, called on President Cleveland yesterday. Charles Shafer leaves this evening for Tiffin, Ohio, on a business mission. Congressman J. J. Williams today received tidings of the death of a brother in Wales. John Lang, clerk in Kang & Bros' store, is suffering from a painfully mangled finger. R. H. Harrison, machine shop foreman at the Pittsburg, suffered an injured foot yesterday afternoon. A surprise party was held last evening at the home of Miss Sarah McIlure, No. 70 Charles street. Judge Robert Lowry and William Kaough are at Albion on legal business involving some agricultural machinery. Mrs. H. Hirsch and Mrs. Dietrich left last evening for Mt. Clemens, Mich.

There are those who believe that carrying concealed deadly weapons should be made a felony in Kentucky. But if the offense is looked upon with so much leniency that a jail penalty is seldom enforced what hope is there that a more drastic law would be any more effective?

MAN'S ASHES IN STREET.

Mortal Remains Found in Little Leather Bag by Woman.

New York, July 21.—A little brown leather bag was found by a woman at the edge of the subway excavation at Lexington avenue and Seventy-seventh street. The nature of its contents caused it to pass successively into the hands of a policeman, the coroner's office and a morgue attendant and it now reposes in the property safe in the morgue. For it contained the mortal remains of a man, as was witnessed by a tag on a tin case inside, which read:

"Frank Mohr, crematory, No. 11349, July 23, 1910, Fresh Pond, Long Island." At the Fresh Pond crematory it was said that a man named Mohr had been cremated there on the date named and his ashes were delivered to S. Stulzberger, of 242 East Ninth street. The police communicated with the latter's wife, but she said that her husband was sick and she knew nothing of Mohr's remains. The police now want to know what to do with them.

WOULD YOU—?

VERILY --- MIX!

The degree team of Deborah lodge, No. 110, will initiate a large class of candidates at a meeting Tuesday night. Charles Girardot, Charles Pion, John Lautner and Frank Jouly have been appointed as a committee on arrangements for the annual picnic of the French-American society, to be held Sunday, July 27, at Centerville park. President Fred Rossetol has secured Cassa's orchestra for the occasion.

THE BOSTON STORE

FORT WAYNE'S GREATEST BARGAIN STORE

3 Big Specials for a Few Days Only

100 yards 45-in. Embroidered Flouncings; regular price from $1.00 to $1.50 a yard; Clearance Sale Price 69c a yard

50 dozen Ladies' Shirt Waists, well made and all new styles; regular price $1.25; Clearance Sale Price 89c each

35 dozen Ladies' White Petticoats, good values; worth $2.00 to $2.50 each; Clearance Sale Price $1.50 each

We have many other Specials to offer during our Great Clearance Sale.

Wm. HAHN & Co.

HOW GUNPOWDER WAS HAULED OVERLAND TO FIGHT BATTLE OF LAKE ERIE.

Commodore Perry and his fleet had to wait at Erie, Pa., in 1813, while wagons loaded with powder were being hauled from Wilmington, Del., to that Lake Erie port. When the wagons arrived he sailed to Put-in-Bay and licked the British. The wagon above is a reproduction of one of the originals.

DRIVE NAILS INTO HEAD.

Wife Murderer's Savage Device Bars Hanging, He Says.

Pottsville, Pa., July 21.—"I have driven two nails into my brain and you can not hang the now," declared Malina Massa to the warden of the Schuylkill county prison, Massa, who murdered his wife at Raven Run several months ago, is under sentence of death, and as he has already made several attempts at suicide, his statement alarmed the keeper. Investigation showed that Massa's statement was true. He had driven the nails so firmly into his head that it was necessary to shave the hair off a lance the dish in order to get a hold to pull them out. Massa said he drove the nails in by holding them against his head and then butting his head against the cell wall. What puzzles the surgeons is that Massa is still walking around, although the wound to the brain and skull was thought to be necessarily fatal. It is thought, however, that infection will surely bring death to the determined prisoner.

The date of the annual picnic of Summit City encampment, No. 16, I. O. O. F., will be set at a meeting tonight. Committees to arrange for the affair will be named.

400 Pair Women's $3,
$3.50 and $4

OXFORDS and PUMPS

Tuesday A. M.
8 to 12 Only 50c a pair

LEHMAN SHOE CO.

Safety Talk No. 46

The Traction Company is doing its best to absolutely prevent personal injury accidents on its lines.

Will you promise your family that you will protect yourself from every danger?

Co-operation will prevent accidents. Many people thinking about Safety can do infinitely more good than a few.

WATCH—LOOK—THINK.

"WABASH VALLEY LINES"

High Wire Artist at Robison Park As Outside Free Attraction.

Beginning Tuesday night, July 22nd, Frederick DeBolt, known everywhere as a High Wire Artist, will begin an engagement at Robison park. His exhibition of fearless running, somersaulting, dancing and a host of seemingly impossible feats on a slender wire fifty feet in the air is truly a remarkable performance. At night the act stands out as a most beautiful exhibition because he is covered from head to foot with incandescent bulbs. He rides an illuminated bicycle over a live electric wire and through a tunnel of hissing, shooting streams of flame and fire. He begins his engagement on Tuesday, July 22nd, closing Sunday night, July 27th. Adv. 21-31.

OUR PRECISE ARTIST.

When you think of Furniture think of Foster's.

WHO SHOULD BOW FIRST?

Paris Worrying Whether it Should Be Man or Woman.

Paris, July 21.—Should a man or woman bow first? The question is being discussed extensively here. At present, when a man meets a woman to whom he has been introduced, he is required by etiquette to acknowledge her first. The rule, however, is not free from pitfalls. For example, in the Bois, a woman with the strictly correct manner adopted by French women when without male escort passes a man whom she has met once or twice. The man thinks he ought to bow, but wonders whether the woman has seen him. She sweeps past him with a rigid face and cuts him dead. He does not bow. When the woman meets her husband later she probably says, "I met so-and-so just now, and he did not even bow." Such an incident is sufficient to ruin a man socially. The writer therefore concludes that etiquette should provide some sign from the woman that she has seen and recognized her acquaintance, who then could not fail to raise his hat.

$100 Reward, $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one devoted disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only effective remedy known to the medical profession. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing his work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer the Hundred Dollar Reward for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address F. J. CUNNINGHAM & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by all Druggists. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Moving?

Don't forget to send us your old and new address, so that you may not miss a single issue of

The Sentinel

Telephone 173.

ABSTRACTS OF TITLE
Made By
The Allen County Abstract Co.,
Are Reliable.
We Guarantee All Our Work
725 Court Street.

The Strange Case of "Woodrow Wilson," Baby Waif, and Two Women.

WOODROW WILSON, CROUCH-ARNOLD.

(By W. H. Alburn.)

Paris, Tenn., July 21.—Woodrow Wilson was a little Tennessee waif that found two mothers. One of them loved him so much that she was broken-hearted till she got him all for herself, and the other has been broken-hearted ever since. Maybe the story won't interest you—unless you happen to be interested in babies.

One night last September people at the corner of Ruff and Brewer streets were awakened by an infant's wails. At last they realized it was crying for a mother who couldn't hear its cry. So they investigated and found a beautiful three-week-old boy, tidily dressed, neatly tucked in a basket, on a doorstep. There was nothing to show whose baby it was.

When the kindly neighbor women had warmed a bottle of milk and fed it, they had a problem on their hands. There is no foundling asylum in Paris, Tenn. Next day they decided to turn the child over to Sheriff R. H. Compton.

"Hello, Snookums!" said the sheriff. "What's your name?" "Well," said the sheriff, who is a staunch democrat, "you look like a winner. I guess we'll call you Woodrow Wilson."

Two days later Mrs. John Crouch was clearing away the supper things in the Crouch home at Springville, between the sandhills and the Big Sandy river. John Crouch, a prosperous merchant and tobacco planter, was reading.

"It says in the paper," he remarked, "that Sheriff Compton over in Paris has a foundling on his hands and don't know what to do with it."

The eyes of husband and wife met. They were childless. And in the wife's eyes there was the gleaming he had seen there often when she was thinking of the children who had never come.

"Couldn't we go to town tomorrow?" asked Mrs. Crouch.

"I reckon we could," said John. Mrs. Crouch, at her first glimpse of little Woodrow Wilson, caught him to her breast with a cry of pent-up mother love.

"Give him to us!" said John, eagerly.

They signed adoption papers on the spot, naming the baby Woodrow Wilson Crouch, and took him back with them.

Meanwhile there was a sadness in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Landrum Arnold at Wingo, Ky. When they were married in the spring of 1912, nobody knew that the bride was in the shadow of a crisis. They went away to Benton county, Tenn., and there, August 13, their baby was born. They could not endure the confession of a shame so tardily rectified. So Arnold suggested that they leave the infant somewhere for a while and claim it later. The bride-mother, protested frantically, but at last yielded. The baby was placed on the Paris doorstep. And people wondered at the bride's wifeliness when the honeymoon was hardly over.

Woodrow Wilson thrived. He got a tooth and was the joy of the Crouch household. Mr. and Mrs. Crouch were very happy. But across the Kentucky line the real mother sorrowed until she fell ill.

Her husband feared she would die. But one thing, it seemed, would save her. She must have her baby back. A lawyer was sent to investigate.

He went to see the Crouches and told them of the mother worrying her life away. But they thought a mother who had abandoned her baby could not be sincere and they refused to part with Woodrow Wilson.

And Mrs. Arnold became worse. She went constantly for her child. And finally the lawyer advised her and her husband to bring habeas corpus proceedings.

The court room was crowded. Mrs. Crouch appeared, with little Woodrow in her arms. Mrs. Arnold tottered when she saw them. But she went on the stand and confessed her sin.

"It broke my heart when they took him away from me," she sobbed. "I thought it would only be for a little while."

Even the men in the court room wept. But Judge Jones decided that the Arnolds had sacrificed their right to the child, and Woodrow belonged to Mr. and Mrs. Crouch.

Back in their Springville home the Crouches loved the little boy more than ever. But they were not so happy. Always, day and night, they saw the pale, young wife confessing her shame on the witness stand, and heard her saying:

"It broke my heart when they took him away from me."

Just the other evening, after a long silence, Mrs. Crouch said:

"I've been thinking, John, maybe we have no right."

"I've been thinking about the same thing," said John. Their eyes met and it was settled. Together they wrote a letter to Mrs. Arnold.

"Come and see your baby," it read.

She came as fast as trains could bring her. And as woman to woman, she pleaded for her little son. Mrs. Crouch's heart was won.

"Yes," she sobbed, "I guess you love him most, because you brought him into the world. Take him along!"

Hart Schaffner & Marx Suits as Low as

$13.50

During Our July Sale. Here Are a Few Other Values:

40 dozen men's $1.50 summer pajamas at 69c.

25 dozen men's $2.50 summer pajamas at $1.50.

60 dozen "Cheney" 50c pure silk wash four-in-hand ties at 35c, or three for $1.00.

"Clothcraft" young men's suits, worth $15.00 to $16.50, at $9.00.

20 dozen Columbia $1.15 shirts with reversible cuffs, 90c.

Men's raincoats discounted 20 per cent. Children's raincoats discounted 20 per cent.

Children's wash suits discounted 20 per cent.

Children's two-piece bathing suits as low as 19c.

Men's and boys' one-piece bathing suits at 45c that cost you $1.00 in the other stores.

40 pure linen double-breasted auto dusters at $4.50 that cost you seven dollars in any other store.

Men's mohair suits discounted 20 per cent.

"Manchester" shirts with soft cuffs at 90c.

Royal Mills closed croch union suits at 45c this week.

American Nuckasee athletic union suits 45c this week.

PATTERSON-FLETCHER COM'Y

Come to the Store That "Does Things"

FAITH IN GOD IS TRUE FOUNDATION

Secretary Bryan at Winona Talks on "The Making of a Man."

HIS GREATEST NEED

Winona Lake, Ind., July 21.—More than anything else today we need an abiding faith in God in the building of human character to measure up to true success in life, declared Secretary of State William J. Bryan, before an immense audience yesterday in his address here on "The Making of a Man." The gifted speaker asserted that this foundation was all-important, and he directed his remarks particularly to young men.

Mr. Bryan arrived at Winona Lake early Sunday morning from Washington and spent a busy day here, speaking morning, afternoon and evening. At the outset of his principal address in the afternoon Mr. Bryan referred to this as an age of specialization, but declared that while we were doing much in the attempts to specialize and improve human environment, we were doing too little toward the improvement of man himself. Continuing he said in part:

"I present the specifications and plans for building upon the largest possible scale a man capable of moving on the highest possible plane. And when I come to speak of the making of a man, of the rules that are to govern his development, I at once notice that man's a three fold creature. That we have and each man has, his body, his mind and his heart. It is not difficult for me to believe in the trinity because I see in every man a sort of trinity. I see three beings in one; they are inseparable in that one cannot live without the other on this earth and yet while in this sense they are inseparable, they are in another sense easily separated; so easily separated that one can be developed and the other neglected. A man's body can be developed while his mind is neglected and his heart is neglected. A man's mind may be developed and the body neglected and the soul. And so a man's spiritual nature may be developed without the development of the mind or the body.

"We come into conscious possession of this body first, that is we realize that we have a body before we realize that we have a mind and during the earlier years of our existence the body absorbs our attention. The child comes into consciousness of its existence with its feet and its fingers and it knows that it has a body and after a while we become conscious and later it becomes conscious that it has a mind and we watch the development of that mind and after while that mind takes possession of the body and it is a very unfortunate thing for a body to be wandering around without a mind in charge, but in the normal development of man we find that the moral being finally makes himself known, and after awhile if the development is normal that moral man takes absolute control of the body, the heart and the mind. Now here are three persons distinct and separate and yet all in one, and when we talk about the development of man, the making of a man we have to consider all three of them.

The Three Elements.

"Let me begin first with the body. It demands our attention but we have to subdivide it, that is we have to consider the three elements that are distinct from each other. The first one is what we inherit and many of our physical characteristics are inherited; our constitutional strength to resist disease and to endure fatigue. If one of you have gone back to the early home, after you have been away for many years and have walked along a street, you have been interested in looking at the children and in picking out from the appearance of the child the father or mother. I never go back to my early home, in Illinois without having some cases of this where I am finding the parent by the appearance the child bears to the parent. Now this I say is inheritance and I need not dwell upon this because we have to take ourselves as we find ourselves. We are to a large extent what we inherit, and we have to make the most of it, but there is a certain limit in which we can change inheritance, at least, we can improve upon the stock, and I think it is proper, not only proper but I think it is eminently wise for us to take an inventory of ourselves as early as possible and find out what we have and then begin, studiously, intelligently and diligently to supply the weak point and repair the places that need repair. It is our duty to do it. First, because we enlarge our capacity for service and that is to measure our greatness. And then we owe it to those about us and we owe it to the God above us. We are justified in lifting ourselves to the highest physical efficiency. Now these are the two elements that I speak of, first, that which we inherit and then that which we can add but I will not dwell upon these.

Wants to Reach Young Men.

"What I want to dwell upon is the third, that is the preservation of that which we inherit or that which we add, the conservation of this strength, and it was to speak upon this subject that I began to enlarge upon the original idea of this address. I want to reach young men and I think that possibly some of these young men, at least some young men, whether they are here this afternoon or not, have not fully considered the dangers that young men have to meet, the temptations to waste their inherited and acquired strength.

"How can I help a young man to resist the temptations to throw himself away? When a young man reaches maturity, God has put him into his own keeping, that is, the young man is the master of himself and he is at liberty to squander that which he has inherited in the matter of strength and that which he had added in youth. If a young man is left a fortune in money and then proceeds to waste it his friends shake their heads and say foolish young man. How foolish to throw away this money that was left him when if he had acted wisely it might have furnished him an income all his life and enabled him to devote himself to good work. It is foolish. And yet I wonder how few young men out of every thousand inherit a fortune. Only few young men in the average community ever have a chance to throw a fortune away, but every young man has the chance to throw away that which is worth more than a fortune.

Aid in Restraint.

"How can I help them to restrain themselves? I know of no better way than to burn into their minds and hearts the fact that they have been costly to somebody. I heard some two years ago a statement that I have since regarded as the strongest statement that I have ever heard outside of the Bible. It was this: 'That the suffering that women endure as a penalty for motherhood is greater than all the suffering caused by all the wars of all the world. I am interested in the peace movement and I hope to see the time when nation will not rise up against nation. Then people will learn more and more the blessings of peace, and I am finding a great deal of pleasure just now in the fact that we are getting the nations together on an agreement that there shall be no wars of all the world.' I am interested in investigation. The president has proposed a plan and submitted it to all the nations. We are to bind ourselves by treaty with all nations in the world that there shall be no beginning of hostilities until there has been an investigation.

Religion a Foundation.

"I repeat that religion is the only foundation of moral code and when we come to religion it begins with the belief in God. Tolstoi has defined religion as the relation that man fixes between himself and his god, and he has defined morality as the outward manifestation of this inward relation. Now, if morality is the outward manifestation of this inward relation, then religion must be the foundation of morality and if religion is the relation that man fixes between himself and his God then the first thing for a man to do in the building of his moral character is to establish a relation between himself and his Creator. Therefore, we must begin the moral development with its relation between the man and his God.

"Christians, I think we have given the atheist too much latitude. I think we have allowed him to ask all the questions and we have assumed that it was our duty to answer all his questions and to ask none. I do not assume that the atheist has any more right to ask questions than the Christian; that the Christian has no more obligation to answer the questions than the atheist has. What is the atheist's question? 'Where do we begin?' That does not bother me. I begin where the Bible does. Where does the Bible begin? At the beginning —In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth. That's where I begin. I begin with a God, all-wise, all-powerful and all-loving, and that's my answer to his first question, and if he asks me if I can begin any farther back than that, I answer that I and nobody else has ever tried to go farther back. Then I ask him the first question. I ask him where he begins and then his trouble begins.

"There is no cause for a man to be an atheist and we should have no room for him.

Love for God.

"I have taken for this afternoon's theme how important it is that man should build upon a plan worthy of a man created in the image of his Creator. I have done all that I could hope to do, if in addition to that there is a young man in this audience whose heart I have been able to reach. How absolutely necessary religion is to every large life, says, if I have enabled him to go forth with a larger purpose, with a greater ideal, then it is more than worth that I should have come. How will you measure the things of a life? No words can describe it. No figures can explain it or present it. No single human being whose heart is linked to God, whose heart is linked with the love of his neighbor, that love that comes with the love of God, with the purpose to serve and ambition to do good, one such life will overflow with blessing to the community, possibly to the world.

"There is no limit to the good that one can do if he plans his life in harmony with God's plan."

Speaking Dates Cancelled.

Following his address Mr. Bryan announced that his speaking dates for next Thursday, Friday and Saturday had been cancelled to enable him to return to Washington for the conference with Ambassador Henry Lane Wilson and President Wilson upon the Mexican question.

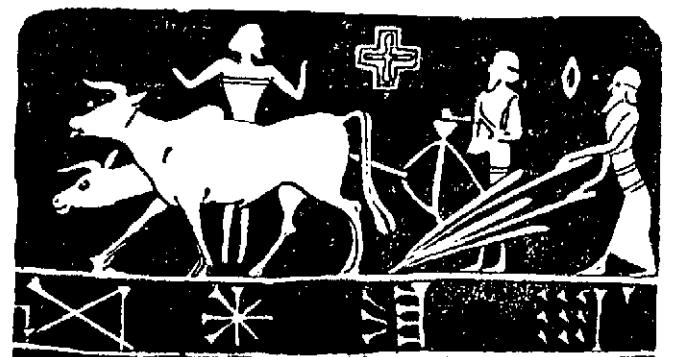

"The conference is expected to occur on Friday," Mr. Bryan said, "but I am willing to return to my duties at any moment my presence may be needed."

VISITOR MET BY HEARSE.

Funeral Car and Tearful Friends Greet Woman at Station.

Bellefontaine, Ohio, July 21.—The hearse and the pall-bearers were at the station, sorrowing friends were present, the grave at the cemetery was being prepared when the train that was expected to bring the body of Mrs. George Carr, of Jacksonville, Fla., reached West Liberty. The throng stood transfixed when Mrs. Carr alighted from the train and, noticing the hearse, asked: "Who's dead?" Mrs. Elizabeth Shumate, of West Liberty, had been expecting her daughter, Mrs. Carr, for a visit. A message came saying Mrs. Carr was dead and the body would arrive. Mrs. Carr can not explain how the message she tried to send announcing the hour of her arrival should have been so altered.

Abraham Invented the Plow Over 5,000 Years Ago— Babylonians Using Same Sort of Plow Yet.

Philadelphia, July 21.—The University of Pennsylvania owns what is believed to be the first picture of the plow invented by Abraham fifty centuries ago. Abraham's plow is a combination seeder and planter, and three men were necessary to operate it.

The picture was engraved on brick which has been unearthed recently, and plows of the same kind are used in Babylonia today just as they were 5,000 years ago.

"The Book of Jubilees," which was published in the second century B. C., tells how the Babylonians were punished when they yielded to Satan.

Birds were sent to eat the grain which they had sowed in their fields, and, according to the authority cited, when they repented, Abraham devised this implement so that the people need no longer fear the ravens.

The apparatus had an attachment which reached through to the ground as a tube and into which the seeds were poured.

Society

A dance at the Country club on Wednesday evening will likely be the leading social event of the week. The dance will be in honor of visitors at the tennis tournament in progress there during the week.

Master Dan Bash, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Bash, of Indianapolis, has invited a number of his young friends to a backyard party he will give at the Bash summer home west of this city, tomorrow evening.

Mrs. F. T. Taft, Mrs. Fred McCulloch, Mrs. Jules Simon, Mrs. A. F. Hull, Mrs. W. W. Shryock, Miss Elsie Fox, Miss Shryock and Miss Anne Shryock will be the Wednesday afternoon hostesses at the Country club this week.

Carl Sieman, of Bridgeport, Conn., is here on a visit to relatives.

Mrs. M. S. Merriam is spending a few days at Winona Lake.

Mrs. M. J. Cleary and children are in Columbus, O., visiting relatives.

Mrs. Edgar Moreland and daughter, Ruth, are in Chicago, visiting friends.

Mrs. William Rippe of Washington boulevard west, is visiting relatives in Rensselaer.

Miss O. Kramer has gone to Detroit to attend the Walther league convention.

Miss Kate Rohrer, of Cass street, is at Crooked lake with friends for a two weeks' outing.

Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Kidd have returned from a three weeks' stay at Mt. Clemens, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Noll, of West Berry street, have returned from a five weeks' trip abroad.

Mrs. H. J. Lamont, of Chicago, is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. J. Kettler and Mrs. Henry Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Landenberg spent yesterday at home City. They made the trip by motor.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Strieder, and Mrs. J. F. W. Meyer, motored to Rome City to spend the day yesterday.

Mrs. H. O. Bruggeman and son, Tony, are expected home tomorrow from a few weeks' stay in Paris, France.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Martin and son, Earl, of Forest Park, have motored to Lake Wawasee for a short stay.

Miss Anna Fox, of Colwater, O., is visiting her sister, Miss Frances Fox, at home City.

George Baile, of the European School of Music, is in New York city for a few days visiting his mother and sister.

The Misses Minnie Meyer, Minnie Schmidt and Emma Heuer have gone to Detroit and Niagara Falls for a week's trip.

Mrs. H. Van Swearingen went to Toledo, O., yesterday to visit her daughter, Mrs. Raymond Hillary for several weeks.

Miss Mary Jewel Smith is planning to leave tomorrow for New York and other Eastern points to be gone several weeks.

Mrs. Mary Orvis and Mary Louise Rhany, have returned from Columbus, O., where they spent several weeks with relatives.

Mrs. Thomas Lan returns today from Rome City, where she has been spending several days with her mother, Mrs. C. Nessel.

Miss Dorothy White is going to Waukegan, Mich., this week to visit Miss Virginia Olds, who is there for the summer.

Mrs. Ross G. Thomas and son, of Indianapolis, who were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Millard for a few days, have returned home.

Mrs. Frederick Martin and little daughter, are going to leave shortly for Charleston, W. Va., where Mr. Martin is now located.

Mrs. Charles Porter and little child, who were visiting Dr. and Mrs. M. F. Porter for several weeks, have returned to Albion, Pa.

The Misses Margaret, Mildred and Horrence Grimes and Helen Freilinger are at home City for a week's stay at the Freilinger cottage.

The Misses Elsie and Emily Jacobs have gone to Detroit, Mich., and after a few days there will take a boat trip to northern lake points.

The Misses Nellie Wilson, Grace Brooke and June Mayo, have returned to home City to spend a few days with Miss Mayo's parents.

Miss Bernadette Fox, who lives in St. Louis, came home to spend the week-end with her mother, Mrs. James Fox, of McClellan street and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Frommelt, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pollock, Mr. and Mrs. How and Koons have returned from an outing of two weeks at Lake George.

Mr. and Mrs. V. M. Drummons, Mr. Fox and Mr. and Mrs. Wittgenstein formed a party that enjoyed an outing at Crooked lake and came home yesterday.

The Misses Mary and Lucy Ann Joss, of Indianapolis, who are spending the summer at Rome City, are guests of Miss Alice night, of Spy Run avenue for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bowerford and children spent yesterday at Rome City. Miss Elizabeth Bowerford had been at the lake for several days, visiting Mrs. Fred Meyers.

Lieut. Fred Freeman, U. S. N., is here on a week's visit with his aunt, Miss Tullish and Mrs. Mary Sturgis, and other relatives. Lieut. Freeman is on his way to Mexico.

Mrs. Laura Haynes and daughter, Bernadette, of Toledo, O., are visiting at the home of W. H. Gates, 115 East Sutherland street. Mrs. Haynes and Mrs. Gates are sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Berghoff and children have come home from Clear lake, where they spent three weeks. Miss Helen Colrick was a guest of her sister, Mrs. Berghoff for several days.

Miss Bessie Danahy, of East Sutherland street, is going to Huntington to act as a bridesmaid at the wedding of Miss Nora Schenkel and Dick Walters, which will take place in the Catholic church there tomorrow morning.

Nathan Snyder, of Chicago, spent the week-end here with Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Snyder and is planning to leave soon for Portland, Ore., to visit his sisters, Mrs. Russell Hawkins and Miss Julia Snyder.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence E. Heiny have returned from their wedding trip which included visits to New York, Washington and other eastern points of several weeks' time, and are staying with Mr. Heiny's parents for a few days.

Miss S. C. Knight and Mrs. Frederick E. Hoffman went to Chicago, today to meet Mrs. Knight's sister, Mrs. J. C. Nelson, of Logansport and Mrs. J. A. Kimberly, of Neenah, Wis., for a few days' visit with them there.

Miss Esther Frowse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Will Frowse, who was graduated in June from the school for kindergarten teachers in Ypsilanti, Mich., is at home for the summer and will teach in the city school the coming year.

Miss Jane Wulfe, of Hamilton, O., who had been visiting Miss Margaret and Dorothy Underhill, of Thompson avenue, returned home today. Miss Wulfe was the honor guest at a number of small afternoon companies given by near friends of the Misses Underhill.

Miss Adah Greene, of West Berry street, has returned from a two weeks' visit in Chicago, South Haven and Ottawa Beach. Miss Greene spent a week at the latter place with a party of Chicago friends who are there for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Chambers, of Denver, Col., spent Saturday in the city, guests of Mrs. James Meriwether. The visitors were on their way to Mackinac Island, Mich., and are the friends whom Mrs. Meriwether visited last winter in Denver.

Arnett-Brown.

Miss Effie S. Brown, of Fort Wayne was married on July 17th, in Hillsdale, Mich., to Mr. Virgil Clyde Arnett, of that city.

Hettler Family Reunion.

There was a large gathering of the older members of the Hettler family, held Sunday at the beautiful country home of Mr. and Mrs. Cassius Gard, near LaPorte, Ind. The relatives residing in this city, who attended, left early Sunday morning, some by motor cars, and others by traction to LaPorte, where they were met by automobiles and taken to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gard. A beautiful dinner and supper were served in the shady maple grove adjoining the house, consisting of chicken in all sorts of style and all the good things to eat for which the farm is famous.

Mrs. Gard is the oldest daughter of Christian I. Hettler, of Marion, who is the oldest living member of the Hettler family, the members of which are quite well known in this city.

Those who attended from Fort Wayne were Mrs. Mary Conroy, Mrs. Caroline Monowich, Mrs. Mary Wyatt, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Nott and family, Mr. and Mrs. George H. Crouse and family, Mr. and Mrs. William Axt and family, Mr. and Mrs. Christian Stain, Mr. and Mrs. William G. Stahl, Mrs. Sophia Neimeyer, Mr. and Mrs. August Walter and Miss Marjory Blakely.

AT THE JEFFERSON

The offering at the Jefferson is an excellent one, the program weekly is very interesting this week and the tap is also of good quality. Thursday and Friday comes the great production of "Salome" in all its grandeur and splendor, once seen never to be forgotten. On Friday night an extra attraction is the five Pajama Girls. This is their first appearance. It is worth while; don't miss it.

Gaumont Weekly International congress of women—Minister of foreign affairs holds reception for delegates on occasion of Paris meeting. Building a Railroad in Hawaii—New railroad lines on Pacific islands scene of rapid construction work. French Naval maneuvers. Warships meet in annual practice on the Mediterranean. Millionaires Build Road—Two hundred and fifty Redlands, Cal., business men reconstruct Mill Creek highway. Russian Church Held Honored—Patriarch George IV. is the subject of sacred ceremony at Moscow. "Let 'Er Buck"—Frontier day is celebrated with big round-up at Stockton, Cal. The German Boat Race—Motor craft exciting contest at Plauer Lake, Germany. Moving a Bridge—Fifty-ton structure is lifted at Vancouver, Wash., in order to permit building removal. King George Has a Birthday—A London fête in honor of the British monarch—Gottysburg—Fifty Years After—Grand Army of the Blue and Gray meet for last great reunion on America's bloodiest battlefield.

AT THE JEFFERSON

The offering at the Jefferson is an excellent one, the program weekly is very interesting this week and the tap is also of good quality. Thursday and Friday comes the great production of "Salome" in all its grandeur and splendor, once seen never to be forgotten. On Friday night an extra attraction is the five Pajama Girls. This is their first appearance. It is worth while; don't miss it.

Gaumont Weekly International congress of women—Minister of foreign affairs holds reception for delegates on occasion of Paris meeting. Building a Railroad in Hawaii—New railroad lines on Pacific islands scene of rapid construction work. French Naval maneuvers. Warships meet in annual practice on the Mediterranean. Millionaires Build Road—Two hundred and fifty Redlands, Cal., business men reconstruct Mill Creek highway. Russian Church Held Honored—Patriarch George IV. is the subject of sacred ceremony at Moscow. "Let 'Er Buck"—Frontier day is celebrated with big round-up at Stockton, Cal. The German Boat Race—Motor craft exciting contest at Plauer Lake, Germany. Moving a Bridge—Fifty-ton structure is lifted at Vancouver, Wash., in order to permit building removal. King George Has a Birthday—A London fête in honor of the British monarch—Gottysburg—Fifty Years After—Grand Army of the Blue and Gray meet for last great reunion on America's bloodiest battlefield.

AT THE JEFFERSON

The offering at the Jefferson is an excellent one, the program weekly is very interesting this week and the tap is also of good quality. Thursday and Friday comes the great production of "Salome" in all its grandeur and splendor, once seen never to be forgotten. On Friday night an extra attraction is the five Pajama Girls. This is their first appearance. It is worth while; don't miss it.

Gaumont Weekly International congress of women—Minister of foreign affairs holds reception for delegates on occasion of Paris meeting. Building a Railroad in Hawaii—New railroad lines on Pacific islands scene of rapid construction work. French Naval maneuvers. Warships meet in annual practice on the Mediterranean. Millionaires Build Road—Two hundred and fifty Redlands, Cal., business men reconstruct Mill Creek highway. Russian Church Held Honored—Patriarch George IV. is the subject of sacred ceremony at Moscow. "Let 'Er Buck"—Frontier day is celebrated with big round-up at Stockton, Cal. The German Boat Race—Motor craft exciting contest at Plauer Lake, Germany. Moving a Bridge—Fifty-ton structure is lifted at Vancouver, Wash., in order to permit building removal. King George Has a Birthday—A London fête in honor of the British monarch—Gottysburg—Fifty Years After—Grand Army of the Blue and Gray meet for last great reunion on America's bloodiest battlefield.

AT THE JEFFERSON

The offering at the Jefferson is an excellent one, the program weekly is very interesting this week and the tap is also of good quality. Thursday and Friday comes the great production of "Salome" in all its grandeur and splendor, once seen never to be forgotten. On Friday night an extra attraction is the five Pajama Girls. This is their first appearance. It is worth while; don't miss it.

Gaumont Weekly International congress of women—Minister of foreign affairs holds reception for delegates on occasion of Paris meeting. Building a Railroad in Hawaii—New railroad lines on Pacific islands scene of rapid construction work. French Naval maneuvers. Warships meet in annual practice on the Mediterranean. Millionaires Build Road—Two hundred and fifty Redlands, Cal., business men reconstruct Mill Creek highway. Russian Church Held Honored—Patriarch George IV. is the subject of sacred ceremony at Moscow. "Let 'Er Buck"—Frontier day is celebrated with big round-up at Stockton, Cal. The German Boat Race—Motor craft exciting contest at Plauer Lake, Germany. Moving a Bridge—Fifty-ton structure is lifted at Vancouver, Wash., in order to permit building removal. King George Has a Birthday—A London fête in honor of the British monarch—Gottysburg—Fifty Years After—Grand Army of the Blue and Gray meet for last great reunion on America's bloodiest battlefield.

AT THE JEFFERSON

The offering at the Jefferson is an excellent one, the program weekly is very interesting this week and the tap is also of good quality. Thursday and Friday comes the great production of "Salome" in all its grandeur and splendor, once seen never to be forgotten. On Friday night an extra attraction is the five Pajama Girls. This is their first appearance. It is worth while; don't miss it.

Gaumont Weekly International congress of women—Minister of foreign affairs holds reception for delegates on occasion of Paris meeting. Building a Railroad in Hawaii—New railroad lines on Pacific islands scene of rapid construction work. French Naval maneuvers. Warships meet in annual practice on the Mediterranean. Millionaires Build Road—Two hundred and fifty Redlands, Cal., business men reconstruct Mill Creek highway. Russian Church Held Honored—Patriarch George IV. is the subject of sacred ceremony at Moscow. "Let 'Er Buck"—Frontier day is celebrated with big round-up at Stockton, Cal. The German Boat Race—Motor craft exciting contest at Plauer Lake, Germany. Moving a Bridge—Fifty-ton structure is lifted at Vancouver, Wash., in order to permit building removal. King George Has a Birthday—A London fête in honor of the British monarch—Gottysburg—Fifty Years After—Grand Army of the Blue and Gray meet for last great reunion on America's bloodiest battlefield.

AT THE JEFFERSON

The offering at the Jefferson is an excellent one, the program weekly is very interesting this week and the tap is also of good quality. Thursday and Friday comes the great production of "Salome" in all its grandeur and splendor, once seen never to be forgotten. On Friday night an extra attraction is the five Pajama Girls. This is their first appearance. It is worth while; don't miss it.

Gaumont Weekly International congress of women—Minister of foreign affairs holds reception for delegates on occasion of Paris meeting. Building a Railroad in Hawaii—New railroad lines on Pacific islands scene of rapid construction work. French Naval maneuvers. Warships meet in annual practice on the Mediterranean. Millionaires Build Road—Two hundred and fifty Redlands, Cal., business men reconstruct Mill Creek highway. Russian Church Held Honored—Patriarch George IV. is the subject of sacred ceremony at Moscow. "Let 'Er Buck"—Frontier day is celebrated with big round-up at Stockton, Cal. The German Boat Race—Motor craft exciting contest at Plauer Lake, Germany. Moving a Bridge—Fifty-ton structure is lifted at Vancouver, Wash., in order to permit building removal. King George Has a Birthday—A London fête in honor of the British monarch—Gottysburg—Fifty Years After—Grand Army of the Blue and Gray meet for last great reunion on America's bloodiest battlefield.

AT THE JEFFERSON

The offering at the Jefferson is an excellent one, the program weekly is very interesting this week and the tap is also of good quality. Thursday and Friday comes the great production of "Salome" in all its grandeur and splendor, once seen never to be forgotten. On Friday night an extra attraction is the five Pajama Girls. This is their first appearance. It is worth while; don't miss it.

Janie, Good-Time Summer Girl, Twists Tom's Heart as Easily as She Twists His Auto Wheel.

(By Alice Goddard.)

Grandmother raises her hands in horror and mother stifles a sigh as they hear the distant honk-honk of Tom's machine, for haven't they just seen it driving past with Janie at the wheel?

"In my time," says grandmother, "it was thought unwomanly for a girl to drive a horse and I am sure that Tom will think that Janie is 'forward' even if he allows himself to be persuaded to let her drive the car."

Mother whispers to herself, "I hope no hurt will come to my little girl." She knows that Tom has lost his head completely and that her pretty daughter can twist his heart as easily within her unskilled hands as she twists the wheel.

She knows Tom is only thinking of her daughter's beauty and charm and not of her or where he is being driven.

Meanwhile Janie drives the car as well as though she was not listening with all her soul, for Tom is saying:

"I love you, darling because you can do the things a man loves—you can drive a car—swing an arm and cut the water with as clean a stroke as I."

"You can be chum as well as sweet-heart!"

"It makes me very happy dear heart, to know that I am to furnish the motors for your drive through life. I know you are perfectly able to drive them and me safely over good roads and bad roads to its very end!"

"You are my ideal summer girl, dear-est, and I know it will always be sunshine and summer where you are."

Keep the Flies From Your Baby

(By Thea Carter, President Society of God Cheer.)

Keep the flies from your baby—they are more dangerous than elephants. The big thing shows the danger. The little fly buzzes into manure heaps, filth, putrefaction, and then comes a baby bringing all kinds of disease germs. Flies are deadly. If baby is unable to overcome the deadly germ the fly brings, baby leaves you. I have been watching the work of deadly flies for many years. I know two families living in the little town of B. B. These families were neighbors. One lady brought out a family of three and they were robust youngsters. Mother kept them out of the reach of flies. She went hunting for flies; covered her youngsters regularly in the summer time. The other mother did not believe a little fly could hurt her young; she paid no attention to the fly. One by one she laid away her babies until now they are three silent empty places in her heart, and gloom is in the household.

If you can't keep flies out of the house, cover the baby with a netting, or in emergency use a net, get a piece of cheesecloth—anything that will give baby air. See that the baby gets air, and keep it away from the flies.

If you can get a little carbolic acid, mix with one part carbolic acid and three parts of water. Get a wash broom and spray with the broom on the floor of the room where baby sleeps in the day. We will need good men and women for our future; don't let the fly carry one single one away. The danger is in front of you—it's as real as a big elephant.

When baby cries, try to find out the reason. It may need a spoon of water; it may be a bandage that's too tight; it may be it has laid in one position too long. Coo to baby, but use your mother judgment. Of course it's hot and you have so many problems, but you can fight them. Baby has problems; too, only baby's problems are solved by you. Try to overcome your irritation before you pick up baby. It's part of you—if you are cross, baby is more than likely to be cross. It's hard this life, but it is easier if you are of good cheer.

THE NEWEST HEADGEAR.

At the moment the smartest hat is in the shape of an inverted pudding basin, supplemented by double brims of wired tulle which project over the eyes, at times hiding the back of the hair as well, but at other times rising suddenly and held close to the crown by a feather or a single long stemmed flower, usually pink.

One of these pudding basin hats is carried out in white lace, but most of them are black with either a tall flower or a panache of plumes for trimming. Few very large picture hats are seen, the inclination of the moment being for a more moderate size with straight brims, trimmed with flowers and, perhaps, a butterfly in black lace.

ABOUT SHOES.

In the matter of footgear there is noticeable a rapidly growing adherence to the black shoe, very smartly buckled, however, and worn with stockings of the color of the gown. The black shoe is infinitely more becoming than any colored one, be the latter ever so well made, and the ready acceptance of this truth has doubtless been instrumental in carrying favor back. Here and there one meets white or gold heels, but the really well dressed woman eschews these vagaries, contenting herself with the always admirable appearance presented by a foot immaculately shod in all black.

Very welcome, though, on the other hand, is the contrasting hosiery, and that the days of this vogue may be long numbered is the fervent hope of us all.

Don Carney and Steve Jubas, single entertainers and of a distinctly different style, present individual hits. The first named presents a piano act, showing impressions of different people at the piano has met, while Jubas deals in "bunkology," as he terms it. He is really a clever sleight of hand performer, but it is his clever line of side talk that lands him safely. It is not often that a five act show contains two individual entertainers as clever as these two men.

The Juvenets, doing feats of hand balancing, open the show nicely and Kinemacolor pictures are especially attractive this week.

THE NEWEST HEADGEAR.

At the moment the smartest hat is in the shape of an inverted pudding basin, supplemented by double brims of wired tulle which project over the eyes, at times hiding the back of the hair as well, but at other times rising suddenly and held close to the crown by a feather or a single long stemmed flower, usually pink.

One of these pudding basin hats is carried out in white lace, but most of them are black with either a tall flower or a panache of plumes for trimming. Few very large picture hats are seen, the inclination of the moment being for a more moderate size with straight brims, trimmed with flowers and, perhaps, a butterfly in black lace.

ABOUT SHOES.

In the matter of footgear there is noticeable a rapidly growing adherence to the black shoe, very smartly buckled, however, and worn with stockings of the color of the gown. The black shoe is infinitely more becoming than any colored one, be the latter ever so well made, and the ready acceptance of this truth has doubtless been instrumental in carrying favor back. Here and there one meets white or gold heels, but the really well dressed woman eschews these vagaries, contenting herself with the always admirable appearance presented by a foot immaculately shod in all black.

Very welcome, though, on the other hand, is the contrasting hosiery, and that the days of this vogue may be long numbered is the fervent hope of us all.

Don Carney and Steve Jubas, single entertainers and of a distinctly different style, present individual hits. The first named presents a piano act, showing impressions of different people at the piano has met, while Jubas deals in "bunkology," as he terms it. He is really a clever sleight of hand performer, but it is his clever line of side talk that lands him safely. It is not often that a five act show contains two individual entertainers as clever as these two men.

The Juvenets, doing feats of hand balancing, open the show nicely and Kinemacolor pictures are especially attractive this week.

THE NEWEST HEADGEAR.

At the moment the smartest hat is in the shape of an inverted pudding basin, supplemented by double brims of wired tulle which project over the eyes, at times hiding the back of the hair as well, but at other times rising suddenly and held close to the crown by a feather or a single long stemmed flower, usually pink.

One of these pudding basin hats is carried out in white lace, but most of them are black with either a tall flower or a panache of plumes for trimming. Few very large picture hats are seen, the inclination of the moment being for a more moderate size with straight brims, trimmed with flowers and, perhaps, a butterfly in black lace.

ABOUT SHOES.

In the matter of footgear there is noticeable a rapidly growing adherence to the black shoe, very smartly buckled, however, and worn with stockings of the color of the gown. The black shoe is infinitely more becoming than any colored one, be the latter ever so well made, and the ready acceptance of this truth has doubtless been instrumental in carrying favor back. Here and there one meets white or gold heels, but the really well dressed woman eschews these vagaries, contenting herself with the always admirable appearance presented by a foot immaculately shod in all black.

Very welcome, though, on the other hand, is the contrasting hosiery, and that the days of this vogue may be long numbered is the fervent hope of us all.

Don Carney and Steve Jubas, single entertainers and of a distinctly different style, present individual hits. The first named presents a piano act, showing impressions of different people at the piano has met, while Jubas deals in "bunkology," as he terms it. He is really a clever sleight of hand performer, but it is his clever line of side talk that lands him safely. It is not often that a five act show contains two individual entertainers as clever as these two men.

The Juvenets, doing feats of hand balancing, open the show nicely and Kinemacolor pictures are especially attractive this week.

THE NEWEST HEADGEAR.

At the moment the smartest hat is in the shape of an inverted pudding basin, supplemented by double brims of wired tulle which project over the eyes, at times hiding the back of the hair as well, but at other times rising suddenly and held close to the crown by a feather or a single long stemmed flower, usually pink.

One of these pudding basin hats is carried out in white lace, but most of them are black with either a tall flower or a panache of plumes for trimming. Few very large picture hats are seen, the inclination of the moment being for a more moderate size with straight brims, trimmed with flowers and, perhaps, a butterfly in black lace.

ABOUT SHOES.

In the matter of footgear there is noticeable a rapidly growing adherence to the black shoe, very smartly buckled, however, and worn with stockings of the color of the gown. The black shoe is infinitely more becoming than any colored one, be the latter ever so well made, and the ready acceptance of this truth has doubtless been instrumental in carrying favor back. Here and there one meets white or gold heels, but the really well dressed woman eschews these vagaries, contenting herself with the always admirable appearance presented by a foot immaculately shod in all black.

Very welcome, though, on the other hand, is the contrasting hosiery, and that the days of this vogue may be long numbered is the fervent hope of us all.

Don Carney and Steve Jubas, single entertainers and of a distinctly different style, present individual hits. The first named presents a piano act, showing impressions of different people at the piano has met, while Jubas deals in "bunkology," as he terms it. He is really a clever sleight of hand performer, but it is his clever line of side talk that lands him safely. It is not often that a five act show contains two individual entertainers as clever as these two men.

The Juvenets, doing feats of hand balancing, open the show nicely and Kinemacolor pictures are especially attractive this week.

THE NEWEST HEADGEAR.

At the moment the smartest hat is in the shape of an inverted pudding basin, supplemented by double brims of wired tulle which project over the eyes, at times hiding the back of the hair as well, but at other times rising suddenly and held close to the crown by a feather or a single long stemmed flower, usually pink.

One of these pudding basin hats is carried out in white lace, but most of them are black with either a tall flower or a panache of plumes for trimming. Few very large picture hats are seen, the inclination of the moment being for a more moderate size with straight brims, trimmed with flowers and, perhaps, a butterfly in black lace.

ABOUT SHOES.

In the matter of footgear there is noticeable a rapidly growing adherence to the black shoe, very smartly buckled, however, and worn with stockings of the color of the gown. The black shoe is infinitely more becoming than any colored one, be the latter ever so well made, and the ready acceptance of this truth has doubtless been instrumental in carrying favor back. Here and there one meets white or gold heels, but the really well dressed woman eschews these vagaries, contenting herself with the always admirable appearance presented by a foot immaculately shod in all black.

Very welcome, though, on the other hand, is the contrasting hosiery, and that the days of this vogue may be long numbered is the fervent hope of us all.

Don Carney and Steve Jubas, single entertainers and of a distinctly different style, present individual hits. The first named presents a piano act, showing impressions of different people at the piano has met, while Jubas deals in "bunkology," as he terms it. He is really a clever sleight of hand performer, but it is his clever line of side talk that lands him safely. It is not often that a five act show contains two individual entertainers as clever as these two men.

The Juvenets, doing feats of hand balancing, open the show nicely and Kinemacolor pictures are especially attractive this week.

THE NEWEST HEADGEAR.

At the moment the smartest hat is in the shape of an inverted pudding basin, supplemented by double brims of wired tulle which project over the eyes, at times hiding the back of the hair as well, but at other times rising suddenly and held close to the crown by a feather or a single long stemmed flower, usually pink.

One of these pudding basin hats is carried out in white lace, but most of them are black with either a tall flower or a panache of plumes for trimming. Few very large picture hats are seen, the inclination of the moment being for a more moderate size with straight brims, trimmed with flowers and, perhaps, a butterfly in black lace.

ABOUT SHOES.

In the matter of footgear there is noticeable a rapidly growing adherence to the black shoe, very smartly buckled, however, and worn with stockings of the color of the gown. The black shoe is infinitely more becoming than any colored one, be the latter ever so well made, and the ready acceptance of this truth has doubtless been instrumental in carrying favor back. Here and there one meets white or gold heels, but the really well dressed woman eschews these vagaries, contenting herself with the always admirable appearance presented by a foot immaculately shod in all black.

Very welcome, though, on the other hand, is the contrasting hosiery, and that the days of this vogue may be long numbered is the fervent hope of us all.

Little Journeys Into Fashion Land

The weather and the fashions have been in perfect accord of late. We have been enjoying a summer of illusion. Yes, for the title does not mean anything serious!

It refers to the positive rage for tulle, which airy fabric used to be known as "illusion," in other words, something inimitably fairy-like and fragile, that has made willing victims of the mode's devotees.

SPORTING PAGE

THE REAL CLASS SHOWN BY YOUNG

Three Hits in One Inning Did Not Yield Run for Veterans.

LOST HEART BREAKER

Grover Cleveland Young displayed his greatest form in the hurling duel with Prof. Clegg Webb at the Varnell ball plot yesterday when three singles were grouped on him in succession in the eighth and Dayton was held scoreless, although the bases were choked and only one player retired.

It was easy enough for the professor, who had everything in his repertoire working in high-class style for him, and who went until the first man was down in the seventh, with a no-hit-no-run-third game in eight but Young was in trouble a number of times and came tearing through with a splendid display of courage that was the real feature of the matinee.

Sykes popped to Martin to start this round, and Bellamy hit by the pitcher for a single. Wickland followed with one in the same direction but the return was too fast for Bellamy to advance and he was held at third when Ernie Martin rapped one right through the same opening.

Warren worked hard and the best he could do was a pop fly to the pitcher and then Ernie rapped the ball to right and Tutwiler rubbed it. If the pitcher had faltered for a minute his game would have been lost beyond the possibility of recovery.

Dayton gathered a dozen bingles off Young but his work in the tight places and his support pulled him through and the only run that was made was the direct result of Anderson's miff at first base.

Then there was another thing that worked against the pitcher. In the seventh, with one gone, Welch rapped the first hit, a triple to the left field fence. Wager was playing in place of Bratfield, who hurt his ankle in the Saturday game, and is not in the same form enough to get his eye on the ball. With Bratfield up it is possible the run could have been squeezed over.

In the first six innings Webb struck out five men and there was not a base. A blank of a hit and he did not pass a man. Young had pitched good ball all this time and while he was hit he was holding down tight in stormy times and was quietly leading the enemy in check.

In the third Warren drove to Fabrique, who deflected the ball in place of time and made a dashy throw to first but Anderson was quick to get his eye on the ball. With Bratfield up it is possible the run could have been squeezed over.

Dayton, A. B. R. H. P. O. A. E.
Shaw, R. 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0
New, 2b 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0
Sykes, 1b 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0
McKee, cf 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0
Wickland, rf 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0
E. Martin, 3b 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0
Warren, c 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0
Foley, ss 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0
Webb, p 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0

Totals 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0
Score by Innings: 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0
Dayton 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0
Fort Wayne 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0
Summary: Three-base hit—Welch. Two-base hit—Anderson. Sacrifice hits—Foley, E. Martin, Shaw, Tutwiler. Struck out by Webb, by Young, 2. Bases on balls—Off Young, 2. Time of game—1:40. Umpire—Giesel.

Notes of the Game.
Fabrique made a desperate effort to win in the ninth. He beat out a hit down third base line and after Welch had retired for the second out he stole second but Wager could not send him in. Webb worked hard in the final round and burned the ball through with all the steam he could command.

Young is certainly the hard luck pitcher. He is hard to see hurling like that so far nothing has come of it.

Anderson tried hard to atone for his error when he hit for two bases as an opener for the eighth but he got no further than third as mother Martin, Burke or Nepe was able to send him around.

The crowd roared hard for the home team in the seventh and there was prospect that it would bring results when Welch smashed a drive to the left field fence but he died at third although only one man was out.

SHOULD THANK THE ARTIST.
Although his mother was much shocked at Bertie's latest caper, he said, "By smoking this, I've got a 'puff' right in the paper."

HARTWIG IS HISTORIAN.
Local Man on Staff of State Commander of 157th Regiment.

William H. Bertach, of South Bend, who was elected department commander of the 157th Indiana volunteer regiment at the recent convention held in Fort Wayne, has made the following staff appointments:

Department historian—August C. Hartwig, Fort Wayne.
Chief of staff—Wallace D. Teeple.
Assistant department quartermaster—Albert Blegdekowski.
Assistant department adjutant—E. E. Beck.
Department quartermaster—Frank A. Smith.
Department adjutant—C. A. Warwick.

Although his mother was much shocked at Bertie's latest caper, he said, "By smoking this, I've got a 'puff' right in the paper."

HARTWIG IS HISTORIAN.
Local Man on Staff of State Commander of 157th Regiment.

William H. Bertach, of South Bend, who was elected department commander of the 157th Indiana volunteer regiment at the recent convention held in Fort Wayne, has made the following staff appointments:

Department historian—August C. Hartwig, Fort Wayne.
Chief of staff—Wallace D. Teeple.
Assistant department quartermaster—Albert Blegdekowski.
Assistant department adjutant—E. E. Beck.
Department quartermaster—Frank A. Smith.
Department adjutant—C. A. Warwick.

Although his mother was much shocked at Bertie's latest caper, he said, "By smoking this, I've got a 'puff' right in the paper."

HARTWIG IS HISTORIAN.
Local Man on Staff of State Commander of 157th Regiment.

William H. Bertach, of South Bend, who was elected department commander of the 157th Indiana volunteer regiment at the recent convention held in Fort Wayne, has made the following staff appointments:

Department historian—August C. Hartwig, Fort Wayne.
Chief of staff—Wallace D. Teeple.
Assistant department quartermaster—Albert Blegdekowski.
Assistant department adjutant—E. E. Beck.
Department quartermaster—Frank A. Smith.
Department adjutant—C. A. Warwick.

Although his mother was much shocked at Bertie's latest caper, he said, "By smoking this, I've got a 'puff' right in the paper."

HARTWIG IS HISTORIAN.
Local Man on Staff of State Commander of 157th Regiment.

William H. Bertach, of South Bend, who was elected department commander of the 157th Indiana volunteer regiment at the recent convention held in Fort Wayne, has made the following staff appointments:

Department historian—August C. Hartwig, Fort Wayne.
Chief of staff—Wallace D. Teeple.
Assistant department quartermaster—Albert Blegdekowski.
Assistant department adjutant—E. E. Beck.
Department quartermaster—Frank A. Smith.
Department adjutant—C. A. Warwick.

DAYTON MAKES A BID FOR SECOND

Vets Start Climb in the Race for Central League Honors.

FT. WAYNE ADVANCES

Six victories in eight games played during the last week has placed the Dayton club in position to advance to second place as it is within one game of Springfield in third and only four behind Fort Wayne in second.

This is due to the fact that the pitchers are in form and the regulars, with the exception of Leber, are in their old positions and the club is hitting to good advantage. Three of the four triumphs were at the expense of the Fort Wayne club and two were defeats administered to the Treasures.

A double loss sustained by the Springfield troupe in the earlier yesterday against Terre Haute gave the Vets a big boost.

Fort Wayne has won four of seven games played and has made a slight advance but is still far away from first place as it was a week ago, due largely to the inability of any of the other clubs to hit Grand Rapids until the Billikens can get within hailing distance.

The two clubs will meet this week on the Grand Rapids lot and if Algonquin and McGowan prove as good as they are being touted they will be able to aid in the struggle and the Billikens will be in better battle array.

Absence of Charles Stewart from the Springfield line-up has been disastrous and the team is slipping badly, and if it loses the next game it will go into the second division unless Dayton also drops a game. Terre Haute has shown a decided improvement and is advancing on Dayton and has done his best work away from the home lot. Fort Wayne will start on a three-day trip tomorrow.

Proctor was in great form in the Sunday game against Toledo and he allowed four hits and struck out eleven men, winning 8 to 0. At Springfield all of the pitchers were hit hard and the Vets gathered in two victories.

Springfield 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 4 1
Terre Haute 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 8 14
Batteries—Proctor and Stratton; Proctor and McGowan.

Springfield 2 1 0 0 0 0 0 0 9 11 1
Terre Haute 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 11 14 2
Batteries—Merchant, Wetzel and Snyder; Cantwell, Betts, Gilbert and Hargrave.

Springfield 0 0 1 0 0 1 0 0 2 4 5 0
Terre Haute 1 0 0 2 4 0 1 0 8 15 5
Batteries—Duffy and Snyder; Snadden and Barker.

Springfield 0 0 1 0 0 1 0 0 2 4 5 0
Terre Haute 1 0 0 2 4 0 1 0 8 15 5
Batteries—Duffy and Snyder; Snadden and Barker.

Springfield 0 0 1 0 0 1 0 0 2 4 5 0
Terre Haute 1 0 0 2 4 0 1 0 8 15 5
Batteries—Duffy and Snyder; Snadden and Barker.

Springfield 0 0 1 0 0 1 0 0 2 4 5 0
Terre Haute 1 0 0 2 4 0 1 0 8 15 5
Batteries—Duffy and Snyder; Snadden and Barker.

Springfield 0 0 1 0 0 1 0 0 2 4 5 0
Terre Haute 1 0 0 2 4 0 1 0 8 15 5
Batteries—Duffy and Snyder; Snadden and Barker.

Springfield 0 0 1 0 0 1 0 0 2 4 5 0
Terre Haute 1 0 0 2 4 0 1 0 8 15 5
Batteries—Duffy and Snyder; Snadden and Barker.

Springfield 0 0 1 0 0 1 0 0 2 4 5 0
Terre Haute 1 0 0 2 4 0 1 0 8 15 5
Batteries—Duffy and Snyder; Snadden and Barker.

Springfield 0 0 1 0 0 1 0 0 2 4 5 0
Terre Haute 1 0 0 2 4 0 1 0 8 15 5
Batteries—Duffy and Snyder; Snadden and Barker.

Springfield 0 0 1 0 0 1 0 0 2 4 5 0
Terre Haute 1 0 0 2 4 0 1 0 8 15 5
Batteries—Duffy and Snyder; Snadden and Barker.

Springfield 0 0 1 0 0 1 0 0 2 4 5 0
Terre Haute 1 0 0 2 4 0 1 0 8 15 5
Batteries—Duffy and Snyder; Snadden and Barker.

Springfield 0 0 1 0 0 1 0 0 2 4 5 0
Terre Haute 1 0 0 2 4 0 1 0 8 15 5
Batteries—Duffy and Snyder; Snadden and Barker.

Springfield 0 0 1 0 0 1 0 0 2 4 5 0
Terre Haute 1 0 0 2 4 0 1 0 8 15 5
Batteries—Duffy and Snyder; Snadden and Barker.

Springfield 0 0 1 0 0 1 0 0 2 4 5 0
Terre Haute 1 0 0 2 4 0 1 0 8 15 5
Batteries—Duffy and Snyder; Snadden and Barker.

Springfield 0 0 1 0 0 1 0 0 2 4 5 0
Terre Haute 1 0 0 2 4 0 1 0 8 15 5
Batteries—Duffy and Snyder; Snadden and Barker.

Springfield 0 0 1 0 0 1 0 0 2 4 5 0
Terre Haute 1 0 0 2 4 0 1 0 8 15 5
Batteries—Duffy and Snyder; Snadden and Barker.

Springfield 0 0 1 0 0 1 0 0 2 4 5 0
Terre Haute 1 0 0 2 4 0 1 0 8 15 5
Batteries—Duffy and Snyder; Snadden and Barker.

Springfield 0 0 1 0 0 1 0 0 2 4 5 0
Terre Haute 1 0 0 2 4 0 1 0 8 15 5
Batteries—Duffy and Snyder; Snadden and Barker.

Springfield 0 0 1 0 0 1 0 0 2 4 5 0
Terre Haute 1 0 0 2 4 0 1 0 8 15 5
Batteries—Duffy and Snyder; Snadden and Barker.

Springfield 0 0 1 0 0 1 0 0 2 4 5 0
Terre Haute 1 0 0 2 4 0 1 0 8 15 5
Batteries—Duffy and Snyder; Snadden and Barker.

Springfield 0 0 1 0 0 1 0 0 2 4 5 0
Terre Haute 1 0 0 2 4 0 1 0 8 15 5
Batteries—Duffy and Snyder; Snadden and Barker.

Springfield 0 0 1 0 0 1 0 0 2 4 5 0
Terre Haute 1 0 0 2 4 0 1 0 8 15 5
Batteries—Duffy and Snyder; Snadden and Barker.

Springfield 0 0 1 0 0 1 0 0 2 4 5 0
Terre Haute 1 0 0 2 4 0 1 0 8 15 5
Batteries—Duffy and Snyder; Snadden and Barker.

Springfield 0 0 1 0 0 1 0 0 2 4 5 0
Terre Haute 1 0 0 2 4 0 1 0 8 15 5
Batteries—Duffy and Snyder; Snadden and Barker.

Springfield 0 0 1 0 0 1 0 0 2 4 5 0
Terre Haute 1 0 0 2 4 0 1 0 8 15 5
Batteries—Duffy and Snyder; Snadden and Barker.

OLD FASHIONED SLUGGING KEEPS OMAHA "UP THERE" IN TORRID WESTERN LEAGUE RACE FOR PENNANT.

Thompson, Johnson, Kane, Shetka, Connelton.

This is the week-end crew that is keeping Omaha up near the front of the procession in the Western league pennant race.

If Omaha wins the consolation in Tin O'Clocks circuit, it will be due to the heavy hitting brigade Manager Algonquin has gathered for Old Omaha.

The pitching hasn't been any too classy this spring and the defense is not of the

been hitting the ball in minor league above 200 Jim Kane, first baseman, who was with Pittsburgh for a time. Shetka, the old Washington infielder, and Justice.

The hitting staff isn't exactly high-class, although the acquisition of Luke Glavich, former of Cleveland, should prove beneficial. Glavich is one of those pitchers who "does everything," but has to learn how to control it. At Omaha he ought to win a lot of games with the slugging brigade behind him.

The pitching hasn't been any too classy this spring and the defense is not of the

been hitting the ball in minor league above 200 Jim Kane, first baseman, who was with Pittsburgh for a time. Shetka, the old Washington infielder, and Justice.

The hitting staff isn't exactly high-class, although the acquisition of Luke Glavich, former of Cleveland, should prove beneficial. Glavich is one of those pitchers who "does everything," but has to learn how to control it. At Omaha he ought to win a lot of games with the slugging brigade behind him.

The pitching hasn't been any too classy this spring and the defense is not of the

been hitting the ball in minor league above 200 Jim Kane, first baseman, who was with Pittsburgh for a time. Shetka, the old Washington infielder, and Justice.

The hitting staff isn't exactly high-class, although the acquisition of Luke Glavich, former of Cleveland, should prove beneficial. Glavich is one of those pitchers who "does everything," but has to learn how to control it. At Omaha he ought to win a lot of games with the slugging brigade behind him.

The pitching hasn't been any too classy this spring and the defense is not of the

been hitting the ball in minor league above 200 Jim Kane, first baseman, who was with Pittsburgh for a time. Shetka, the old Washington infielder, and Justice.

The hitting staff isn't exactly high-class, although the acquisition of Luke Glavich, former of Cleveland, should prove beneficial. Glavich is one of those pitchers who "does everything," but has to learn how to control it. At Omaha he ought to win a lot of games with the slugging brigade behind him.

The pitching hasn't been any too classy this spring and the defense is not of the

been hitting the ball in minor league above 200 Jim Kane, first baseman, who was with Pittsburgh for a time. Shetka, the old Washington infielder, and Justice.

The hitting staff isn't exactly high-class, although the acquisition of Luke Glavich, former of Cleveland, should prove beneficial. Glavich is one of those pitchers who "does everything," but has to learn how to control it. At Omaha he ought to win a lot of games with the slugging brigade behind him.

The pitching hasn't been any too classy this spring and the defense is not of the

been hitting the ball in minor league above 200 Jim Kane, first baseman, who was with Pittsburgh for a time. Shetka, the old Washington infielder, and Justice.

The hitting staff isn't exactly high-class, although the acquisition of Luke Glavich, former of Cleveland, should prove beneficial. Glavich is one of those pitchers who "does everything," but has to learn how to control it. At Omaha he ought to win a lot of games with the slugging brigade behind him.

The pitching hasn't been any too classy this spring and the defense is not of the

been hitting the ball in minor league above 200 Jim Kane, first baseman, who was with Pittsburgh for a time. Shetka, the old Washington infielder, and Justice.

The hitting staff isn't exactly high-class, although the acquisition of Luke Glavich, former of Cleveland, should prove beneficial. Glavich is one of those pitchers who "does everything," but has to learn how to control it. At Omaha he ought to win a lot of games with the slugging brigade behind him.

The pitching hasn't been any too classy this spring and the defense is not of the

been hitting the ball in minor league above 200 Jim Kane, first baseman, who was with Pittsburgh for a time. Shetka, the old Washington infielder, and Justice.

The hitting staff isn't exactly high-class, although the acquisition of Luke Glavich, former of Cleveland, should prove beneficial. Glavich is one of those pitchers who "does everything," but has to learn how to control it. At Omaha he ought to win a lot of games with the slugging brigade behind him.

The pitching hasn't been any too classy this spring and the defense is not of the

been hitting the ball in minor league above 200 Jim Kane, first baseman, who was with Pittsburgh for a time. Shetka, the old Washington infielder, and Justice.

The hitting staff isn't exactly high-class, although the acquisition of Luke Glavich, former of Cleveland, should prove beneficial. Glavich is one of those pitchers who "does everything," but has to learn how to control it. At Omaha he ought to win a lot of games with the slugging brigade behind him.

The pitching hasn't been any too classy this spring and the defense is not of the

been hitting the ball in minor league above 200 Jim Kane, first baseman, who was with Pittsburgh for a time. Shetka, the old Washington infielder, and Justice.

The hitting staff isn't exactly high-class, although the acquisition of Luke Glavich, former of Cleveland, should prove beneficial. Glavich is one of those pitchers who "does everything," but has to learn how to control it. At Omaha he ought to win a lot of games with the slugging brigade behind him.

The pitching hasn't been any too classy this spring and the defense is not of the

been hitting the ball in minor league above 200 Jim Kane, first baseman, who was with Pittsburgh for a time. Shetka, the old Washington infielder, and Justice.

The hitting staff isn't exactly high-class, although the acquisition of Luke Glavich, former of Cleveland, should prove beneficial. Glavich is one of those pitchers who "does everything," but has to learn how to control it. At Omaha he ought to win a lot of games with the slugging brigade behind him.

The pitching hasn't been any too classy this spring and the defense is not of the

been hitting the ball in minor league above 200 Jim Kane, first baseman, who was with Pittsburgh for a time. Shetka, the old Washington infielder, and Justice.

The hitting staff isn't exactly high-class, although the acquisition of Luke Glavich, former of Cleveland, should prove beneficial. Glavich is one of those pitchers who "does everything," but has to learn how to control it. At Omaha he ought to win a lot of games with the slugging brigade behind him.

The pitching hasn't been any too classy this spring and the defense is not of the

been hitting the ball in minor league above 200 Jim Kane, first baseman, who was with Pittsburgh for a time. Shetka, the old Washington infielder, and Justice.

The hitting staff isn't exactly high-class, although the acquisition of Luke Glavich, former of Cleveland, should prove beneficial. Glavich is one of those pitchers who "does everything," but has to learn how to control it. At Omaha he ought to win a lot of games with the slugging brigade behind him.

The pitching hasn't been any too classy this spring and the defense is not of the

LEFT TO RIGHT: ARTHUR THOMPSON, 370 HITTER, SUESTAR, YOUNG CATCHER; ELTON GORMAN, PITCHER; ARTHUR ADAMS, BATTER; FORT MANAGER AUBOGAST; "CHICK" JOHNSON, CATCHER.

which took place at the Columbus hospital for the insane on Saturday.

KEENE IS STILL OUT.
Dexter Keene, taken ill when Springfield was here last, is still out of the game with an attack of yellow jaundice. When he returns he will play the outfield as Markey will be kept at first base.

"Bloomer Girl" Cut Man Down and Then Lad Pulled Off Blonde Wig

DANDY RIOT FOLLOWS

Washington, July 21.—One policeman is in a hospital, two others are nursing bruises and awaiting new uniforms and part of the Union League baseball park is a wreck today as the result of a riot at a Sunday baseball game when 4,000 enthusiastic spectators, that a team of "bloomer" girls were really not in disguise. The team was taken to an east town team under police protection. A full hour before the riot broke out, the manager of the "girls" organization had acquired the gate receipts and had disappeared. The team was so successful here four weeks ago that it returned for a second appearance at the opposing team being an amateur organization from Laurel, Md. The trouble started when the "girls" center fielder, a husky young blonde, threw a ball from deep center to home plate, catching the runner. The spectators were suspicious.

A moment later a small boy slipped up behind the supposed divinity that presided at third base, and gave her golden ball a vigorous pull. They came away in the form of a wig, revealing a rump young man with an elaborate make-up ending just above his eyebrows. The team led through a storm of bottles and bricks to the shelter of the clubhouse, where the police massed. The crowd then stormed the ticket windows, demanding their money back, venting their rage on the property. Several persons were hurt in the melee and a number of arrests were made.

At Minneapolis—R.H.E. Minneapolis 4 0 1 0 0 0 1 2 8 12 2
Columbus 1 0 1 0 0 1 0 0 3 5 2
Batteries—Olmstead and McGowan; Cook and Murphy. Umpires—Westervelt and O'Brien.

At Kansas City—R.H.E. Kansas City 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 0 1 5 4
Batteries—Collins and Land; Vaughn and O'Connor. Umpires—Johnstone and Handlon.

At St. Paul—R.H.E. St. Paul 0 0 1 0 0 1 0 0 3 12 1
Indianapolis 0 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 1 5 1
Batteries—Rieger and James; Schmitt, Kauterling and Casey. Umpires—Connelly and Murray.

At St. Paul—R.H.E. St. Paul 0 0 1 0 0 1 0 0 3 12 1
Indianapolis 0 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 1 5 1
Batteries—Rieger and James; Schmitt, Kauterling and Casey. Umpires—Connelly and Murray.

At St. Paul—R.H.E. St. Paul 0 0 1 0 0 1 0 0 3 12 1
Indianapolis 0 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 1 5 1
Batteries—Rieger and James; Schmitt, Kauterling and Casey. Umpires—Connelly and Murray.

At St. Paul—R.H.E. St. Paul 0 0 1 0 0 1 0 0 3 12 1
Indianapolis 0 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 1 5 1
Batteries—Rieger and James; Schmitt, Kauterling and Casey. Umpires—Connelly and Murray.

At St. Paul—R.H.E. St. Paul 0 0 1 0 0 1 0 0 3 12 1
Indianapolis 0 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 1 5 1
Batteries—Rieger and James; Schmitt, Kauterling and Casey. Umpires—Connelly and Murray.

At St. Paul—R.H.E. St. Paul 0 0 1 0 0 1 0 0 3 12 1
Indianapolis 0 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 1 5 1
Batteries—Rieger and James; Schmitt, Kauterling and Casey. Umpires—Connelly and Murray.

At St. Paul—R.H.E. St. Paul 0 0 1 0 0 1 0 0 3 12 1
Indianapolis 0 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 1 5 1
Batteries—Rieger and James; Schmitt, Kauterling and Casey. Umpires—Connelly and Murray.

At St. Paul—R.H.E. St. Paul 0 0 1 0 0 1 0 0 3 12 1
Indianapolis 0 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 1 5 1
Batteries—Rieger and James; Schmitt, Kauterling and Casey. Umpires—Connelly and Murray.

At St. Paul—R.H.E. St. Paul 0 0 1 0 0 1 0 0 3 12 1
Indianapolis 0 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 1 5 1
Batteries—Rieger and James; Schmitt, Kauterling and Casey. Umpires—Connelly and Murray.

At St. Paul—R.H.E. St. Paul 0 0 1 0 0 1 0 0 3 12 1
Indianapolis 0 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 1 5 1
Batteries—Rieger and James; Schmitt, Kauterling and Casey. Umpires—Connelly and Murray.

At St. Paul—R.H.E. St. Paul 0 0 1 0 0 1 0 0 3 12 1
Indianapolis 0 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 1 5 1
Batteries—Rieger and James; Schmitt, Kauterling and Casey. Umpires—Connelly and Murray.

At St. Paul—R.H.E. St. Paul 0 0 1 0 0 1 0 0 3 12 1 the nearest to perfection in amusement ever invented to suit the American taste.
Indianapolis 0 0 0

There is a definition of vaudeville: It is the utter opposite of Chinese drama. In chopstick-hand a play lasts for three whole days before the pig-tailed audience ever gets hip to the plot; in vaudeville a sketch that drags three minutes without a knock 'em off their seats is a flivver and a parcel of cheese.

Somewhat like the rose, vaudeville yields the same by any other name. When staged in rowdy fashion it is a variety show, or a "hunk-a-tonk."

When presented in a swell restaurant it is a cabaret, which is pronounced with the "t" silent, as in gaudish.

When offered out-of-doors it is an all-fresco entertainment, and when the bill contains a trick horse, a trapeze act and a ballet of trained fleas it is a hippodrome.

When it is surrounded by a book and lyrics, a box of pretty girls, a prima donna, two scenes and an elevated harp, it becomes a musical comedy.

Students of the Greek tragedies and boosters for the advanced drama deplore vaudeville, saying it has no educational value. But they are sadly mistaken. Vaudeville teaches how to get fast results in whatever one sets out to do. In vaudeville the young man always proposes to the girl six minutes and one song after the introduction. Before they close she gets her irate father on long-distance telephone in less time than it takes to get a turnip on a fork.

The villain who says, "I shall return in one hour—let's blow back in ten minutes, and after the death struggle he comes to life in time to take three curtain calls and sundry stage splinters out of his system.

The life of a vaudeville star is quite soft, thank you, with one's name picked out in electric bulbs and a salary that would make a railroad president envious. The stories about Harry Lauder's salary got louder every year, and the same applies to Eva Lee Don't-Care.

The beginner, however, may have a voice like Caruso and be able to dance like had on a tin roof, but he's lucky if he gets a job at low wages, performing ten times a day.

Which makes him wonder whether he's a failure or a flut.

Final Clean-Up of Suits

Regardless of cost. No suit held back, every suit must go
Sale began This morning and continues one week

$10 Your choice of any suit in our store regardless of cost, color or size, awaits your selection at only $10

200 suits in this sale, suits that sold up to $45 will be found among them. Every suit a guaranteed suit. Our loss is your gain. Investigate this Bargain - Giving Sale of Suits

Our Sacrifice Sale Summer Wash Fabrics

We put on sale this week all our big assortment of Summer Wash Goods at sacrifice prices.

Notice Your Big Saving

LOT ONE—3,000 yards of beautiful Lawns, Dimities and Cotton Foulards in stripes and floral patterns, in all colors and worth up to 15c at 10c

LOT TWO—Voiles, Tissues, Dimities, Flaxons and Cotton Ratines in all the new designs and all the new color effects, worth up to 25c at 17c

Final Sacrifice Children's and Misses' Dresses

LOT ONE—Pretty Gingham and Percale Dresses for Play and School, worth 85c at 59c

LOT TWO—Beautiful Gingham Dresses made in all the new effects including the popular Balkan Dresses, worth up to $2.00 at 98c

LOT THREE—Nobby Dresses for the Misses in several styles, worth $2.50 at $1.59

The Myers Dry Goods., 904 Calhoun Street
The New Fall Coats and Suits Now Await Your Inspection

LEGAL NOTICE

LEGAL NOTICE—PUBLIC NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given that a petition for a stone road in Monroe township was filed in the auditor's office of Allen county, Indiana, on the 12th day of July, 1936, and the same will be presented to the board of commissioners of Allen county, Indiana, on the 5th day of August, 1936, for a hearing. Which petition is as follows:

State of Indiana, Allen county, ss:
In the Commissioners' Court of Allen county, Indiana.

PETITION.

In re-petition for stone road in Monroe township, known as the Row stone road. To the Honorable Board of Commissioners of the County of Allen and State of Indiana:

We, the undersigned, freeholders and voters of township twenty-nine (29) north, range fifteen (15) east, known as Monroe township, of Allen county, in the state of Indiana, petition your honorable board of commissioners of the county of Allen and state of Indiana, under sections 771 to 773, inclusive, Burns' Revised Statutes, 1905, and all acts amendatory thereto, for the draining, grading and paving of the following described highway in said Monroe township, of Allen county, Indiana, to-wit:

Commencing at the intersection of section line (29) north, range fifteen (15) east, with section line (17) east, and running thence north fifteen (15) feet, as follows: Six inches of 24-inch stone, as will pass through a 24-inch sieve; 3 inches of 14-inch stone and 3 inches of gravel used for macadam stone roads.

That the south part of said road shall be and remain a mud road, and that the gravel upon said road shall be taken from the part which is to be stoned and placed on the part which is to remain a mud road; and that this shall be packed so as to make a good, solid road.

That said road shall be drained with tile on both sides of road and that the tile drain shall be placed so as not to interfere with any other public drains now in existence, but no open ditch shall be placed along said road.

That said road, if constructed, will be of public utility and will be a benefit to the people of Monroe township.

That said road, over two-thirds of its length, is a line for the United States rural mail route, and is less than three miles in length and connects a free gravel road of the county with the corporate limits of Monroeville.

Your petitioners further pray of this honorable board of commissioners that for the improvement of said road, bonds be issued by this honorable board of commissioners of the county of Allen and state of Indiana, under the provisions of the above-cited sections, and that such bonds shall be issued in series, payable in not less than ten years, and in the denominations named in the aforesaid act.

Wherefore, your petitioners pray of this honorable board of commissioners of the county of Allen and state of Indiana, to establish a macadam road over said highway, as prayed for in this petition, and under the recommendations made therein, and for all other and further relief in the premises.

Daniel A. Row.
David Martin.
Jonathan Hart.
Henry F. Huchter.
Frank Neadtine.
Horatio S. Jones.
Charles L. Meyer.
Thomas H. Griffith.
Samuel Scott.
James D. McCormick.
James O. Gilbert.
Oliver V. Cowell.
John A. Schach.
Henry E. Steinman.
Guy K. Grubill.
George E. Gintner.
John Goodin.
Louise E. Wright.
Charles J. Smith.
John L. Lomiller.
Elroy C. Lomiller.
Joseph D. Morgan.
Oll Taylor.
Edward M. Johnston.
Daniel Sheehan.
William Erwin.
Simon S. Baker.
D. A. Swartz.
Joseph A. Wherry.
Daniel Sheehan.
Alfred Leuenberger.
Henry Carrier.
Wayne M. Hart.
Oll Taylor.
James M. Hart.
Dan Slattery.
James M. Hart.
John Neadtine.
Joseph Clem.
Curtis O. Reynolds.
Lewis M. Probst.
Reuben Miner.
Harry V. Vizard.
James W. Gilbert.
James C. Cowan.
H. Claude Weirman.
John W. Edwards.
John W. Edwards.
William O. Sweeney.
John P. Heinfieldt.
Henry Schlemmer.
Daniel Bottenberg.
Daniel Rider.
Jason E. Bottenberg.
L. H. Edwards.
Daniel E. Kauffman.
Thomas J. Sheehan.
Charles G. Simmers.

LEGAL NOTICE—PUBLIC NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given that a petition for a stone road in Monroe township was filed in the auditor's office of Allen county, Indiana, on the 12th day of July, 1936, and the same will be presented to the board of commissioners of Allen county, Indiana, on the 5th day of August, 1936, for a hearing. Which petition is as follows:

State of Indiana, Allen county, ss:
In the Commissioners' Court of Allen county, Indiana.

PETITION.

In re-petition for stone road in Monroe township, known as the Sheehan stone road. To the Honorable Board of Commissioners of the County of Allen and State of Indiana:

We, the undersigned, freeholders and voters of township twenty-nine (29) north, range fifteen (15) east, known as Monroe township, of Allen county, in the state of Indiana, petition your honorable board of commissioners of the county of Allen and state of Indiana, under sections 771 to 773, inclusive, Burns' Revised Statutes, 1905, and all acts amendatory thereto, for the draining, grading and paving of the following described highway in said Monroe township, of Allen county, Indiana, to-wit:

Commencing at the northeast corporate limit of Monroe township, on the section line (29) north, range fifteen (15) east, and running thence north fifteen (15) feet, as follows: Six inches of 24-inch stone, as will pass through a 24-inch sieve; 3 inches of 14-inch stone and 3 inches of gravel used for macadam stone roads.

That the south part of said road shall be and remain a mud road, and that the gravel upon said road shall be taken from the part which is to be stoned and placed on the part which is to remain a mud road; and that this shall be packed so as to make a good, solid road.

That said road shall be drained with tile on both sides of road and that the tile drain shall be placed so as not to interfere with any other public drains now in existence, but no open ditch shall be placed along said road.

That said road, if constructed, will be of public utility and will be a benefit to the people of Monroe township.

That said road, over two-thirds of its length, is a line for the United States rural mail route, and is less than three miles in length and connects a free gravel road of the county with the corporate limits of Monroeville.

Your petitioners further pray of this honorable board of commissioners that for the improvement of said road, bonds be issued by this honorable board of commissioners of the county of Allen and state of Indiana, under the provisions of the above-cited sections, and that such bonds shall be issued in series, payable in not less than ten years, and in the denominations named in the aforesaid act.

Wherefore, your petitioners pray of this honorable board of commissioners of the county of Allen and state of Indiana, to establish a macadam road over said highway, as prayed for in this petition, and under the recommendations made therein, and for all other and further relief in the premises.

Daniel A. Row.
David Martin.
Jonathan Hart.
Henry F. Huchter.
Frank Neadtine.
Horatio S. Jones.
Charles L. Meyer.
Thomas H. Griffith.
Samuel Scott.
James D. McCormick.
James O. Gilbert.
Oliver V. Cowell.
John A. Schach.
Henry E. Steinman.
Guy K. Grubill.
George E. Gintner.
John Goodin.
Louise E. Wright.
Charles J. Smith.
John L. Lomiller.
Elroy C. Lomiller.
Joseph D. Morgan.
Oll Taylor.
Edward M. Johnston.
Daniel Sheehan.
William Erwin.
Simon S. Baker.
D. A. Swartz.
Joseph A. Wherry.
Daniel Sheehan.
Alfred Leuenberger.
Henry Carrier.
Wayne M. Hart.
Oll Taylor.
James M. Hart.
Dan Slattery.
James M. Hart.
John Neadtine.
Joseph Clem.
Curtis O. Reynolds.
Lewis M. Probst.
Reuben Miner.
Harry V. Vizard.
James W. Gilbert.
James C. Cowan.
H. Claude Weirman.
John W. Edwards.
John W. Edwards.
William O. Sweeney.
John P. Heinfieldt.
Henry Schlemmer.
Daniel Bottenberg.
Daniel Rider.
Jason E. Bottenberg.
L. H. Edwards.
Daniel E. Kauffman.
Thomas J. Sheehan.
Charles G. Simmers.

LEGAL NOTICE

LEGAL NOTICE—PUBLIC NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given that a petition for a stone road in Monroe township was filed in the auditor's office of Allen county, Indiana, on the 12th day of July, 1936, and the same will be presented to the board of commissioners of Allen county, Indiana, on the 5th day of August, 1936, for a hearing. Which petition is as follows:

State of Indiana, Allen county, ss:
In the Commissioners' Court of Allen county, Indiana.

PETITION.

In re-petition for stone road in Monroe township, known as the Sheehan stone road. To the Honorable Board of Commissioners of the County of Allen and State of Indiana:

We, the undersigned, freeholders and voters of township twenty-nine (29) north, range fifteen (15) east, known as Monroe township, of Allen county, in the state of Indiana, petition your honorable board of commissioners of the county of Allen and state of Indiana, under sections 771 to 773, inclusive, Burns' Revised Statutes, 1905, and all acts amendatory thereto, for the draining, grading and paving of the following described highway in said Monroe township, of Allen county, Indiana, to-wit:

Commencing at the northeast corporate limit of Monroe township, on the section line (29) north, range fifteen (15) east, and running thence north fifteen (15) feet, as follows: Six inches of 24-inch stone, as will pass through a 24-inch sieve; 3 inches of 14-inch stone and 3 inches of gravel used for macadam stone roads.

That the south part of said road shall be and remain a mud road, and that the gravel upon said road shall be taken from the part which is to be stoned and placed on the part which is to remain a mud road; and that this shall be packed so as to make a good, solid road.

That said road shall be drained with tile on both sides of road and that the tile drain shall be placed so as not to interfere with any other public drains now in existence, but no open ditch shall be placed along said road.

That said road, if constructed, will be of public utility and will be a benefit to the people of Monroe township.

That said road, over two-thirds of its length, is a line for the United States rural mail route, and is less than three miles in length and connects a free gravel road of the county with the corporate limits of Monroeville.

Your petitioners further pray of this honorable board of commissioners that for the improvement of said road, bonds be issued by this honorable board of commissioners of the county of Allen and state of Indiana, under the provisions of the above-cited sections, and that such bonds shall be issued in series, payable in not less than ten years, and in the denominations named in the aforesaid act.

Wherefore, your petitioners pray of this honorable board of commissioners of the county of Allen and state of Indiana, to establish a macadam road over said highway, as prayed for in this petition, and under the recommendations made therein, and for all other and further relief in the premises.

Daniel A. Row.
David Martin.
Jonathan Hart.
Henry F. Huchter.
Frank Neadtine.
Horatio S. Jones.
Charles L. Meyer.
Thomas H. Griffith.
Samuel Scott.
James D. McCormick.
James O. Gilbert.
Oliver V. Cowell.
John A. Schach.
Henry E. Steinman.
Guy K. Grubill.
George E. Gintner.
John Goodin.
Louise E. Wright.
Charles J. Smith.
John L. Lomiller.
Elroy C. Lomiller.
Joseph D. Morgan.
Oll Taylor.
Edward M. Johnston.
Daniel Sheehan.
William Erwin.
Simon S. Baker.
D. A. Swartz.
Joseph A. Wherry.
Daniel Sheehan.
Alfred Leuenberger.
Henry Carrier.
Wayne M. Hart.
Oll Taylor.
James M. Hart.
Dan Slattery.
James M. Hart.
John Neadtine.
Joseph Clem.
Curtis O. Reynolds.
Lewis M. Probst.
Reuben Miner.
Harry V. Vizard.
James W. Gilbert.
James C. Cowan.
H. Claude Weirman.
John W. Edwards.
John W. Edwards.
William O. Sweeney.
John P. Heinfieldt.
Henry Schlemmer.
Daniel Bottenberg.
Daniel Rider.
Jason E. Bottenberg.
L. H. Edwards.
Daniel E. Kauffman.
Thomas J. Sheehan.
Charles G. Simmers.

Oliver V. Cowell.
John A. Schach.
Henry E. Steinman.
Guy K. Grubill.
George E. Gintner.
John Goodin.
Louise E. Wright.
Charles J. Smith.
John L. Lomiller.
Elroy C. Lomiller.
Joseph D. Morgan.
Oll Taylor.
Edward M. Johnston.
Daniel Sheehan.
William Erwin.
Simon S. Baker.
D. A. Swartz.
Joseph A. Wherry.
Daniel Sheehan.
Alfred Leuenberger.
Henry Carrier.
Wayne M. Hart.
Oll Taylor.
James M. Hart.
Dan Slattery.
James M. Hart.
John Neadtine.
Joseph Clem.
Curtis O. Reynolds.
Lewis M. Probst.
Reuben Miner.
Harry V. Vizard.
James W. Gilbert.
James C. Cowan.
H. Claude Weirman.
John W. Edwards.
John W. Edwards.
William O. Sweeney.
John P. Heinfieldt.
Henry Schlemmer.
Daniel Bottenberg.
Daniel Rider.
Jason E. Bottenberg.
L. H. Edwards.
Daniel E. Kauffman.
Thomas J. Sheehan.
Charles G. Simmers.

PETITION.

In re-petition for stone road in Monroe township, known as the Sheehan stone road. To the Honorable Board of Commissioners of the County of Allen and State of Indiana:

We, the undersigned, freeholders and voters of township twenty-nine (29) north, range fifteen (15) east, known as Monroe township, of Allen county, in the state of Indiana, petition your honorable board of commissioners of the county of Allen and state of Indiana, under sections 771 to 773, inclusive, Burns' Revised Statutes, 1905, and all acts amendatory thereto, for the draining, grading and paving of the following described highway in said Monroe township, of Allen county, Indiana, to-wit:

Commencing at the northeast corporate limit of Monroe township, on the section line (29) north, range fifteen (15) east, and running thence north fifteen (15) feet, as follows: Six inches of 24-inch stone, as will pass through a 24-inch sieve; 3 inches of 14-inch stone and 3 inches of gravel used for macadam stone roads.

That the south part of said road shall be and remain a mud road, and that the gravel upon said road shall be taken from the part which is to be stoned and placed on the part which is to remain a mud road; and that this shall be packed so as to make a good, solid road.

That said road shall be drained with tile on both sides of road and that the tile drain shall be placed so as not to interfere with any other public drains now in existence, but no open ditch shall be placed along said road.

That said road, if constructed, will be of public utility and will be a benefit to the people of Monroe township.

That said road, over two-thirds of its length, is a line for the United States rural mail route, and is less than three miles in length and connects a free gravel road of the county with the corporate limits of Monroeville.

Your petitioners further pray of this honorable board of commissioners that for the improvement of said road, bonds be issued by this honorable board of commissioners of the county of Allen and state of Indiana, under the provisions of the above-cited sections, and that such bonds shall be issued in series, payable in not less than ten years, and in the denominations named in the aforesaid act.

Wherefore, your petitioners pray of this honorable board of commissioners of the county of Allen and state of Indiana, to establish a macadam road over said highway, as prayed for in this petition, and under the recommendations made therein, and for all other and further relief in the premises.

Daniel A. Row.
David Martin.
Jonathan Hart.
Henry F. Huchter.
Frank Neadtine.
Horatio S. Jones.
Charles L. Meyer.
Thomas H. Griffith.
Samuel Scott.
James D. McCormick.
James O. Gilbert.
Oliver V. Cowell.
John A. Schach.
Henry E. Steinman.
Guy K. Grubill.
George E. Gintner.
John Goodin.
Louise E. Wright.
Charles J. Smith.
John L. Lomiller.
Elroy C. Lomiller.
Joseph D. Morgan.
Oll Taylor.
Edward M. Johnston.
Daniel Sheehan.
William Erwin.
Simon S. Baker.
D. A. Swartz.
Joseph A. Wherry.
Daniel Sheehan.
Alfred Leuenberger.
Henry Carrier.
Wayne M. Hart.
Oll Taylor.
James M. Hart.
Dan Slattery.
James M. Hart.
John Neadtine.
Joseph Clem.
Curtis O. Reynolds.
Lewis M. Probst.
Reuben Miner.
Harry V. Vizard.
James W. Gilbert.
James C. Cowan.
H. Claude Weirman.
John W. Edwards.
John W. Edwards.
William O. Sweeney.
John P. Heinfieldt.
Henry Schlemmer.
Daniel Bottenberg.
Daniel Rider.
Jason E. Bottenberg.
L. H. Edwards.
Daniel E. Kauffman.
Thomas J. Sheehan.
Charles G. Simmers.

WAITER'S TIPS BUY HOTEL.

Clerk Who Believed in Good Nature Makes Success.

Detroit, Mich., July 21.—Word reached here that Manley M. Rice, son of William Rice, has purchased the Hotel Forrest in Oklahoma City with money he saved from tips during his eighteen years as a hotel clerk. Manley, when he first left this town, got a place as hat rack attendant in the Hotel Jefferson, St. Louis. Manley says his smile made him a fortune during the last score of years. His philosophy is embraced in the following statement: "Always look pleasant and have a smile for the guest whether he tips or not. A sneer, a sarcastic word never helps, but always hurts your business. There are plenty of persons in the world opposed to tipping, and if you are a beneficiary of the system you ought to bear this in mind and look and act accordingly. Don't expect tips from the big men. They are too busy with the big affairs to think about the pittance for service."

BRIDE WILL RIDE BURRO.

Rich Young Engineer Sails With Wife for Andes Honeymoon.

New York, July 21.—Claudio Beltran, a young electrical engineer, and his bride, have sailed on the steamer Pastores for San Jose, Costa Rica, where they will commence a ride through the Andes on burros. Beltran, who is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, met his wife when she visited the big power station of his father at San Jose under dramatic circumstances. The young woman was in the high tension room when the engineer, unaware of her presence, threw in the switches. The slightest move of the young woman would have meant instant death. She screamed and Beltran rushed in, reaching her as she fainted.

FOR RENT

Building at 118 W. Wayne street. Long time lease. For particulars call at Sentinel office.

2-17-47

STUDIO SYMPTOMS : By Condo

NEWS NO JURY DUTY BAR.

Judge so Decides in Unique Murder Trial of Four.

Pottsville, Pa., July 21.—Four men, with hands uplifted, undergoing arraignment for murder, was an unusual sight in Judge C. N. Brumm's court room. The defendants are John and Jerome Statts, Charles Bullitts and John Boxites, of New Philadelphia. They were first arrested for assaulting John Yausis, who was believed to be fatally injured, but he recovered. In the meantime, however, Peter Zelenkousis, another man declared to have been injured by the defendants, died, and they are now being tried for his murder. The question of permitting jurors to serve who had read newspapers and formed opinions came up and Judge Brumm declared that every intelligent man nowadays reads newspapers and that it would be impossible to try a murder case if all such men were excluded. He said the only test was whether jurors could decide the case on the evidence alone.

CHAMBERLAIN'S COLIC, CHOLERA AND DIARRHOEA REMEDY.

Mr. W. S. Gunsalus, a Pennsylvania farmer, residing near Fleming, P. O., Pa., says: "For the past fourteen years I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in my family and have found it to be an excellent remedy. I always have a bottle of it in my house and take pleasure in recommending it to my friends." For sale by all dealers.—Adv.

Have The Sentinel follow you while on your vacation. Phone 173. We collect.

SHOP AND RAILROAD NEWS

OVER 1,600 IN EXCURSION PARTY

Pennsylvania Employees and Families Have Annual Outing at Rome City.

WELL KNOWN RAILROAD MAN INJURED

Dayton Jenness Sustains Sprained Ankle—Ed Haas Back With Wabash.

Three special trains this morning carried 1,600 Fort Wayne people to Rome City. The occasion was the annual excursion of the Pennsylvania employees and the attendance was the smallest of the twenty-five or thirty similar events given by the company for the benefit of its employees.

There were three trains of a total of twenty-eight coaches and three baggage cars, leaving the city this morning at 7:40, 7:50 and 8 o'clock respectively. The first one, which carried 730 people, was manned by Conductor R. B. Evans, Engineer Ed Platter, Fireman D. L. Mercer, Brakemen J. S. Cook, D. E. Ahern and O. C. Weinbreuner.

The second train carried 420 people and was in charge of Conductor H. C. Hofheinz, Engineer Emmett Gordon, Fireman W. W. Brown, Brakemen P. O. Boyles, W. C. Mack and J. E. Albright.

The third train carried 450 people and was in charge of Conductor J. E. C. Longene, Engineer John Buckley, Fireman C. H. Gardner, Brakemen H. Randolph, R. Hennig and C. E. Langbrake. The day was ideal for an outing and there were ample accommodations for all. The program announced by the Sentinel a few days ago was carried out to the letter, interest centering in the boat races, the free moving picture show and the free dancing in the new hall, though other features came in for a share of attraction.

As stated this was the smallest of the free excursion parties given to the employees of the Pennsylvania company. A score of years ago the party numbered over 3,000 and filled forty-five coaches, although the number of names on the company's pay rolls at Fort Wayne was considerably less than it is today. The number of people who attend the annual excursion of the Chicago Terminal employees is also decreasing each year. A few years ago the party numbered from 1750 to 1800, while last Saturday the excursion to Mackinac was attended by less than 900 people.

With the party today were a number of people who are not employed by the Pennsylvania. One hundred and seven round trip tickets and fifteen one-way tickets were sold to people who went to the resort on the excursion trains.

BACK ON THE WABASH.

Ed C. Haas is Again a Passenger Agent on Road.

Ed C. Haas is again in the passenger department of the Wabash road and until he is assigned to a regular position, he will act as relief ticket agent over the system. For awhile he will have charge of the ticket office at Lafayette, relieving Reed Johnson, who is sick. Mr. Haas left here May 1 to take employment at Chicago with the Chicago and Northwestern, but resigned after working two months because of the alleged failure of the officials to maintain their part of the contract.

WANT HARVEST HANDS.

A bulletin issued by the St. Paul road and received at the Pennsylvania office this morning, gives the probable number of men needed during the harvest season in Minnesota, Montana and the Dakotas and states that the wages are between $2.50 and $3.50 per day. Harvest commenced in some of the places today.

WORK AGAIN DELAYED.

Important work requiring the services of the crew and one of the big derricks on the Detroit division of the Wabash.

is putting a handicap on the work of placing the slabs over the Fairfield avenue subway. The derrick was called away Saturday and will not be here again until Wednesday morning. In the meantime the other derrick will be doing some lighter work at the subway. Trainmaster C. E. Wells, who was here this morning on business connected with the improvement, said that a part of the subway would be completed and trains running over the completed portion by the latter part of the week.

MACHINISTS VOTING ON GRAND OFFICERS.

This month the members of the International Association of Machinists are taking a referendum vote on officers of the international body. The candidates for president are William Johnson and Thomas Wilson, the former the present president. The ballots must be in, counted and the report of the election forwarded immediately following the last meeting in July of the subcommittee.

ENGINEER JENNESS HURT.

When he stepped off a Pennsylvania train at the depot this morning, Engineer Dayton Jenness had his right ankle badly sprained when the foot alighted on a step and turned under him. He held on to Clinton street where a taxicab called and took him to his home on East Wayne street. Engineer Jenness had been out on the road and came down from the round house on 37's engine on his way home.

BIG CROWD TO LAKES.

Agent Ray Phillips says the Lake Shore carried out of Fort Wayne Saturday and Sunday over 1,400 people, who went to the lakes in the northern part of the state. It was the largest business handled this season. Agent Phillips also said that 275 Fort Wayne people took in the Sunday excursion to Indianapolis yesterday. The train went into Indianapolis with over 400 people aboard.

WILLIAM GARMAN RESUMES WORK

William Garman, a boilermaker, who sustained a bad fracture of the bones of one of his legs and ankles, March 10, 1912, seventeen months ago, when a sheet of boiler metal fell upon him, will resume work in the shop tomorrow morning. He will work for awhile in the ashpan department, where the work is light.

GONE TO THE PACIFIC COAST.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rippe and daughter are en route to the Pacific coast, where they will spend a month. During Mr. Rippe's absence, William Bauder will act as stenographer to T. W. Demarest, Pennsylvania motive power superintendent.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

George Buck resumed work in the testing department of the Electric works this morning, after a week's absence on account of a lame arm.

Frank E. Post, clerk at the office of General Foreman Henry Eisele, at the Wabash shops, left this morning on a ten days' trip through the east.

Ray Hugh has taken employment at the Pennsylvania round house. He was employed there once before, but for a year or more has been in the west.

G. H. P. Halstine, thickener for the Chicago division of the Nickel Plate, entered upon a week's vacation this morning. He will spend it at the lakes.

George Ecker, stenographer for General Car Inspector O. J. Parks, of the Pennsylvania, resumed that duty this morning, after a two weeks' vacation. J. G. A. Littor, who had been serving as special messenger in the Pennsylvania motive power offices for ten months, has been sent back to his former work in the shops.

Elliott Rogers, Wabash storekeeper at Toledo, was in the city this morning to confer with Division Storekeeper C. E. Dale on matters connected with the supplies department.

Charles Peck, clerk for Master Mechanic J. J. Muir, at the Bass works, is improving slowly at the Lutheran hospital. He was operated upon for appendicitis over a week ago.

Agent C. A. Pritchard, of the Nickel Plate, went down to Leipsic Saturday and today returned with his wife and children, who had been visiting there a week.

Thomas S. Fox, assistant trainmaster of the G. R. & I., has completed his summer vacation and resumed his railway

MEN WHO HAVE CHARGE OF WORK AT THE WABASH SHOPS.

The portraits above represent two familiar figures at the Wabash shops. Standing at the left is Henry Eisele, general foreman of the shops, and on the right is Gustav P. Grosh, foreman of the erecting shop. The picture is the result of a "snap shot" made just as their attention was attracted from each other after holding a conversation in the yards over shop matters. These gentlemen have been in the employ of the Wabash many years. Before he assumed the duties of general foreman of the Fort Wayne shops Mr. Eisele was employed in the company's shops at Springfield, Ill. Mr. Grosh has worked in the local shops over twenty years and much of that time he has been foreman of some department.

John Miller, a Wabash yard clerk, entered upon a three weeks' vacation this morning. He will visit all of the leading eastern cities. He spent the past eight days in quiet rest of Rome City with his family.

Oliver Ransdoffer, meter packer at the Fort Wayne Electric works, was taken ill this morning and had to return home. H. B. Hulce, bill clerk at the Electric works, is at work again, after a short illness. Traffic on the G. R. & I. was slightly interrupted yesterday by two cars of a freight train becoming derailed at Wallen. The Pennsylvania wreck crew and outfit went to the scene and cleared the tracks.

C. C. Miller, of the Corrugated Paper company, and family, left this morning for Niagara Falls. Thence they will go into Canada, where business for the paper company will keep Mr. Miller busy several days.

Engineer and Mrs. Philip Titus left this morning for Mackinac on a pleasure trip. Thence they will go to Grand Rapids, where they will remain three months. Engineer Titus is on the Pennsylvania retired list.

John Diers, the moulding maker at the Hinesmith & Simonsen factory, reported for duty this morning. A month ago he was badly hurt by being struck by piece of board thrown out by the machine he was operating.

Lloyd Wallace, salesman, traveling out of Boston for the Fort Wayne Electric works, is here spending a vacation. He spent some time in the testing room and later in the construction department of the company in this city.

John L. Shaw, a truckman at the Pennsylvania round house, who was in the hospital two weeks, suffering from an infected wound and blood poisoning, has left the institution and is now at his home, 1702 Hayden street. He will be able to resume work in a week or two.

Mrs. Charles Young, of 330 Murray street, was taken violently ill at the Pennsylvania depot this morning. She had intended to accompany her husband to Rome City on the employees' excursion, but had to give up the trip and be taken home. Mr. Young is employed in the Pennsylvania freight house.

The Northland limited on the Grand Rapids last night carried three well known Nickel Plate conductors and their wives out of Fort Wayne. They are Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bowman, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Billings and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Meyers and they are bound for Northern Michigan to spend two weeks at the water resorts.

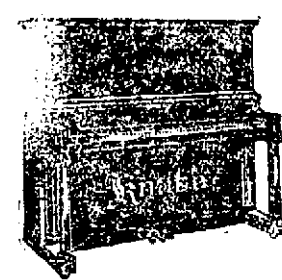

District Passenger Agent W. H. Shorey, of the Wabash, was advised this morning of special rates to be made next Sunday over that line to Toledo, the occasion being the celebration of Perry's victory. There will be no special train, the travelers being carried on the regular train, which leaves the city at 4:15 o'clock in the morning.

DECATUR NEWS.

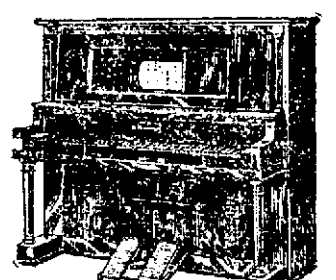

Deatur, Ind., July 21.—Miss Ada Hilton returned to Conroy, Ohio, after a visit with the Fred Hilton family.

Mr. and Mrs. John Christen and son, Ray, Mrs. B. B. Uhl and children, Mary Catherine, Jessie May and Albert, were

Buy Your Piano Tomorrow!

You said you would buy a piano or player-piano some day.

Let Your Some Day Be To-morrow

You cannot afford to wait. Take advantage of the big reduction in prices on standard grade, new, used and sample pianos and player-pianos offered during this sale.

Look at These Bargains

Used Upright Pianos, $40, $60, $85, $125, $147. Slightly used standard 88-note player-pianos, good as new, fully warranted, $300, $345, $385, $400, etc.

Music rolls, bench, scarf and free tuning.

You Can't Afford to Wait

We emphasize again, and remember, you have the world's best makes to select from. Every Piano Standard Grade, Brand New and up to date, embracing Knabe, Kimball, Hallet & Davis Haines Bros., Foster, Whitney, Marshall & Wendell, Hiaze, Armstrong, Etc.

Easy Terms to Responsible Parties

Marttene Piano Co.

917-921 Calhoun Street.

Second Floor

and refused to talk since the death of Dr. McMillen six months ago.

AUBURN NEWS.

Auburn, Ind., July 21.—Charles Leason is spending a few days in Chicago on business.

Mr. Amos Zirwis and family have gone to Illinois for a two weeks' visit among relatives.

Miss Jennie Caldwell, of Bryan, Ok., is visiting her cousin, Mrs. W. W. Swartz and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Grambling, of Baltimore, Maryland, are spending ten days visiting among their many Auburn friends.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. McDonald and daughter, Helen, of Garrett, were visiting friends here Sunday.

Mrs. Herbert Bell, of Garrett, spent Saturday evening with Auburn friends.

Mrs. Charles W. Wagoner was visiting friends at Garrett Friday and Saturday.

A marriage license was issued Saturday afternoon to Lee Sharp, age 21, and Miss Mary Burkhardt, age 21, both residents of Troy township.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Willenar returned yesterday from an extended eastern trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hill and daughter, Corunna, spend Sunday with Auburn friends.

Mr. M. L. Sweeney, of Garrett, was calling on friends here Sunday.

Mrs. Bessie Marks and Miss Ruth Zimmerman, of Garrett, were visiting here last evening.

Col. A. L. Moudy and family, of Waterloo, were calling on Auburn friends Sunday. Col. Moudy expects to leave Monday for Fort Benjamin Harrison, where the National Guards will hold their encampment.

The base ball game played here Sunday between the Auburn Athletics and the well known city team was won by the visitors by a score of 7 to 6. The game was not very exciting as there were many errors by both sides and it would be a difficult matter to decide which is the better team, for this game was not one to judge by. Auburn was ahead until the last half of the seventh when they had an error to their credit by missing a ball at first base which landed the batter safe at first and left all the other bases full. Two of these then scored, which placed Columbus City ahead. This is the first game Auburn has lost this season. McCombs pitched the first half of the game for Auburn and Rainer finished. There was a large crowd attending the game and many were out of town people.

ROANOKE NEWS

The scheduled meeting of the school board failed to materialize and the teachers for the coming year have not all been selected.

Chester Coe and Bert Spohnhauer left here Saturday night for South Dakota, where they will work on a threshing machine. They have made the trip several times and are employed at the same place each year.

J. C. Adair, of Fort Wayne, has purchased Carter's shoe store and is in possession of the business. Mr. Adair is an experienced shoe man and comes highly recommended. Mr. Carter is now representing the Donivan Shoe company, of Indianapolis and commenced work today.

John Miller and wife returned home today after a short visit with their son who lives in Peru.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Longsdorf are spending the week at North Jackson where they are visiting their daughter, Mrs. H. G. Scott.

Charles Young is enjoying a week's vacation from E. E. Richards and Sons' delivery wagon duties.

Scott Douglass and family Sundayed at the home of Mr. J. P. Smith, of Fort Wayne.

James Mowery and family, of near Osage, are visiting at the home of Mrs. Hatfield. Mr. Mowery formerly lived here.

The Roanoke White Sox defeated the Tigers, of Fort Wayne, in an interesting ball game by a score of 4 to 2. The Tigers were a fine set of young men and played fine ball. Showalter, who pitched for Roanoke, struck out eight men and allowed eight hits. He did remarkably well considering this his first game, and for a southpaw his control was fine.

The change in the managers of the Knitting mills is on today, and many persons are interested in the change as it has been rumored that on account of the shortage of girls the mill would have to close down. Prospects are now better for a return of a goodly number of girls. The new manager is Mr. Davidson, of Fort Wayne.

TRANSFERS OF REAL ESTATE

Compiled by Miller & Thompson, Abstractors, 225 Court Street, City.

Geo. J. Nichols to Mary Louise Van Buskirk lots 500 and 510, 150 and 161, Drexel Park, $600.

Louisa Dumas to Tillman C. and Edna Young lot 16, J. Dalman, $600.

Gen. W. and Mary E. Stover to Henry F. Franz lot 6, Kuhn and Heaton, $3,300.

Win. and Mary Doty to Kenneth W. Countryman lot 10, Mechanicsburg, $3,000.

Peoples Trust and Sav. Co. to Catherine Suelzer lot 48, Schels Homestead, $400.

Thos. Barber to Thomas E. Kling lot 24, Bond and Brand, $250.

Augusta Wolf to Genevieve Kruse 50x 145 ft. w of e 25 ft. w of Nelson's add, $2,500.

Ella R. Willard to Mary C. Willard outlot 109, Abbott's O. L., $100.

Pontiac Place Co. to Minnie L. and Emma A. Meyer lot 458, Pontiac Place, $675.

Pontiac Place Co. to Minnie L. Meyer lot 477, Pontiac Place, $675.

Pontiac Place Co. to Emma Meyer lot 456 Pontiac Place, $675.

Henry C. Hadley to Frederick Laner lot 28, Bird's partition, $600.

Frank Ragsdale to Henry C. and Loretta M. Hadley w 1/2 lot 150, E. Hanna, $500.

Louise M. and Aug. Franke to Daisy L. Kirk lot 1, Grand Boulevard, $400.

Wm. L. Burdick to Minnie Skirk lot 7, Burdick, $2,500.

Wm. L. Burdick to Minnie Skirk lot 6, Burdick.

Peoples Tr. and Sav. Co. to James C. Sherwood lot 181, Olddale, $85.

Ward Wilt has purchased the home of William F. Peters in Forest Park boulevard.

Mrs. Charles Eggeman, residing nine miles west of the city, submitted to an operation for tumor at the Lutheran hospital yesterday, and her condition is somewhat improved today.

BRYAN MAY COME LATER.

Secretary of State Has Talk With Committee From Fort Wayne.

Expressing keen regret that he will be unable to visit Fort Wayne during his present trip, Secretary of State William J. Bryan, who spent Sunday at Winona, informed the Fort Wayne committee that he will return to Winona August 22, and at that time may make arrangements to stop over in Fort Wayne for an address. Mr. Bryan had a lengthy talk with Judge Samuel M. Hinch and Maurice C. Niezer, of this city.

Leaving Winona, Mr. Bryan went to Plymouth, for an address, and will spend several days in Iowa this week on a speaking tour. He expressed much satisfaction over affairs at Winona and said that as president of its board of directors, he hopes to see Winona one of the best places of its kind in the entire country.

Will NOT SURVIVE INJURIES.

Dr. W. H. Upjohn, Lafayette, Fatally Hurt in Crashing Auto.

Lafayette, Ind., July 21.—Dr. W. H. Upjohn, 50 years old, a dentist of this city, was last night fatally injured in an automobile accident. He was cracking his machine and did not know that the machine was in gear. The car started and Dr. Upjohn was thrown to the pavement, both wheels passing over his chest and neck. He was picked up unconscious, and taken to St. Elizabeth's hospital, where it was found that his spine was badly injured. The injury caused paralysis of his legs and arms.

Mrs. Upjohn and daughter were in the automobile when the accident occurred, and advanced to the rate two who succeeded in stopping the car after it had run 100 feet.

DIAMONDS

You can buy a Diamond on weekly or monthly payments on a small payment down.

Wartell, Cut-Rate Jeweler, 1319 Calhoun St. 2-11-12

MONEY LOANED AT LEGAL RATE

We have given a bond and have a license to loan money according to recent law enacted by the Indiana legislature of 1913.

We give you a written statement to this effect. All loans will be made strictly to the requirements of the law. No one need be without money at the rate we will hereafter loan money. We pay off loans with other companies that you need.

Furniture, pianos, horses, wagons or your positions security.

PEOPLE'S LOAN CO.

718 Calhoun St. Sidel Block, Room 6, 2nd Floor. Phone 1772.

White Shoes for Men

Just arrived new styles in white buck and canvas with rubber or leather soles.

English models. Regular $3.50 to $6.00 values for

$2.95

Pay part of your vacation expenses with the money you save

Simon's Sample Shoe Shop

"The Shoe Store In the Air" 5th Floor Shoaff Building "The Shoe Store In the Air"

EAD BITTEN OFF; DEMANDS $2,000

John Moora Says Saloom
Ade Chewed Up Auricu-lar Appendage.

NEWS OF THE COURTS

John Moora says that on July 6 last Saloom Ade chewed off one of the plaintiff's ears, causing him great pain, anguish and agony, subjecting him to much expense by reason of medical attendance and disfiguring him for life. Moora, in a suit filed in the circuit court today by his attorney, Ryan and Abdrich, sets forth these things and demands $2,000 for the disfigurement.

As an interesting supplement to this suit the same attorneys file another case for Moora against Ade and the First National bank of Fort Wayne demanding $1,500. In this suit it is alleged that Ade deposited in the bank to his own account $1,500 which should have been deposited as the joint account of Moora and Ade. Of this sum Moora claims $1,200 belongs to him and the suit is instituted to recover it.

Left Him Five Times and Returned.
In a divorce suit filed today in the superior court, Nellie Hensinger says that six months ago she married George F. Hensinger, seven years ago associated with other men and kept up the charge until they separated, which was today. She says he constantly nagged her with his suspicions and accusations of infidelity and that on the different occasions when she could bear it no longer she left him, but that each time he persuaded her to return, promising to mend his behavior to her. He also says he did not provide and that in order to procure sufficient food and clothing she was obliged to go out and work. The complaint sets forth that she is in great fear of bodily harm from her husband and believes if he gets a chance he will sell her household belongings and she seeks an order of court to keep him away from the flat they have occupied at 223 East Main street and also an order to restrain the City and Suburban Realty company from paying him his wages. She demands $100 alimony.

Short-Lived Bliss.
Marie Hizer wants a divorce after living since April 2 last as the wife of Jefferson C. Hizer. She says he is vile, abusive and the possessor of a violent temper, and gets drunk and threatens her bodily harm. Judge Yapple, in the superior court, today issued an order to enjoin Hizer from molesting his wife and another to prevent the Pennsylvania railroad from paying him his wages. Alimony of $500 is demanded. Mrs. Hizer wants her maiden name of Marie Meyer restored.

Grabbed School Board Wins.
Judge Yapple, in the superior court, today rendered a judgment for the plaintiff in the case of the school board of Grubbs against the auditor and treasurer of Allen county to prevent the payment of Cedar Creek township's share of the state school funds until the town's right could be ascertained. An injunction was dissolved and the funds will be divided according to school enumeration.

NOTES OF THE COURTS.
Frank B. Pranger has commenced suit in the circuit court to foreclose a mechanic's lien against John R. Hartzell and his wife. The demand is $338.
Byron Arnold has filed a divorce suit in the superior court against Della Arnold, setting out in his complaint that he married her in 1904 and that she deserted him five years ago.
Benjamin Wartell, a jeweler, has filed a complaint in the superior court to recover $25 damages from Ralph W. Thompson.

Jacob K. Keller has commenced suit in the superior court against David H. Galoway to foreclose a mechanic's lien for $60.
In the superior court Fred Bade has commenced a suit to quiet title to real estate against William Whitmore.
The Klinker ditch, in Jackson township, will be constructed by W. W. Ansach, to whom the contract has been awarded by County Surveyor Guenther. The ditch is 9,000 feet long and will cost $2,200.
The county commissioners today authorized the transfer of John E. Hartzell's saloon license to J. L. McKee. The matter has been held up for some time.

ADDITIONAL SOCIETY.

Mrs. L. F. Diehl and daughter Roma have gone to Spencer, O., to visit for several weeks with Mr. Diehl's family. Mr. Diehl will join his family the first of August for two weeks.
Miss Marie Miller, of Highland avenue, is visiting Miss Gladys Gandy at Clear Mrs. at the Bradley cottage.
Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Barry have returned from an eastern trip. Mrs. Barry was visiting in Rome while Mr. Barry was east on business.
Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Jones, of Gay street, have returned from Uniontown, Pa., where they visited for two weeks.
Mrs. C. E. McKeehan and daughters, Misses Ethel, Mary and Alice, of South Calhoun street, left this morning for Camp Lake, Mich., to remain until the first of September.

COAL PILE STILL BURNS.

Spontaneous Combustion Starts Blaze at Gas Company's Yards.
Fire which is smoldering in the interior of a huge pile of coal at the yards of the Indiana Lighting company along the Nickel Plate tracks at Clinton street is still burning and the fire department is attempting to reach the seat of the trouble by tonight. It is believed that the fire started several days ago from spontaneous combustion. A force of sinners has been at work all day on the coal. A thin column of smoke, steam and poisonous gases is emerging from the coal and spreading about the vicinity of the coal yards. Aside from the loss to the Gas company, no damage is expected.

LICENSED TO WED.

Ray O'Neal, laborer, 21, and Jessie G. Prather, 18.
Harry R. Clapham, switchman, 24, and Susan Poltz, 26.

IN THE CHURCHES TO HOLD PICNIC AT ROBISON PARK

Local Christian Endeavor
Union Will Give Bus Party.

NEXT FRIDAY NIGHT

Members of Christian Endeavor societies of the churches of the city are planning to have a merry time Friday night. The local union is to hold an auto bus party at Robison park, and two hundred people are expected to go out in the trucks. William H. Rahe, chairman of the conveyance committee, has engaged six trucks and it is probable that more will be necessary. However, some of the picnickers will go out on their own cars.

The start will be made at 7:30 o'clock from the Plymouth Congregational church, and the time of leaving the park has not been set, but the return trip will be made in time to meet at least the last cars at the transfer corner.
All sorts of games and amusements have been provided by the arrangements committee, and a splendid time is promised for all who attend. Members of the committee, which arranged the event are as follows: Miss Beatrice McCormick, chairman; Miss Ruby Johnson, Miss Jessie Parry, George Shiffer, Miss Maude Challenger, Miss Elsie Hooping-garner, Miss Augusta Winkler, Miss Dora Wheeler, Miss Helen Dowdell and Mrs. John Byrner.

Doings in Church Circles.
The Ladies Aid society of the Bethany Presbyterian church will hold an ice cream social at Swinney park Tuesday night.

Rev. H. F. Joseph Kroll, who is engaged in raising the extension fund of the Fort Wayne diocesan Aid society, gave a talk at St. Patrick's church, Lager on Sunday, in behalf of the society. He will explain the work of the society to the congregation of St. Peter's Catholic church on Sunday, Aug. 3.

Rev. B. H. C. P. S. assistant at the Precious Blood church, has gone to Carthage, Ohio, for the annual retreat of the Fathers of the Precious Blood, which starts tonight. The spiritual exercises are to be held at the mother house of the community, St. Charles seminary.

Camp Fire Girls Picnic.

The Miami Camp Fire, an organization of girls of the Y. W. C. A., went to Robison park at 3 o'clock this afternoon for a picnic and outing. This is the first social meeting of the girls, but a series of entertainments and picnics are to be given from now on. The girls at the park today were in the charge of Miss Ruth Melin, physical director of the Y. W. C. A., who is also leader of Camp Fire meetings.

To Hold Annual Picnic.

St. John's Evangelical Lutheran church, of Lake township, will hold its annual picnic Sunday afternoon, July 27, in Andrew Lamm's grove, one quarter mile north of the church. There will be amusements and refreshments and games of all kinds, and the music will be furnished by the Robinson chapel band.

THIRTEEN TAKE VOWS.

Enter Novitiate of Poor Handmaids at St. Joseph's Hospital.
Passing the probationary period required of postulants of the vows of the Poor Handmaids of Jesus Christ, thirteen young women received investiture of the habit and veil of the order at solemn high mass at St. Joseph's hospital Saturday. Relatives and friends of the novices and community members attended the important ceremony.

Those who took the vows are as follows: Miss Gertrude Lechtenberg, Geltschick, Germany, to be known as Sister M. Moltewitz; Miss Mary E. Chicago, Sister M. Carmella; Miss Johanna Scantling, Fort Wayne, Sister M. Virginia; Miss Mary Wambach, Fort Wayne, Sister M. Gaila; Miss Gertrude Lebie, Apple Creek, Mo., Sister M. Cornelia; Miss Agnes Schmitz, Cologne, Minn., Sister M. Flavia; Miss Gertrude Schmitz, Cologne, Minn., Sister M. Alvarina; Miss Catherine Ebert, Chicago, Sister M. Ambrose; Miss Frances Pionkowski, Chicago, Sister M. Clara; Miss Stella Janet, Besenon, Sister M. Williamina; Miss Rosa Reuther, Chicago, Sister M. Benita; Miss Josephine Bergmann, Bartels, Ill., Sister M. Betina; Miss Mary Schenck, Geltschick, Germany, Sister M. Rigmata.
Rev. Thomas Elsenring, C. P. S., chairman at St. Joseph's hospital, celebrated solemn high mass and also officiated at the reception and investiture of the novices.

RUNAWAY TEAM TEAR DOWN POLE

Electric Light and Telephone Wires Put Out of Commission.

One of the teams belonging to the Brown Trucking company and drawing one of its heavy wagons, became frightened this morning at Wallace and Hanna streets while the driver was telephoning from the Boss Glove factory and ran west, colliding with a pole at Lafayette street.

There were some high voltage wires on the pole and some of the city lighting wires and was snapped off, leaving the cross arms and the top of the pole suspended by the network of wires. Although the team ran through a busy street it did not strike anything but the pole.

The companies went to work at once repairing the damage, and late this afternoon a new pole had been set and the men were finishing up the work of stringing the wires. Although there were some high voltage wires on the pole nothing was burned out so far as the company line force had heard of.

San Francisco is considering an electric curfew. The scheme is to have the electric lights all over the city give a signal at 9 o'clock, after which all children must be off the streets.

Plans for standardizing the gauge of the railways of Australia are recommended by the chief engineers of the different lines be carried out it will mean an expenditure of $180,000,000.

An instrument in the weather bureau at Washington records every lightning flash within 100 miles.

ENTRANTS DELAY PLAY AT COURTS

Out-of-Town Tennis Players Did Not Get in
This Morning.

OPEN IN AFTERNOON

Late arrivals of the entrants in the Northern Indiana Tennis tournament delayed the start scheduled for 9 o'clock this morning at the Fort Wayne Country club courts and none of the matches in the first round were played until this afternoon.

In the first round the following men received byes: Schwitters, Englefield, Gawwin, Hamilton, Porter, Baldwin, Oils, Vickers, Trask, Bond, Lester, Winch, Humes, Barrett, Hibben, Orme, Gooder, J. Hoffman, Zimmerman, Shively, J. Miller, Fisher, Dr. Beall, O'Rourke, Gibbon, Willson, McCulloch, Robertson, McMurtie. The following matches were played Wagonette and Ed Hoffman, Nokes and Desires, Gooder and Warner.

Chairman Fred Hoffman, of the Tennis committee, received telegrams during the forenoon announcing that players who had entered in the doubles and singles had been delayed and could not reach the city in time and some postponements were necessary to accommodate them.

Early this afternoon the tournament drew a big crowd to the Country club links and the play was watched by nearly all of the tennis enthusiasts in Fort Wayne. The full entry list in the men's singles and doubles compiled by the committee after the last were received on Saturday night is as follows:

Fort Wayne—George R. Gawwin, Miles F. Porter, Jr., R. L. Fisher, J. Ewing Bond, Robert Winch, Robert Wagonette, Dr. Charles Beall, Zuckers, W. A. Barrett, J. C. Hoffman, Schwieters, E. G. Hoffman, Diserens and Ross McCulloch.

Indianapolis—Trask, John Eaglesfield, Thomas Hibben, C. D. Humes, Gibbon and Hume Orme.

Chicago—R. C. Lester, R. M. Hamilton, Ron Gooder and Les Gooder.
Marion—B. B. Shively, McMurtie, M. W. Madison and Thomas Nokes.
E. C. Olds, New York E. M. Wilson, St. Paul, V. L. Robertson, Wabash; Herbert B. Warner, South Bend; R. E. Zimmerman, Mishawaka.

BABY GIRL ENDS 25-YEAR OLD TIE

Fathers Even in Every Race from Birth Until Doctor is Called

TO COME WITH STORK

New York, July 21.—James Dempsey and William Koenig were born twenty-five years ago, and since their childhood they have lived in adjoining apartments, at No. 27 Lawrence street, Harlem. They played and fought together, went through the same school in the same class together, belong to the same athletic club and ran in the same races.

The only things in which they ever differed were that they ran 100-yard dashes against each other, always in a tie, and the incident that occurred the other night.

More than a year ago, on the same outing, each young man became engaged to marry a girl. They were married in St. Joseph's church, in 125th street, on the same day, April 12, last year. They continued to live in the same house with increasing happiness.

Koenig called for a physician at 7 o'clock the other evening. He also sent for a nurse and he whispered to Dempsey that tidings of great joy were to issue soon from his household.

"Is that so?" said Dempsey. "Well, this is no 100-yard dash, but I never yet saw a Dutchman that could beat an Irishman. When you're through with the doctor, send him in!"

The physician and the nurse were awaiting developments in the Koenig home, when there was a loud call from across the hall. They ran into Dempsey's rooms and soon there was a fine little Miss Dempsey in the world. A few minutes later there was a Master Koenig. The Irish had won.

BILLIONS YEARLY GO FOR "MOVIES"

Eighty Millions Invested in Motion Shows in This Country.

200,000 ARE EMPLOYED

New York, July 21.—Chairman Frank A. Tilden, of the First International Exhibition of the Moving Picture Arts, held at Grand Central Palace, completed tabulating moving picture statistics, which show that $380,000,000 nickels are paid yearly by 3,000,000,000 persons who love the "movie" shows.

The figures, which are the first official ones ever prepared in this country, are expected to create considerable interest not alone among moving picture men, but the public at large. The figures show that $310,000,000 was received in quarters, dimes and nickels; that $90,000,000 is invested in the industry; that more than 200,000 persons are employed, and that 10,000,000 feet of picture films are produced weekly.

The statistics show a decrease in saloon licenses in some of the smaller cities, which is attributed to the wage earners' money going to the "movies," instead of "the poor man's club." The statistics will be illustrated by a moving picture called "The Shrinking Benjamin," in which a monster demogog is much by means of trick photography to decrease in size, while at the same time a moving picture theater grows from a toy size to normal proportions.

KERR MURRAY WORKS BOUGHT

First National Buys It for $93,500 for Three National Banks.

MAY BE AGAIN OPENED

Pursuant to orders of the court the Tri State Loan and Trust company, as receiver, today sold the works of the Kerr Murray Manufacturing company. The property was purchased by the First National bank for $93,500.

The sale includes the real estate, buildings, patterns, drawings, machinery, tools, fixtures and all other personal property of the concern excepting notes and accounts and material on hand, or in process of manufacture.

An additional bid of $10,000 was made by the First National for such materials as are on hand or in process.

The future of the property is not well defined, but it is probable that the purchasers will undertake to reopen it and make it once more a going concern.

The three banks interested in the purchase were heavy creditors of the company, whose affairs have been in the courts since last winter, when a receivership was established.

Recently special Judge Sol A. Wood, in the circuit court, ordered the property sold and appointed E. W. Cook, O. C. Thwing and Ralph W. Magee appraisers of the property. The price of $93,500 represents two-thirds of the appraised value of the property.

Other creditors of the concern will receive their proportion of the proceeds of the sale.

This afternoon Judge Wood is hearing arguments on a motion by the United States Construction company of New Jersey to transfer the suits of the Kerr Murray company to the United States court.

THE DEATHS.

MEYER.
Diedrich Meyer, aged sixty-nine years, a retired Madison township farmer, died Saturday at Highland. Death was due to apoplexy, following a stroke suffered Friday afternoon while he was engaged in plowing a field of potatoes for a neighbor.

He was born in Germany April 18, 1844, and came with his parents to this country in 1847. They settled on an eighty-acre farm in Madison township and he lived in Allen county continuously since that time. He was a prominent member of the German Lutheran church of Madison township. A few years ago he disposed of his farm land and bought property in Highland, expecting to lead a retired life.

Surviving he leaves the widow and four daughters—Mrs. Emma Reuker, Mrs. Sophie Selking, Mrs. Wilhelmina Selking and Mrs. Lizzie Hulman. He also leaves nineteen grandchildren and the following brothers and sisters: William and Frederick Meyer, of Staplehurst, Neb.; Mrs. Wilhelmina Hockmeyer, of Gar Creek, and Mrs. Caroline Franke, of Madison township.

Funeral services, Tuesday afternoon at 1 o'clock from the residence and at 2 o'clock from the German Lutheran church in Madison township, Rev. Hassold officiating.

CAMPBELL

William W. Campbell, of Muncie, a retired wholesale meat dealer, died at the Lutheran hospital at the age of seventy-eight years. He had been a patient at the hospital for the last three weeks. Mr. Campbell had been making his home with a daughter, Mrs. G. C. Hall, who lives at the corner of Lewis and Lafayette street.

The remains will be shipped to Muncie for funeral services and interment.

Mr. Campbell had resided in Fort Wayne for periods of several months. A time for the death of the young man was born and reared at Boston, Mass., but had been engaged in business at Muncie for fifty years and was widely known there. Surviving besides the daughter in this city is one son, A. H. Campbell, at Muncie, and the following brothers and sisters: John and Ervin Campbell, Mrs. Eliza Willard and Mrs. Louise Caulkins, all of Boston.

MAINS.

Harry Cleo Mains, aged thirty-nine years, a salesman for the G. E. Burley company, died at 7:30 o'clock this morning at the Lutheran hospital where he had been removed last Friday. Death was due to complications.

Mr. Mains was born at Findlay, O., in 1873, and spent his younger years in that place. He came to Fort Wayne some time ago and had been one of the well known road men for the local wholesale grocery house. He was a member of the United Commercial Travelers No. 212, and of Wayne lodge No. 25, F. & A. M.

Surviving besides the widow he leaves his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Mains, of Willoughby, O., three brothers and a sister—Frank I. Mains, of Durand, Mich.; Arthur E. Mains and Burt G. Mains, of Fort Wayne, and Mrs. Stanley McMichael, of Willoughby, O.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence, 1826 South Harrison street, and at 2:30 o'clock from the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church under the auspices of the Masonic lodge.

DENNY.

Elinor Denny, aged one year and four months, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Christian Denny, of 1317 Michigan avenue, died at 4 o'clock Sunday morning. Death was due to complications. Funeral Tuesday at Zanesville.

FUNERAL NOTICES.

Fox.—Funeral services for Mrs. Catharine Fox Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence, 323 West Fourth street, Rev. T. M. Hill officiating. Interment at Lindenwood.

Collins.—Funeral services for Albert Collins Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock from the Klachin & Melching undertaking parlors. Interment at the Oak Grove cemetery five miles west of the city.

Nearly $100,000,000 has been spent within a few months on new buildings in New York.

IF IT'S HERE IT'S WORTHY.

RURODE'S

July Sale Offerings

AT HALF PRICE

IF IT'S WORTHY,
IT'S HERE
FIRST.

This, the third week of the July Sale, presents still greater saving opportunities. For your convenience, we are grouping in this advertisement a splendid collection of present necessities, that have been reduced Fifty Per Cent. This reduction is not made because these articles are less desirable than those less drastically cut, but because we need the room for the new arrivals, and because in some instances the stock has been reduced to such a point that a complete showing can not be made.

WOOL DRESSES Stylish, handsomely tailored, artistically trimmed dresses, of dark materials. A full line. Regular price $15 to $30. Now Half Price.	LINEN SUITS A wide selection of nicely tailored suits in the best styles. Various shades of high grade imported linen. Regular price $10 to $25. Now Half Price	Women's Bathing Suits You may see these on display in our Calhoun Street Window. The best of the season's styles are represented. Half Price
Children's Dresses Dainty, well made, nicely finished frocks for the little folks. All materials suitable for all purposes. Half Price	BOYS' HATS Various shapes, nicely trimmed and just the thing for the warm weather. Half Price	Wayne Knit Hosiery Misses' and Women's sizes, in white, black and a wide variety of colors. New stock. Half Price.

CURTAIN MATERIAL Remnants of fine Net, Madras and other material, in plain white or ecru, embracing the best we ever had. Half Price	LACE CURTAINS Single pairs and odd curtains of every kind of lace, all new this season and all of the best grade. Half Price	LINOLEUM A collection of remnants of splendid quality in the most desirable patterns; inkaid and printed. Half Price
NOVELTY COTTON SUITING Half Price	PRINTED COTTON CHALLIE Half Price	PRINTED LAWN Half Price.
COTTON FOULARDS Half Price.	DIMITIES Half Price.

SPECIAL

A most beautiful Dress Fabric and a collection of superb Voile Dress Patterns, are included in the sale this week. The reductions on these are not half price in every instance, but they are very close to it. You should see these at once, for you may need something of this kind.

EMBROIDERED BATISTE A very fine quality of Batiste with the best of machine embroidery. Colors maize, white, rose, pearl, Alice, navy and tan. 38 inches wide. Regular price up to 75c a yard 39c	VOILE DRESS PATTERNS These are of the finest Voile, in black, white, tan and gray, with fancy borders of contrasting colors. One particularly fine black has Turquoise border 28 inches deep; formerly $6 to $10, ... $3.50, $4.00, $5.50.
--	--

WEED CASES TO COME AT ONCE

Arrests by Order of the Board of Health Are in Process.

THE MUNICIPAL NEWS

Forty-five affidavits were filed by Dr. Eric Crull, city health commissioner, today pursuant to orders by the board of health that persons who have violated the order to cut weeds on their property be arrested and brought into the city court.

Police men of the health department are today making a final inspection of the premises involved in the cases in order to be prepared to present testimony. It is probable that a number of persons will be arrested and ordered to be present in court tomorrow morning and by Wednesday it is believed a heavy docket will be ready for Judge Mangovian's attention.

The health department is reluctant to take this course and is skeptical of the benefit, but the law leaves no alternative.

Altogether something like one hundred and fifty affidavits will be filed for violation of the weed ordinance.

PARK BOARD MEETING.

Approves Plans for the Widening of Anthony Boulevard.

At the regular meeting of the park board today plans for widening of Anthony boulevard from Lake avenue to State boulevard were approved and the order was made for the preparation of the primary assessment rolls. A hearing was given on boulevard resolution No. 4, which contemplates this improvement, and there was no remonstrance from any source.

The board decided that the old electric light tower removed from the Highland school shall be placed at the south of the island in the lake in Reservation park. It was at first thought that the placing of the tower on the island might interfere with the construction of the proposed bathing pool the selected site for which is the island. It is found that it will not interfere.

A backdrop for the baseball diamond at Foster park was ordered and will be built at once.
The board was advised that the new boiler for the city greenhouses in Lawton park is now being installed.

CASE OF SCARLET FEVER.

The first case of scarlet fever reported since June 9th was reported to the city health office today. The patient is at the home of John B. Mills, 523 Home avenue.

MAYOR NAMES DELEGATES

Mayor Grace today appointed Charles J. Skitsis, secretary of the park board, a delegate to represent the city at the annual convention of the League of American municipalities at Winnipeg, Minn., next month, and selected Messrs. O. N. Gullin and A. A. Boyser delegates to attend an anti-smoke nuisance convention at Pittsburgh next month.

CITY HALL NOTES.

Miss Sylvia Shively, the visiting nurse employed by the Anti-Tuberculosis society, is still absent from the city attending a brother who is ill.
Dr. Eric Crull, city health commissioner, is walking easy on one foot, having strained a leg while showing his son the mysteries of the feat of treading water upside down. Rome City was the scene of the performance.
Dr. George Gillie is still making an inspection of the restaurants and other eating houses in the city and finds conditions in most cases up to grade, but there has been a falling off in some of them.

WILSON STILL CONFIDENT.

President Expects Early Legislation on Currency.
Washington, July 21.—President Wilson still is confident that currency legislation can be enacted at the present session of congress. He told visitors at the white house today that the delay in the currency bill has encountered was nothing more than he had expected because of the importance of the subject and the length of time required to frame a proper measure.

HAD SUFFERED REVERSES.

Thomas Reed, former Big Brick Manufacturer, Dies at Petersburg.
Petersburg, Ind., July 21.—Thomas Reed, aged 62, for many years one of the largest brick manufacturers in this part of the state, owning plants at Petersburg, Princeton and Mt. Carmel, died last night. In recent years he had suffered business reverses and at the time of his death most of his wealth was gone.

THE WOMAN'S LOYAL MOOSE CIRCLE WILL give a public pedro party Wednesday afternoon at the hall, corner of Washington boulevard and Calhoun street.

Degree of Honor No. 2 will give an ice cream social and pedro party Thursday at the home of Mrs. Bundy, 3203 South Calhoun street.
Philadelphia has 547 vacant lots under cultivation by poor families.

ADMITTS THEFT OF $22,000.

17-Year Old Express Wagon Driver Makes Confession.
Lake Charles, La., July 21.—Herschel Pierce, a 17-year-old express wagon driver, confessed today that he stole $22,000 in currency from a Wells Fargo express in a railroad station here last November, according to the police. His arrest came as the sequel to the apprehension of his uncle, A. E. Amy, on Saturday.
The police said Pierce told them he had no assistance in planning or executing the robbery, and that voluntarily he divided the currency with his uncle. It was Amy's lavish spending that first directed suspicion to him. Pierce appeared to have spent almost nothing of his share.
He had offered today to a cache of $2,000 and $2,500 was found in Amy's garage at Eunice, La.

NEW YORK STOCK LIST.

Last Sales.
New York, July 21.
Amalg. Copper 33 1/2

Children's Evidence May Send Own Father to Gallows for Murder of Their Mother.

LOWER LEFT—L. A. LARSEN, MAN CHARGED WITH KILLING HIS WIFE, AND HIS TWO CHILDREN, LUELLA, 17, AND CYRUS, 12, WHOSE EVIDENCE MAY HELP SEND HIM TO THE GALLOWS.

Los Angeles, Cal., July 15. A son and daughter may put the hangman's noose around their father's neck, for the murder of their mother. They are Luella, 17-year-old daughter, and Cyrus, 12-year-old son of A. L. Larsen, accused of murdering his wife in the hills near Casa Verdugo, a suburb of this city.

"Good-bye, Luella. If I am ever murdered, remember it will be your father who killed me. Don't let him escape." These were the last words spoken by turned but mother wasn't there. When I asked him where she was he said that she had gone to San Francisco. I told him that I didn't believe him.

"We didn't tell you kids," he explained, "because we didn't want you bawling around to go with her."

"But why would she go to San Francisco without changing her clothes and taking other garments and money?" I asked.

"Oh, I gave her plenty of money and she will buy clothes when she gets there," he answered.

"Then he said we would all go to San Francisco in a couple of weeks and meet mother."

Mrs. Larson was beaten to death with a beer bottle. The crime is one of the most brutal ever perpetrated in this city.

Near the body was found a receipt bearing Larson's signature and he has been identified by a number of people in that neighborhood as the man they saw going into the hills with a woman. In his locker at the barber shop where he worked was found the watch which his wife wore the day she was killed.

Police maintain that Larson killed his wife because he was in love with another woman. A woman frequently called him on the telephone at the shop and once called for him in person.

MYSTERY OUT OF TITANIC TRAGEDY

Three Daniel Buckleys and Two Catherine Buckleys Put in Appearance.

ONE AN IMBECILE

New York, July 21. A story of a "mystery" involving a double coincidence, has come to light through the investigations which were made into the Titanic survivors' claims by the Red Cross emergency relief committee of the Charity Organization society. The business of the committee, which was headed by Robert W. De Forest and had J. P. Morgan, Jr., J. H. Schiff and many prominent New Yorkers on it, was to distribute the fund of $357,000 among the needy American survivors of the iceberg-sunk White Star steamship, or to the deserving American relatives of those who were lost. The English victims and survivors were taken care of out of British-raised funds amounting to $2,500,000.

One of the survivors of the Titanic was an Irish boy, Daniel Buckley. He got away in the boat in which Mrs. Astor was a passenger. The crew was of a mind to pitch him overboard, but Mrs. Astor saved him by throwing a cloak over him that made him look like a girl. Young Buckley now lives with relatives in the Bronx.

Daniel Buckley No. 2. One of the early applicants to the De Forest committee for relief was a lad who said that he was Daniel Buckley. He was well dressed, and he had a mourning band on his arm, a rosette of crepe on his hat and a large black ribbon hung from a button hole.

Yes, he said, he was Daniel Buckley—so the story is told by Arthur P. Kellogg, of the Charity Organization society; his home was at No. 19 High street, Chester, England; his father had been dead a long time, and when his mother died, late in 1911, he decided, having no other relatives in England, that he and his sister Catherine would come to America. They sailed on the Titanic, and he was saved while his sister was lost.

The claimant described minutely his sister Catherine and her clothing. She wore a thin gold chain around her neck with a gold sovereign, with the initials A. B. C. on it, hanging therefrom. The initials stood for Alice Catherine Buckley.

Inasmuch as the boy's story was apparently corroborated by the Titanic's passenger list, which showed the names of Daniel and Catherine Buckley, and by the Carpathia's list of survivors, which showed Daniel saved but no Catherine, the Charity Organization investigators accepted him as O. K. He said he was 19, but he talked and acted like a boy of 14.

Enter the Real One. Scarcely had the committee turned him over to the personal care of the manager of one of the Mills hotels when the real Daniel Buckley turned up, with his Titanic ticket and other documents. He, too, had a sister Catherine, but she was not on the Titanic. On the contrary, she had been in New York for several years and was alive and well.

The two Daniel Buckleys were brought face to face and the first one insisted that he was a Titanic survivor. He was turned over to the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children, where a doctor examined him and reported that the boy was a "high grade imbecile." Meantime the committee had cabled to Chester, in England, only to learn that no one from Chester had sailed on the Titanic, and that there was no such number there as 19 High street.

But there were other puzzles. If the first Buckley had been a "high-grade imbecile," how had he succeeded in describing so accurately his sister the body of a Catherine Buckley, a Titanic victim, which had been brought into Halifax by the Mackay-Bowen?

Two Catherine Buckleys. At Boston was found a sister of Catherine Buckley, who claimed and buried the body. She said that neither of the Daniel Buckleys in New York whom the committee had been dealing with could be her brother, because her brother—and she, too, had a brother Daniel—was alive, of sound mind, in Ireland, and never had been on the Titanic.

The lady of Catherine Buckley had not long been buried at Boston when a government official in Ireland wrote asking that her grave be marked with a stone. He stated that she had secretly become the wife of a British army corporal, stationed in Ireland, and then had sailed for the United States.

This letter from the Irish government official was soon followed by a letter from a British army corporal stationed at Hong Kong, China. It was addressed to Catherine Buckley, and it appeared to prove that she was not the Catherine Buckley whom the corporal in Ireland had married.

To add to the mystery facts were discovered which proved to the satisfaction of the De Forest committee that the Irish corporal's bride was not a passenger on the Titanic and that the Catherine Buckley buried at Boston was the Hong Kong corporal's affianced.

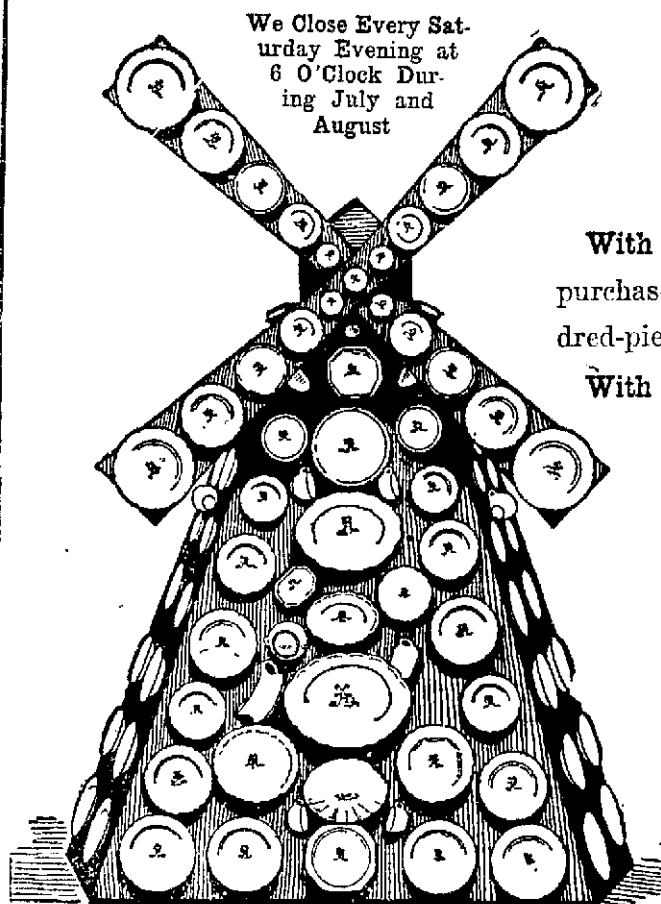

Who Was No. 17? A long time was required to reveal the identity of the first Daniel Buckley, the "high-grade imbecile." Taken before Immigration Commissioner Williams at Ellis Island and threatened with deportation, he started a new string of stories. In one of them he gave his real name, the names of his parents and his birthplace. He fibbed as to his parents' present place of residence. He was then put by the commissioner of charities in the hospital for feeble-minded children on Randall's Island.

An appeal was taken to the Massachusetts S. P. C. C. and a search of police and court records in many cities showed that in 1910 a boy named Daniel Buckley had been committed to a juvenile reformatory in Massachusetts. From this clue this Daniel Buckley was identified, first by the records and then personally by an officer of the reformatory.

Meantime he had fallen sick of pneumonia on Randall's Island. On his recovery he drifted into consumption. He was taken to his parents' home and he died there last September.

To this day nobody has been able to

Where Everybody Is Going to Get This Fine Old Dutch Delft Blue Dinner Set

We Close Every Saturday Evening at 6 O'Clock During July and August

No other firm has ever offered such an extraordinary inducement as this. It's an offer so liberal that you should read every word of this announcement. Beginning tomorrow and continuing for a short period, we will give these beautiful sets free to each and every customer.

With every $100 worth of Furniture purchased for cash, one of these hundred-piece dinner sets is given FREE.

With every $50 Furniture purchase one of the fifty-piece dinner sets is given FREE in lieu of the cash discount.

If you wish to buy just the dinner set and do not need the furniture, we will sell it to you at actual factory cost—$12.50 for the hundred-piece set, $6.50 for the fifty-piece set, on our dinner set club plan—

$1 Down; $1 Per Week.

Did you ever in your life hear of an offer like this? Any woman knows the price of Old Dutch delft ware, and this price is about one-third what it ought to be.

FURTHERMORE if at any time within a year you buy one hundred dollars or fifty dollars' worth of Indiana's Furniture for cash, your money for this dinner set will be refunded.

EVERY Family in Fort Wayne should be in the Indiana Store tomorrow. These Sets are Limited—They Can't Last Forever.

Indiana Furniture Co. 121-123 E. Main St.

Snake's His Name AND HE EATS 'EM

Bill from Brownsville, Tex. Captured Scorpions in New York Zoo.

HE WASN'T AFRAID

New York, July 21.—Visitors to the office of Curator Raymond L. Ditmars, in the Bronx Zoological park, found on the door in big, black letters this sign:

CAUTION! There Are Scorpions at Large Here! Nearly all the visitors hurried, after one reading, that they could just as well talk to Mr. Ditmars outside.

Mr. Ditmars explained that he had received in the morning a box containing eighteen scorpions from a collector in Arizona. He had started to open the box, but just as he got the cover half off he had been called away. When he returned the box was empty.

The curious stood on tiptoe outside the open door and peered nervously into the quiet office. Presently through the crowd came striding a large and positive individual.

"What's all this nonsense about scorpions?" he demanded. He read the sign and approached Mr. Ditmars. "Let a man as knows how handle this scorpion proposition," said he. "I'm W. A. Snake King from Brownsville, Tex., and scorpions've been my playthings from a baby. I'll catch 'em for you."

"You're who?" queried the curator. "I'm Snake King, from Brownsville, I said. Snake's my middle name and snakes is my favorite pastime. I eat 'em alive. Every dog-gone old rattler in Texas has come and tried his hand on him me, and I was so bitter most of 'em picked their jaws so tight they couldn't bite any more. Any year I don't get bit three or four hundred times I don't enjoy my usual health. Let me tackle your ornery little old scorpions."

The curator stood aside and Mr. Snake King from Brownsville charged into the room. The crowd watched with breathless interest as he pawed over the papers on Mr. Ditmars' desk, kicked over the wastebasket and peered under the chairs. Finally he emerged with one forlorn and homesick-looking scorpion.

"This is all I can find, Doc," he confessed.

You are sure of getting goods which are right in design, quality and price when you trade at Foster's.

Annual Irish Day Wednesday, August 27th.

The A. O. H. and the Ladies' Auxiliaries will observe Irish day at Robison park on Wednesday, August 27th. Delegations from Peru, Lugansport, Bluffton and surrounding towns are expected. Elaborate preparations are being made by the committees.—Adv.

TEN PER CENT Discount on all Duntley Electric Vacuum Cleaners, July 2 to August 2.

The Protective Electrical Supply Comp'y. 123 W. Columbia St. Phone 1813.

We Furnish THE HOME OR EASY Payments! PICKARD HOUSE FURNISHING CO. 112 AND 114 EAST COLUMBIA ST. Give only ONE SQUARE inch and a FEW FEET and the TRANSFER COMES

July Sale

Trunks, Bags and Suit Cases

Our showing of trunks includes a trunk to suit every vacationist or traveler—Trunks that will stand the roughest treatment of the huskiest baggage smasher. All bindings and reinforcements are the strongest and best. Locks and trimmings are the most improved.

All Trunks, with the exception of Indestructos, 20 Per Cent. Off

Basswood Trunk, oil canvas covered, hard wood slats, steel trimmed; a regular $5 trunk for $3.95

Basswood Trunks, oil canvas covered, fibre bound, riveted throughout, two straps, 32, 34, 36-inch sizes; regular prices $8.00 and $9.00, for $6.95

Basswood Trunk, with straps and extra dress tray; a big value $4.95 for

We are the Exclusive Agts. in Ft. Wayne for "INDESTRUCTO" TRUNKS

You Can't Break One ... You Can't Lose One

They are guaranteed to give you the best service of any Trunk—to stand hard use and even abuse—they are made of selected veneers, cemented and pressed into shape by huge hydraulic presses of enormous pressure. Then they are trimmed and finished, inside and out, with strongest fittings known.

They are numbered and registered and when you purchase one you are requested to fill out the postcard on the inside and mail to the makers, who will enter it opposite the number of your trunk. When an agent finds a stray "Indestructo" he sends the number to the maker who looks it up—gets your name and address and notifies you of its whereabouts.

LET US SHOW YOU AN "INDESTRUCTO"

Matting Bags

Leather corners, water proof, strong handle. 12-inch Bag 50c 14-inch Bag 50c 16-inch Bag 60c See our special Keratol Bag.....$1.49

Solid Leather Bag$3.98 Made of the best leather, extra heavy corners, leather lined; former price $5.00.

Cowhide Bag$4.98 Size 16 to 18 inches, leather lined, double handle.

Suit Cases and Bags

Matting Suit Cases at 93c Made of matting and rubber cloth, solid frame, leather handle.

Matting and Keratol Cases at $1.69 These are cases that formerly sold for $2.25 and $2.50; are strong and good-looking.

Genuine Leather Suit Case...$2.79 24-inch size—heavy leather corners, linen lined, brass locks and clasp. Regular price $4.00.

The Big Suit Case Value ...$4.98 This case is made of genuine leather, has special shirt fold, leather straps and sold for $7.50.

Look Out For Poison Ivy

Strolling through the woods or clearing brush, picnickers, hunters, fishermen—their eyes are attracted to the beautiful leaves of the poison ivy. And in the meantime keep your blood pure by using S. S. S. If your skin is rough with eczema, pimples or any other eruption, S. S. S. stimulates the fine network of blood vessels in the skin to dry up and heal all sore spots.

S. S. S. will do this positively. It stimulates the principle of osmosis, stimulates the cells of the skin to select their own nutriment from the blood, made pure and healing by the wonderful medicinal ingredients of this famous blood purifier. It is a safe remedy, as it contains no minerals, and yet its action is a marvel.

You can get S. S. S. in any drug store, but insist upon having it. The Swift Laboratory in Atlanta, Ga., prepares this famous blood purifier, and you should take no chance by permitting anyone to recommend a substitute. And if your blood condition is such that you would like to consult a specialist freely, address the Medical Dept., The Swift Specific Company, 186 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.

ALFRED J. TENENBACH AND LEATHER SHOP
 522 CALHOUN ST.

DR. W. T. FERGUSON,
 SPECIALTY—Diseases of Women and Diseases of the Kidneys.
 222 West Wayne Street

UNDERTAKERS.
KLAHN & MELCHING
 UNDERTAKERS & EMBALMERS
 221-223 E. Washington Boulevard.
 Office—Home Phone 228.
 Best of Service at Reasonable Prices.
 PRIVATE AMBULANCE.

GETZ & CAHILL
 UNDERTAKERS
 1031 Calhoun St.
 Open Day and Night.
 Both Phones 60.

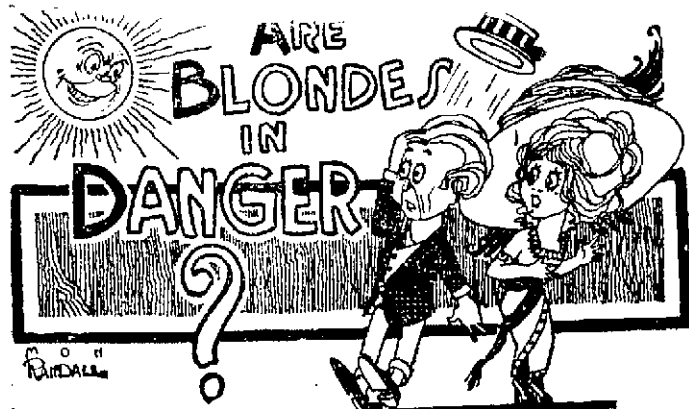

SCHONE & ANKENBROCK
 UNDERTAKERS
 1111 W. 11th St.
 COR. BERRY & BARK STREETS.
 HELL 523

C. J. ULMER
 Undertaking Parlors
 316 E. MAIN STREET.
 Phone 138.
 Residence Phone 1210.

J. C. Peltier & Son
 UNDERTAKERS.
 Both Phones No. 25.
 117 WEST WAYNE ST.

CHALFANT, MANLOVE & BLOOM
 Funeral Directors.
 130 W. Washington St.
 Phone 362.

Heston & Ryan
 Funeral Directors.
 Professional Embalmers. Private Ambulance.
 1908 SOUTH CALHOUN ST.
 Phone 6649.

O beautiful blonde, with glorious locks, Don't mind those cruel health bureau knocks. You cannot bear the "tropical light," But you stand the spotlight's glare, all right.

—From Ode to a Blonde Show Girl.
 Blondes, beware! The "tropical light" of the sun's rays will get you if you don't watch out. Wear orange underwear and orange hat lining. Stay in the shade. Avoid the sun's rays, even if you have to stay up nights and endure the blaze of a cabaret.

Though you have to starve, don't work in the sun. Better make eight cents a day sorting blackberries in a coal hole than glean ten bucks an hour with a paint bucket, applying rouge to hot tin roofs.

All over the country blondes are heeding the recent stern warnings of surgeons of the United States public health service. In many sections peroxide is no longer at a premium. However, a revival in the sale of this valuable gold-locks gray is foreseen. Scientists are explaining that the reason peroxide of hydrogen kills off germs is that it makes the germs blonde. Thereafter they can't stand the climate.

Besides, when a microbe gets a case of blonde whiskers, all his friends just him to death.

Dr. W. C. Rucker, who is getting famous as the preserver of blonde life in this country, advises all light-haired folk to put on orange underwear in order to save themselves from the sun. It is additionally urgent to have one's summer lid lined with orange.

But, gee, in that case we'd hate to wave our hat at a Celtic picnic!

Dr. Rucker fails to make a distinction between the various grades of blonde, from the ordinary tow-head to the half-pas albino. Nor does he explain how most of the blondes of our acquaintance are approximately six feet tall and have healthy, hi-costa-living appetites. If we ever got up the nerve to ask one of 'em the color of his underwear, we'd do it by telephone and wear our running shoes.

Pretty soon they'll pass a law requiring us to tote Uncle Sam's blonde ten-dollar gold pieces in orange purses, and "Silver Threads Among the Gold" will be played only on orangewood pianos.

The blonde voters of this country ought to get together and prevent any anti-blonde legislation. Even druggists blondes should see their rights protected. Just now, however, it seems that bald-headed blondes are having the laugh on the rest of us.

HE WAS HELD BY VICIOUS PYTHON

Owner Sees Attack and He Charms Reptile When She Plays Flageolet.

WAS NARROW ESCAPE

Dover, Del., July 21.—Memories of the coils of a python twenty-five feet long tightening round his body, James Harve Stenger, manager for a carnival company, escaped being crushed to death only through the power of music to soothe the reptile after the efforts of six men had failed to dislodge it.

Mr. Stenger was superintending the unloading of a box of snakes when the python escaped. For an instant the reptile seemed to be dazed, and as Mr. Stenger took a stick and tried to push it through a door into a big glass cage the snake turned like a flash. In an instant the python entwined itself around Mr. Stenger, pinning his arms to his sides.

Six men went to Mr. Stenger's aid and attempted to pull the snake from his body. The coils of the big reptile, however, only drew closer, and Mr. Stenger was on the verge of collapse when Mlle. La Beneto, who owns the reptile, appeared with a flageolet between her lips.

Stationing herself near the snake she began to play a low, weird melody, at the same time swaying her body to and fro gently. Raising its head, the python began to sway in rhythm with the player and the music, and gradually loosening its coils from Mr. Stenger, it coiled on the ground with its head swinging from side to side.

Slowly approaching the snake Mlle. La Beneto, still playing gently, forced it into the glass cage. In the meantime

Mr. Stenger, who had toppled over unconscious when released from the folds of the snake, was revived and found to be uninjured.

ECHO OF MURDER IN DEATH.

Doctor Who Convulsed Delaware by Carving Up Negro Dies.

Punxsutawney, Pa., July 21.—With Delaware's most noted murder were revived here with the receipt of word from Dallas, Tex., of the death there of Dr. Isaac C. West, aged 71. West was a native of Sussex county and formerly a practitioner here. He gained notoriety and convulsed the whole state by killing Coach Turner, a negro, in November, 1872. The colored man was slain in the doctor's office, after which West fired the building, in the hope the body would be burned and nobody be the wiser as to what became of the negro. West lay in the country church yard across from the office and watched it burn. Later he fled to Salisbury, Md., but returned, surrendered and confessed. He claimed he had killed the negro in self-defense. Some time before the crime he had tried to lure various people to his office under the pretense of examining them for life insurance. The trial of West was one of the most exciting ever known in Kent county, and, but for the eloquence of the late Chancellor Willard Saulsbury, who defended him, he very likely would have suffered the death penalty. He was acquitted of murder, but was convicted of arson and served a term in the Kent county jail.

It is too great a risk to depend upon neighbors or sending for medicine in case of a sudden attack of bowel complaint. In almost every neighborhood someone has died from cholera morbus that could have easily been saved had the proper medicine been at hand. Then think of the suffering that must be endured until medicine can be obtained. The safe way is to keep at hand a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It has never been known to fail and has undoubtedly saved the lives of many people. But it now. It only costs a quarter. For sale by all dealers.—Adv.

TAKING BIG CHANCES.

It is too great a risk to depend upon neighbors or sending for medicine in case of a sudden attack of bowel complaint. In almost every neighborhood someone has died from cholera morbus that could have easily been saved had the proper medicine been at hand. Then think of the suffering that must be endured until medicine can be obtained. The safe way is to keep at hand a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It has never been known to fail and has undoubtedly saved the lives of many people. But it now. It only costs a quarter. For sale by all dealers.—Adv.

Uncle Sam Has Built a Fine Road for Us Right Into His Best Scenery.

Cody, Wyo., July 21.—The Yellowstone park season has opened again and hundreds of tourists from the east are passing through here over the new scenic road made last year by the extension of a railroad line to Cody.

From Cody the government has built a smooth and safe carriage road, known as the Cody road, a distance of ninety-one miles, to the Lake hotel inside the park.

Leaving Cody by carriage or on horseback, the tourist descends sharply and crosses the Shoshone river, which from here marks the route.

The road suddenly plunges from the arid plain into Shoshone canyon, with its walls ever drawing closer together and looming higher against the sky line. There are four tunnels within a mile, and then the road emerges on a level with the top of the Shoshone dam which spans the gorge at its narrowest point. This bit of masonry, holding back a lake of forty miles in circumference, is more than twice as high as Niagara Falls.

From the dam the Cody road for several miles skirts a beautiful artificial lake, holding in reserve sufficient water to irrigate 150,000 acres of land.

Beyond, the road enters the Shoshone national forest reserve, which extends to the eastern boundary of the Yellowstone. The valley widens and there are great forests of pine, with quaking aspen nearer the stream. Wild flowers abound. And always the wonderful coloring and varied formation of the towering rocks and mountain ridges create wonder and admiration.

"The Elephant Head," "The Holy City," "The Camel," "The Sentinel" and "Rajah's Castle" are a few of the hundreds of rock formations, of gray and pink or green, carved by wind and rain. Little streams and waterfalls by the score pour their contributions into the Shoshone river.

At the end of forty-eight miles Holm lodge, on a high ridge among the pines, is reached and there the night is passed. The lodge is built of logs, comfortably furnished and surrounded by one and two-room cabins.

From in front of the lodge one gets a clear view of Fishhawk glacier, twelve miles away, and of many snow-covered mountain peaks. The Swiss Alps can offer little better than this in the way of glaciers.

From the soldier station there is a steep grade for ten miles to the summit of Sylvan Pass. The road is through wild and desolate rocky wastes of awe-inspiring grandeur. The height at the top of the pass, 9,000 feet, is greater than at any point on the regular circuit of the Yellowstone and is likely to be covered with snow even in July or August.

Beyond the pass there is a steep and quick descent into a beautiful valley, first past Lake Eleanor and then to a beautiful, permanent camp near Sylvan lake, with deer and other wild animals occasionally visible, and from there it is but a few hours' drive to Yellowstone lake.

HIS INDIGESTION CURED AT LAST.

After spending hundreds of dollars for medicine and treatment for indigestion and constipation with only temporary relief, C. H. Hines, of Whitlow, Ark., was permanently cured by Chamberlain's Tablets. For sale by all dealers.—Adv.

HIGH COST STILL SOARING.

Government Buying Agents Report Prices Make Steady Advances.

Washington, July 21.—The continued higher cost of living is reflected in a report to Sherman Allen, assistant secretary of the treasury, by the government's general supply committee on the contracts it has let for supplies for the executive departments of Washington for the fiscal year beginning July 1. This barometer of the trend of prices shows that the cost of groceries and household supplies has increased 17 per cent. as compared with last year; lumber, 10 per cent.; fuel and ice, 7 per cent.; and dry goods, 5 per cent. While these essentials are soaring, the report showed decreases in the prices of the following: Forage, flour and feed, 20 per cent.; paints and oils, 12 per cent.; hardware, 7 per cent.; and furniture, stationery and electrical and engineering supplies, 6 per cent. each.

IMPROVE YOUR COMPLEXION.

Your complexion as well as your temper is rendered miserable by a disordered liver and by constipation. Take Chamberlain's Tablets and you will improve them both. For sale by all dealers.—Adv.

We never make empty promise "bubble sales." But every summer at this time we have hot weather clothes left that we must sell out quickly.

This is why we sock the knife deep and cut prices down, so that whether you want anything or not, you can't help buying if you see our "upright" goods and our "down-right" low, reduced prices.

Lots of summer is left. Don't swelter. Buy our cool clothes; you need them; you can now buy them very cheap.

Kratzsch & Schroeder
 618 Calhoun Street

To Begin With!
EAT
HAFFNER'S
POTATO
LOAF BREAD

Manson, Fowler and Record Bicycles
 $22.50, $27.00, $31.50, up to $40.00
 Choice of Tires, G. & J. Lincher (value $10). Punct. Proof non-skid cushion tread value $10, free on any of our bicycles.
 Fancy Tread Bicycle Tires not found in any other store.
 Won't Slip Bailey Tread, Red Rubber..... $3.75
 Peerless Basket Weave, Cactus Raised Tread..... 3.50
 Tashmo, Six-Ply Tread, Proof, each..... 2.50
 Single Tube Roadsters, not guaranteed, each..... 1.50
 Last year's Balley and Thorn Proof tires, each $2.50. Inner tubes, 15c, $1.25. G. & J. $1.50. Bring baby car wheels for new tires. Come to the Big Store for BICYCLE TIRES and REPAIRS.
 KOSIUS & BRUSIUS, 326 East Columbia St.
 Good second hand Bicycles, $5 to $15.
 Store open evenings, April 1 to July 1.

The UP-TO-DATE
 Shoe Shining, Hat Cleaning and Shoe Repairing Co.
 111 W. MAIN ST.
 Work called for and delivered. Phone 769.

AETNA
 Life Insurance.
 C. W. Orr, Agent.
 132 E. Berry St.

Thoroughly Clean and Perfectly Sanitary

That is the way your washing comes back to you when done by The Troy Laundry Soft Water Method. Phone 100.

LEGAL LOAN RATES
 TO HOUSEKEEPERS and WORKINGMEN
 THIS IS WHAT WE CHARGE:
 Interest $ 25 one month..... $.50
 Interest $ 50 one month..... 1.00
 Interest $100 one month..... 2.00
 Small legal charge for papers.
 WE WILL MAKE YOU A LOAN
 LICENSED BY THE STATE
 $2,000 BOND TO STATE.
GUARANTEE LOAN CO.
 819 CALHOUN STREET
 (Second Floor)
 Between Berry and Wayne
 TELEPHONE 3248.

A Word With You
Mr. Piano Purchaser

Do you know the best values in Pianos and Player-Pianos are given at the Jacobs Music House?

Do you know that every intending purchaser that visits the Jacobs Music House finds the line of Pianos and Player-Pianos superior to any at the price given elsewhere?

That means that the purchasers who are keen Judges of Piano values, buy their instruments at Jacobs. It is the value in the Piano that counts, and the value must be there.

JACOBS MUSIC HOUSE

The Piano and Player Market of Fort Wayne.
 1021 and 1023 Calhoun St.

Dr. Johnston
OSTEOPATH
 4th FLOOR
 SHOEBOY BUILDING,
 TAKE ELEVATOR.
 Graduate of Kirksville, Mo. Diseases and Eccentricities Treated. EXAMINATION FREE.
 Phone—Office, 1520; Residence, 6534

Take Care of Your Furs NOW

Store them in our vault constructed especially for the storage of valuables.
 RATES—Very Moderate. Call or Telephone Us.

First National Bank
 Fort Wayne.

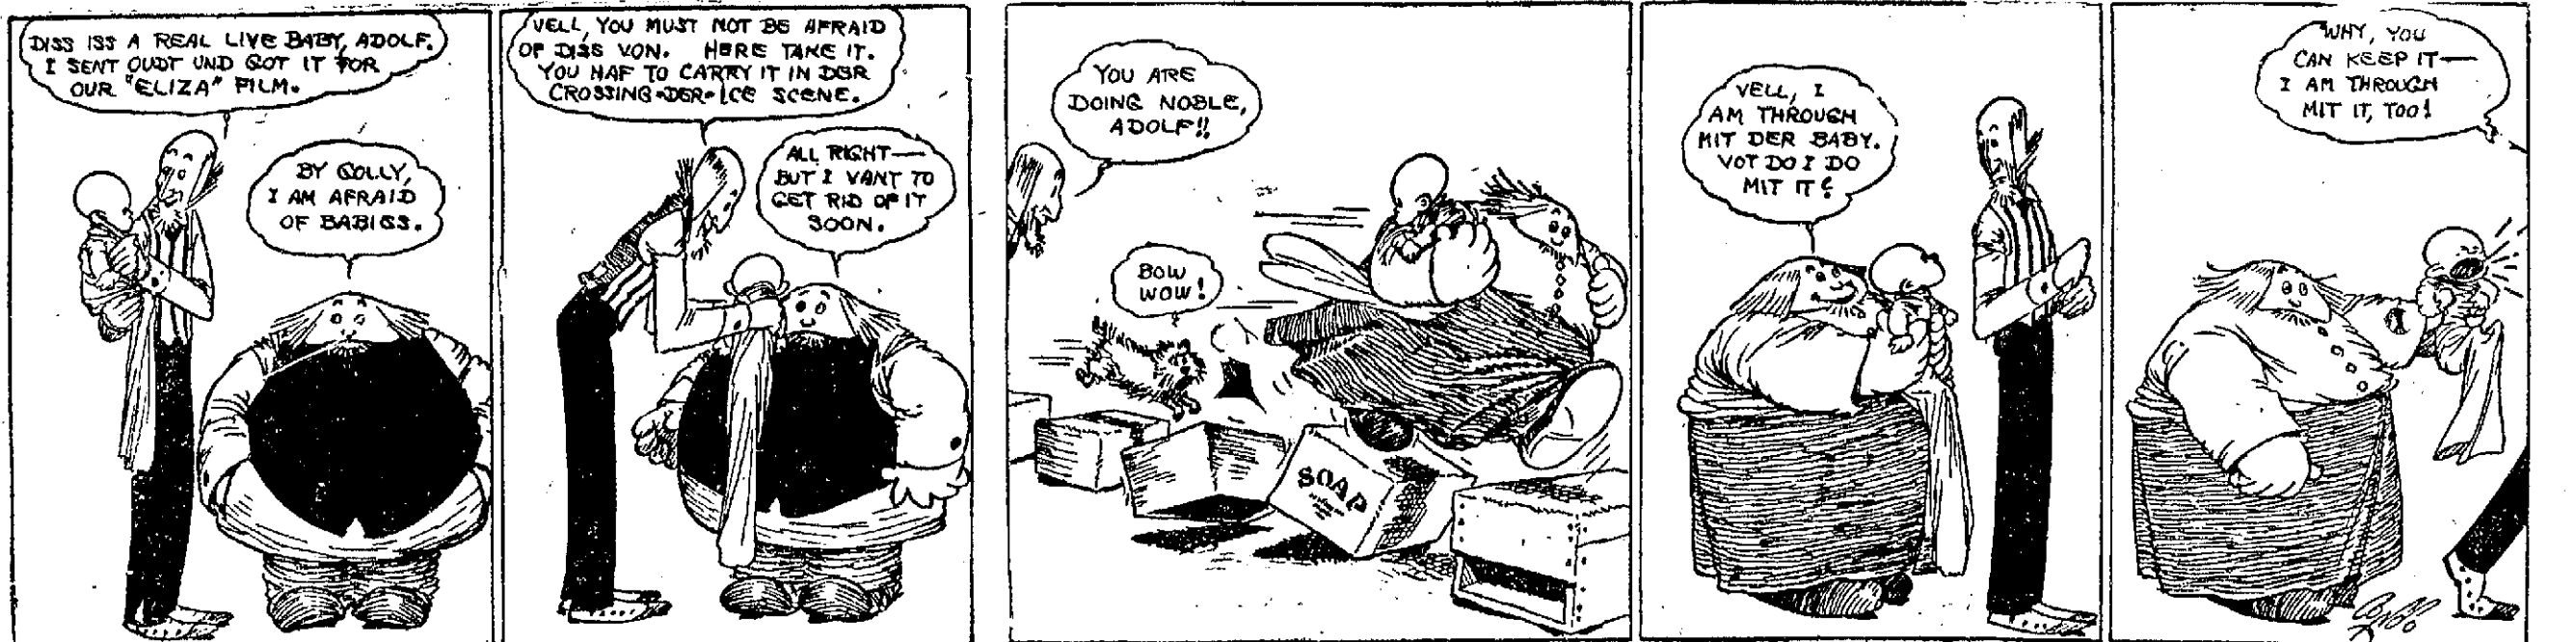

All the latest things in new spring Hats and Clothing.

The Buckeye
 HAT AND CLOTHING CO.
 819 Calhoun St.

Ft. Wayne Trunk and Leather Co.
 924 CALHOUN ST.
 Phone 960.
 Trunks and Leather Goods Made to Order and Repaired.

Adolf Will Have to Ask "Marks, the Lawyer," to Get a Guardian Appointed

WORDS BY SCHAEFER
 MUSIC BY CONDO.

Funny Fred Mace; Educated to Be a Doctor;
"Movies" Side-Trackd Him.

(By Gertrude M. Price.)

Now what do you think?

Why, Fred Mace, that funniest funny man of "movie" fame, whose round face and flat hat and queer expressions "double up" picture fans so often, has been graduated from a school of medicine and dentistry.

Was there every anything more surprising?

No, not if you have seen our friend Mace act.

Fred Mace, whose middle name is "laugh," has been helping to make Keystone films famous for many months. Just recently he slipped out of his long, happy partnership with Mack Sennett, the director of the company, to join the Majestic forces. In fact, he is going to direct the picture-making for the western branch of that company.

Maybe he says, he will have a studio of his own, too, in pretty Hollywood, the new "movie" Mecca of Southern California.

Maybe he will do some pictures of his own, as well?

Now, the only question to settle is the name of the films which Mace will make. Are they to be called Majestic-Mace films, or Mace-Majestic films, or just Majestic films, as they used to be? Well, it won't make any difference to the public, just so Mace's funny face is on the screen.

"The secret of theatrical success, in the 'movie' branch of it, anyway, is to keep the public guessing," he told me. "I intend to keep it up, all being well, too."

Though playing screen plays as if to the manner born, Mace has had a long stage experience. He starred in "Florodora," was Mr. Pineapple in "A Chinese Honeymoon," played Eddie Foy's part in "Piff, Paff, Pout," played in London fifteen months, and has been all across the American continent in musical comedy productions.

Needless to say, characters are his favorite roles and comedy his particular forte.

PHTHISIS CURES MAINLY HUMBUGS

Nostrums Yield Annual Profit of $10,000 a Year, Says Bulletin.

IS MENACE TO NATION

Washington, July 21.—Within the last five years no less than 500 fraudulent "cures" for consumption have been tried upon thousands of victims in the United States, and the exploiters of these nostrums have reaped a clear profit of not less than $20,000,000. This is an estimate by the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis in a bulletin just issued.

The association estimates that on the $20,000,000 invested in manufacturing and exploiting fake cures for tuberculosis there is a profit of $10,000,000 a year, which is "blood money" taken from ignorant consumptives.

Three kinds of consumption cure frauds are distinguished by the association the first being the "institute" fraud, where a pseudo hospital or dispensary is established, and the wily "doctor" or "professor" administers "treatment" at so much per head. These concerns also carry on a mail order business with great profit.

The second group contains more than 100 kinds of drugs and "patent" devices, any one of which may be purchased at a drug store. Usually the consumptive is charged from $1 to $5 for these, when he could make them up himself in exactly the same form for from one to five cents.

The third group includes "home-made" remedies which certain self-declared individuals believe will cure tuberculosis. The association states that no specific cure for tuberculosis has been discovered, except the well-tried hygienic, dietetic method of fresh air, rest and good food.

TOPEKA EMPLOYS GOOD MEN.

Preacher at Head of Civil Service Commission Gets Results.

Topeka, Kan., July 21.—Topeka has been enjoying the novel experience of having a preacher as chairman of the civil service commission of the city. The last election of mayor and commissioners put into office best set of men who have ever presided over the city. The Rev. Charles M. Sheldon, D. D., during the campaign, made a speech at a mass meeting, at which time he suggested certain things which he thought should be done by the police. The successful candidate for mayor, R. L. Coffman, who had been mayor twenty years before, asked Dr. Sheldon to put his ideas into practice. There were no rules for the police. Dr. Sheldon drew up a set, using the Toronto police regulations as a basis. In addition to this, it was decided to have police women. Two have already been employed and are on duty, one having taken part with the chief of police in a raid on a disorderly joint. F. M. Stahl, the warrior of the Kansas State Temperance union, says that the condition is "the best today in the history of the city."

INDIANS IN WEST DO TURKEY TROT

Abandon Tribal War Steps for Modern Rag-Time "Hugging."

WHOLE TRIBE IN LINE

Reino, Nev., July 21. Lo, the poor Indian, to whom the poet once referred as a person of untutored mind, has not only brought his mind around to the civilized way of thinking, but has tutored his feet in the intricate abandon of the "hug" and the "trot." Where his ancestors, chanting weird tribal songs and beating drums, once stomped around snakes, idols and the graves of Indians who had gone to the happy hunting ground, the Indian of today lets a hand furnish the music while he waits with tepid-chicken impatience for the Robert E. Lee.

At Lee—appropriate place—in Elko county, Nevada, more than a thousand Shoshone Indians congregated for their annual five-day fete, are giving evidence of the fact that while Indian music is good enough in its way the men of another race write music better adapted to the expression of the "primal man." In short, they are turkey trotting, bunny hugging and trying to tango, with a little bit more enthusiasm than Indians ever displayed over anything but "fire-water" or a scalping party.

In justice to the other Indians, it must be said that they do not trot. They are sticking to the old chants and dances, and they view the capers of the younger generation with that same dismal, make-me-laugh look which was the fashion of another day.

The young folk do the trots on platforms, with modern musical instruments and Broadway "successes" furnishing the necessary stimulus.

The Indians came from all parts of Nevada to attend the amusement and some of them walked as far as 200 miles in order to get there. The fete is in celebration of the fact that game is abundant and fishing good. Save for the intrusion of the trot music the old tribal rites govern the celebration.

BONDS TO MARRIAGE JOY.

Fathers of Boy and Girl Believe They Can Insure Wedded Bliss.

Canton, Ohio, July 19.—An agreement backed by bonds pledging a $700 farm and $700 in cash put up by their fathers promises to insure the wedded bliss of Miss Elizabeth Boldt, 17, and Casian Bartt, jr., Youngstown, who were married yesterday. The young people declare the bonds are superfluous. But the parents want to make the marriage knot so tight that it can never be untied. By the terms of the agreement Bartt's father promises that his son will never loaf, gamble, drink, play pool or dance with any young woman other than his wife. He pledges a $700 farm. The bride's father has deposited a cash bond of $700 with a bank that his daughter will make a model wife, will not gossip, and will cook to the husband's satisfaction.

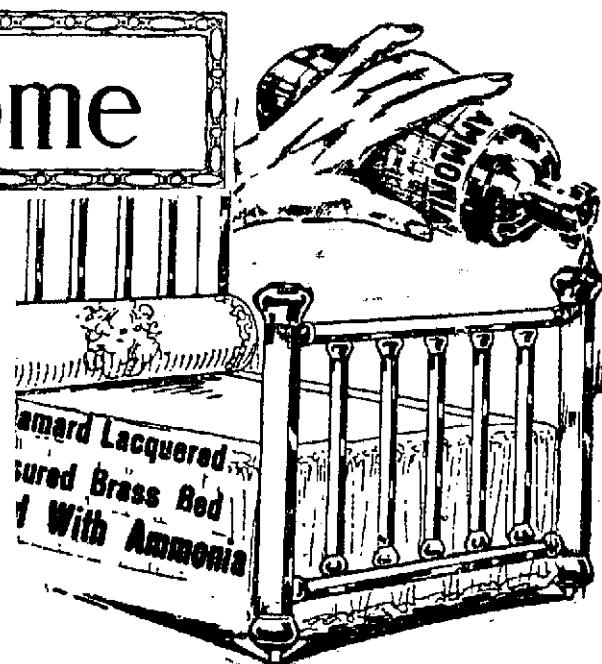

Try Sentinel Want Ads.

If It's for the Home It's Here!

This Store
Closes

On Fridays at 1 p. m., during July and August, but remains open on Saturday until 10 p. m. to accommodate those who find it inconvenient to call at any other time.

Rugs — and — Linoleums

Just to remind the people that this department is always prepared to serve you better. Difficult to give a price list, the stock is so varied, so extensive, so comprehensive—call if only to compare—here too, your credit is good.

Fort Wayne Outfitters Co.

129 E. Berry St.

726-728 Clinton St.

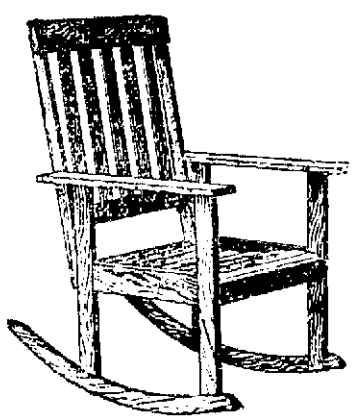

Opp. Postoffice.

Insured Brass Beds

Two-inch posts, ten heavy fillers, full size, precisely as illustrated; a real $15 value for... $8.75

As Usual, We Are First With the New Fall Showing

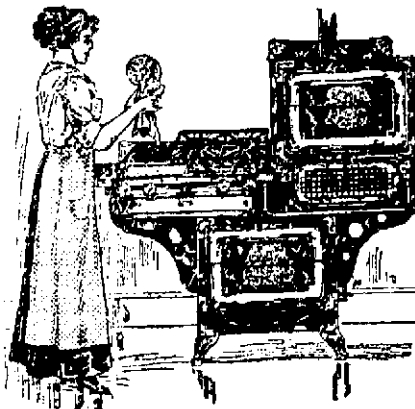

A carload of Brass and Iron Beds—more Beds than all the other Fort Wayne stores combined can show—our 35 stores sell more Beds in a day than all other Fort Wayne Furniture Stores combined sell in a year—naturally, that gives us advantages by which our patrons profit.

$2.98 —For—
Porch Rocker

Worth $5.00—Mission design—durably built—comfortable—a limited number, and quick response is advisable.

A Damp Cloth Applied to its Surface and it Shines with Jet Black Brilliancy

The New Method is enameled throughout, even to the burners, which are of steel instead of cast iron and can be washed the same as your pots and pans.

There is nothing to rust about the New Method, nor is it necessary to keep continually blackening it, a damp cloth is all that it requires.

And besides being the most sanitary, the New Method is the most economical gas range made.

THE NEW METHOD CONSUMES

20 to 30 per cent.
Less Gas

THAN ANY OTHER GAS RANGE MADE

This is a statement made for nearly all stoves, but seldom is there any proof offered as to WHY they save gas for the simple reason that most gas ranges are as similar as two peas.

The New Method is the only gas range made with an enameled steel burner, enameled inside as well as out. All other gas ranges have rough cast iron burners, with small necks and with drilled holes that form rough burrs on the inside and retard the flow of gas. The smooth surface of the enameled interior permits the New Method burners to take in 3½ times more air than any other burner. These figures are gathered from competitive tests with twenty other makes of gas ranges and the saving of gas is guaranteed by both the manufacturers and ourselves.

New Method Cabinet Ranges with Split Oven Doors

New Method Ranges have more convenience features than any other gas ranges made. The split oven door is found exclusively on New Method ranges. When the door is opened the upper half goes up, while the lower half drops down automatically, forming a ledge. This does away with the hot steam rushing into your face as you open the door.

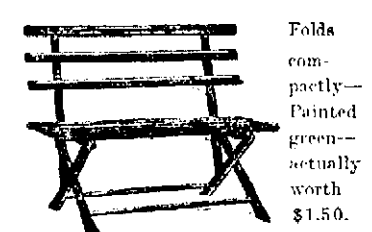

New Method Ranges are sold exclusively at our store

Iron Bed $3.85
It's a $7.50 Value

Precisely as illustrated, Brass trimmed—choice of colors—like-wise choice of full size or three-quarters and you buy it on easy terms.

79c For This Lawn Seat

$12.85 For Dressers
Worth $25

Beautiful flaked Golden Oak—large, roomy drawers—Call or Plain Feet—Colonial design—about 6 of them, samples, no two alike.

$12.85

for $20 COMBINATION
Book Cases

Coaster Sets

Like Illustration Imported from Germany Tray and six Holders worth $1.50 for

79c

Two-quart size freezes cream in five minutes—no soldered joints inside the cream can—rapid—sanitary—economical—a special for Monday, or as long as we have them on hand—$1.00 value for

49 Cents

A CROWING COCK WEARIES LAYWER

Court Then Wrestled With the Problem of Male Fowl's Greeting.

CROWED THREE HOUR

Philadelphia, July 21.—Judge McMichael is wrestling with the problem as to whether a crowing rooster in a thickly built up section of the city is a nuisance or a joy forever. After several delays and complex pleadings the case of Wildermuth vs. Tull was at last placed on trial, and the court got some idea of the noise-making capacity of a healthy rooster in the early morning hours when ordinary people get their sweetest sleep.

Attorney P. A. Wildermuth was the complainant and star witness, and he explained that he lives at 1208 Cambria street, while Tull, the owner of the rooster with the loud voice, resides at 2818 North Twelfth street.

"I want an injunction against that rooster," said Wildermuth, "he has been crowing for two years. At the break of day he starts in to whomp things up. I can't sleep, and the law says a crowing rooster is a nuisance. I have authorities."

"But be more specific," interrupted Judge McMichael.

"Well, here is a record of his crows," rejoined the attorney, and he read off dates and records of crows without number. "In February of this year," he added, "this rooster was joined by another. Nearly every morning they crowed from 4 a. m. until I left the house on June 2, crowing from 5 a. m. to 8 o'clock. This morning the crowing began at 4:45."

"What was the extent of their crowing on any one morning?" inquired the court.

"Oh, I timed them all right," replied the attorney, "and found that there were from forty to forty-five crows an hour."

"But the defendant's chickens are in a yard nearly a square distant from your home," interposed the defendant's attorney.

"That's all right," retorted Wildermuth, "but a brick wall at the side of Tull's yard acts as a sounding board and throws the rooster's voice right into my bedroom window."

"Did you ever complain about the crowing to Mr. Tull?" inquired Judge McMichael.

"Sure," responded the annoyed lawyer, "but he only said, 'I would not stop my rooster crowing for all the lawyers in town.'"

Neighbor Tull produced a plan showing that the distance from his yard to Wildermuth's bedroom window was 225 feet. Residents in the intervening space said they were not annoyed by his chickens.

"But this rooster crows long and loud—his crows hit the sounding wall," broke in Wildermuth.

Mr. Tull and his witnesses emphatically denied that his chickens produced the nuisance complained of, and testified that for a time, as the result of Mr. Wildermuth's protests, the particular rooster was put in the cellar at night.

During the testimony Mr. Wildermuth broke in, declaring that they were not telling the truth, and then he excitedly left the court room. A tipstaff was sent to remind him that the case was still on, and on his return he again produced the record of the rooster's crows. Judge McMichael held the case under advisement.

KREIS STOLZENAU PICNIC.

Organization Observes Anniversary of Its Singing Society.

The annual picnic of the Kreis Stolzenau society, held Sunday at the Driving park, was attended by several hundred members and friends of the organization. The event, this year was held in observance of the twentieth anniversary of the organization of the singing branch of the society. Music was furnished by the Concordia, Saxonia and Kreis Stolzenau singing societies.

WOLF & INDESSAUER

What Is Demanded of a Tablecloth?

Why, that it wears well and looks well—not one, nor the other, but both. These lovely linens are offered in full realization of that double demand, and more than that—

At July Sale Prices

Is it any wonder that housekeepers are buying a full six month's supply?

TABLE LINENS BY THE YARD		PLAIN AND HEMSTITCHED LUNCHEON NAPKINS
All 50c linens, now	38c	Choice of $4.00 napkins, per dozen	$3.40
All 65c linens, now	54c	Choice of $5.00 napkins, per dozen	$4.25
All 75c linens, now	63c	Choice of $6.00 napkins, per dozen	$5.20
All 90c linens, now	73c	Choice of $7.50 napkins, per dozen	$6.75
All $1.00 linens, now	85c
EXTRA SPECIAL—Fifteen new patterns in our regular $1.25 quality Scotch and Irish linens, full bleached, 70 and 72 inches wide; choice, 98c a yard.
TABLE NAPKINS TO MATCH		ROUND TABLE CLOTHS
Regular $1.25 napkins, per dozen	98c	$3.75 pattern cloths, 2 yards square	$3.20
Regular $1.50 napkins, per dozen	$1.30	$5.00 pattern cloths, 2 yards square	$4.25
Regular $1.75 napkins, per dozen	$1.48	$6.00 pattern cloths, 2 1/2 yards square	$5.20
Regular $2.00 napkins, per dozen	$1.73	$7.50 pattern cloths, 2 1/2 yards square	$6.75
Regular $2.50 napkins, per dozen	$2.10
Regular $3.00 napkins, per dozen	$2.60
Regular $3.50 napkins, per dozen	$2.98
LUNCH CLOTHS IN 54-INCH SIZE		LUNCH CLOTHS IN 45-INCH SIZE
Regular $2.00 lunch cloths	$2.50	Regular $2.50 lunch cloths	$2.10
Regular $2.50 lunch cloths	$2.98	Regular $2.75 lunch cloths	$2.25
Regular $3.00 lunch cloths	$3.90	Regular $3.75 lunch cloths	$3.20
Regular $5.00 lunch cloths	$4.25	Regular $4.75 lunch cloths	$4.15

JOHN WISE
Says:

"Ben Fidenmush, of near Silo Siding, performed an operation on a 2-year-old beaver belonging to Amos Frencklescher and removed a slide trombone from her stomach. Almost thinks the musical instrument is a relic of a serenading party which he dispersed with a shotgun one night."

SEES FIRST AUTO AND SLIT SKIRT

Sight Restored, Woman is Amazed by Sights on Street.

BLIND FOR 15 YEARS

New York, July 21. Mrs. John McCafferty, the 50-year-old woman, who, after an operation by Dr. Thomas H. Martin, is able to see for the first time in fifteen years, had some remarkable experiences and sensations during the last few days.

At dusk the other day the landlady was removed from her eyes and she gazed out upon a world which had been to her mere sounds. Through her window at No. 474 East Forty-second street, one of the first things she saw was an automobile.

Automobiles had been but dead hums and hums to her.

"A homeless carriage!" she gasped delightedly. "When can I take a ride in one?"

Then a girl in a lobbie skirt passed. That was more of a surprise to Mrs. McCafferty than her "homeless carriage" had been. "Oh, what a funny dress that girl is wearing!" she cried, "and it makes the girl look just like a Japanese!"

When her sight failed women had been wearing loose, wide skirts, with lacy sleeves and no "lines." Girls wore their hair on their heads, instead of on their ears, and the slit in a young lady's skirt was at the top.

The other morning Mrs. McCafferty was helped into an automobile and whisked away on her first ride to her summer home at Belmar, N. J. "Every thing whizzes by you in such a hurry," she said, laughingly, "that it makes me think of what I have heard about the moving pictures. I want to see them as soon as I can, but the doctor says not to for a while yet."

A special trip was made through lower New York, as she could see the Woodworth building and other architectural marvels that sprung up during her blindness. It seemed to her she was riding through fairland.

The ferries that carried her over to Jersey were the one thing that had not changed.

WIFE OF SOLDIER CANNOT GET WORK

Rates High in Civil Service Examination But Gets No Place.

AFTER JOB 20 YEARS

New York, July 21. For twenty years Mrs. Annie Leichman, who lives at No. 375 West 125th street, has been trying to get a position as charwoman for the government. Now, at the age of 60, she finds herself further than ever from her goal, and according to civil service officials her chances of employment in the federal service will grow dimmer as the years pass.

Mrs. Leichman holds official reports on three examinations. They showed that in 1910 she was graded 90 per cent. and was 140 numbers from the top of the list; in 1911 she again received 90 per cent. and was only 87 numbers from the top of the list, but in 1912 her rating was 85 per cent. and there were 375 applicants registered ahead of her.

She also showed a letter from the civil service commission explaining that the fact that she is the wife of a civil war veteran would not help her. Her husband, John Leichman, is 90 years old, and is in a soldiers' home in Columbus, Ohio, Mrs. Leichman said.

"Twenty years ago General Hancock, under whom my husband served, wrote me a letter promising he would find employment for me with the government. Efforts were made, but they failed."

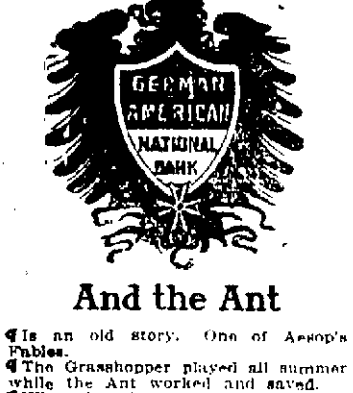

"The last thing I want to do is enter a home after thirty-five years of active life in New York city. I'd eagerly work for $1 a day to keep my independence."

F. E. Longfellow said to a reporter at the custom house:

"It is hopeless to expect an appointment as charwoman with a grading less than 90. Young and vigorous women, not more than 35 years old, invariably get these positions."

"There are practically only three gradings, 95, 90 and 85. There are no rules that wives of veterans shall be favored."

The Grasshopper

And the Ant

It is an old story. One of Aesop's fables.

The Grasshopper played all summer while the Ant worked and saved.

When the winter came the Ant lived in peace and comfort while the Grasshopper starved to death.

Don't be a grasshopper.

Save something from what you earn for the day of trouble.

If that day never comes you will be able to indulge in luxuries. If it does come you will not suffer.

Get your savings to earning interest at 4 per cent.

German-American Nat'l Bank

CLASS IN SLEEPING CARS.

Wisconsin School Girls Taught Use of Traveling Accessories.

Milwaukee, Wis., July 21. "Class in sleeping cars stand up!" Superintendent A. A. Johnson, of Milwaukee County Agricultural school, and Miss Pearl McDonald, household economy department, said this the other afternoon and ten girls arose. The two teachers led the way to the street car terminal more than a mile away, where the party boarded a car to Union depot, Milwaukee. There they boarded a Milwaukee road sleeper, where the "recitation" was held. Superintendent Johnson thinks pupils learn to do by doing. The trip to the sleeper was preceded by instruction in packing suit cases. What to take, and what not, was considered, and the girls were shown what constitutes a good outfit. Time tables were distributed and each girl picked out a trip.

BABY COUGHS UP WASHER.

Fed Through Hole in Metal for Three Months.

West Berwick, Pa., July 21. After lodging in the throat of a 2-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Stimeling of this place, for three months, causing the child's health and nearly causing his death, a metal washer an inch and a quarter in diameter has been dislodged from its resting place during a fit of vomiting. The metal of the washer was badly corroded.

Three months ago the child fell from a high chair, and since that time he has been in ill health. It is supposed that the washer became lodged in the throat during the fall. Since the fall all of the child's food has had to pass through the hole, the size of a lead pencil, in the center of the washer.

Files Free From Fly-Foo Fumes

Every owner should give all possible comfort to his live stock by making them immune from flies, mosquitoes and vermin of every sort. This is easily accomplished by the use of FLY-FOO, and it is money in the pocket to spray it. Only 80c gal. Bring your can or jug.

Bug Finish kills potato bugs, only 2c pound.

Slug Shot will save your cabbage and cucumber vines; not a poison; 10c lb; 3 lbs for 25c.

Standard Binding Twine, 9c lb.

Full line of all kinds of Plants.

S. Bash & Co.

Sentinel Want Ads Pay.

BUILDERS' HARDWARE

If you are one of the builders, you had best secure your finishing hardware now and avoid vexatious delays.

Our stock of builders' hardware is the most complete and of the best quality we ever before carried.

Bring us your specifications and note our attractive estimates.

C. C. SCHLATTER & CO.
CORNER COLUMBIA AND CLINTON STS.

THE HOME NEEDS

The wants of the home—there are many of them that the classified columns can fill promptly, effectively, and at a minimum cost.

They will provide a roomer for an extra bedroom, turn obsolete and discarded household goods into cash, effect marked economies in the purchase of goods for home equipment, furnish capable servants, locate property that is for sale or rent, and do innumerable other things that play an important part in domestic economy.

The housewife of today looks to these columns to overcome many emergencies that arise in the home.

SENTINEL WANT ADS pay an important part in home economy.

Phone Your Ad 173
Rate 1 cent a word

HOPE NOW FOR DIGGER INDIAN, ONCE DE-SPISED BECAUSE HE WAS DIRTY.

Lizzie Mitchell and her two brothers, Joseph and Andy, full-blooded Digger Indians, who were denied an education by whites in their community, but who, through a firm determination, obtained a schooling at an Indian school in another section.

San Francisco, July 21.—"Dirtier than a Digger Indian!"

There is a current idea that there is nothing lower in the scale of human existence in California than a Digger Indian.

Lizzie, Joseph and Andy Mitchell, full-blooded Digger Indians, disprove this statement.

As children these three Indians were refused admittance into the public schools because they were too dirty. Later, after attending an Indian school elsewhere, the three came back to the community where they had been refused an education, and those who had refused them were both enlightened as to the capacity of a Digger Indian to absorb learning and civilized customs, and chagrined at having turned them down as youngsters without giving them a fair show.

For each Indian child enrolled at a district school Uncle Sam pays $9 a quarter. This is because the Indians live on non-taxable land and hence no school for Indians can be built and maintained by taxation.

The Indian population of California is about 20,000, about 4,000 children being of school age, while 2,500 have no educational advantages.

By the efforts of Rev. and Mrs. F. G. Collet all Indian children are gradually being given their chance. It is slow work and a hard fight.

Captain Odoek, a Digger Indian chief, says:

"Now we are somebody—got school house, teacher, preacher, meeting and our own life. I have gone on ahead with my people. We've been in awful darkness. Now we see a light. I want we go ahead, be like other folks—so make something of ourselves."

TOOTHLESS DOG PUZZLES COURT

The Question of Ownership Keeps Judge, Lawyers and Jury Very Busy FOR SEVERAL HOURS

Chicago, July 21. One judge, two lawyers, two litigants and twelve jurors labored for several hours to solve the riddle of the ownership of a French poodle, claimed by Mrs. D. Danvers, of No. 3130 Cleveland avenue, and likewise by Miss Maude Carroll, of No. 3611 Vincennes avenue.

"I brought the dog from Pontiac, Ill., seven years ago," declared Mrs. Danvers on the witness stand. "It was the household pet up to last October, when it disappeared."

"How do you know the dog is yours?" asked the court.

"Because Tuffy, that's my dog's name, lost all his teeth. This dog's teeth are gone, and he has the same distinguishing marks my Tuffy had."

When Miss Carroll took the stand she testified that the dog had been given to her two years ago by an aunt living at Winona, Minn.

Judge Rooney declared the question of ownership was almost too deep for him.

"You gentlemen of the jury, must weigh the evidence carefully," he warned the jury. "Do not let prejudice or sentiment sway your opinion."

When the jury retired they took the poodle with them. After almost an hour's deliberation the jury returned a verdict favoring Miss Carroll, the defendant.

According to Glick Focke, a Le Roy man is trying to find some way to cross the mosquito and the channel catfish. He figures it will make the fish a free biter.

—Kansas City Journal.

'UP-TO-MINUTE' CHURCH CLOSED

To Avoid Bankruptcy Historic Edifice is Placed on the Market. PASTOR ALSO LEAVES

Philadelphia, July 21.—The old Presbyterian church of Northern Liberties, a historic structure at Fourth and Buttonwood streets, and its many allied institutions have been put up for sale and the signs of realty brokers adorn the walls of what at one time was believed to be one of the best paying forms of practical Christianity in the city.

The former pastor, Dr. William H. Holderby, has accepted a call to Pittsburgh and with his departure has come the end of all the enterprises which were begun at a considerable outlay of money.

Dr. Holderby, when he found that the population of the neighborhood was changing from the old American residents who settled there to a variety of nineteenth century nations, established all kinds of features. He constructed a sort of Mills hotel. He put up a free library and a dining room, and not to be outdone by another progressive church in the immediate neighborhood which was pushing him hard for popularity, he rented a building and placed within it an Armenian tailor, whose duty it was to press the clothes of the denizens, the hobs and the foreigners who wanted to look as prosperous as they might be when they came to church—this without charge to the patrons and at the expense of the church.

An automobile was purchased to give those of the parishioners rides who had never been able to afford them before. The expenditures were far exceeding the income from the investment, and the trustees of the church soon found that they would have to face bankruptcy and have all their possessions sold if a halt was not called. It is supposed the congregation will buy in the church edifice.

There were some stormy meetings with the trustees and finally as a solution of the problem Dr. Holderby accepted a Pittsburgh pastorate, and the elders of the church have decided to deal with the gospel exclusively.

LEAP FOR PURSE MAY KILL.

Professor's Wife Fractures Skull in Jump From Trolley Car.

Trenton, N. J., July 21.—The wife of Prof. C. N. Hartman, supervisor of the Pennington public schools, is believed to be in a dying condition in a local hospital as the result of a fractured skull, sustained by leaping from a rapidly moving trolley car to recover a pocketbook containing a considerable sum of money which she had dropped from the window of the car. Mrs. Hartman was riding in a closed car and as it was passing the state house she endeavored to raise the window alongside her. She had partly raised it when her purse dropped from her hand to the street. She rushed to the rear of the car and before the conductor could prevent her she jumped off. She was thrown to the ground with great force and rendered unconscious. Dr. Paul Cort, who lives opposite the capitol, had the woman carried into his house, where he treated her and then she was taken to the hospital. Physicians say she can not recover.

I have high-class investments in local Bonds and local Stocks. C. F. Pfeiffer, Shoaff Bldg.

OSTEOPATHY FROM THE MEDICAL DOCTOR'S POINT OF VIEW

The medical doctor says that Osteopathy is massage, rubbing, etc.; that it is injurious and is good for "some diseases," but those cases where he advises osteopathy upon investigation are found to be "some other" disease than that which the patient has, and inquires about. For instance, the M. D. says to the rheumatic patient: "Now osteopathy is good but you have rheumatism, your knees are swollen and so painful you can scarcely bear the weight of your clothing on them, how could you stand to have that knee twisted and jerked around, besides you have an excess of uric acid and you need 'medicine' to eliminate that from your system. Now if you had some nervous disease osteopathy would be just the thing for you." The next patient who comes in is a nervous wreck. She has tried everything, even the "serum treatment," without the least improvement. Some one has advised her to go to an Osteopath, so she asks her medical doctor if osteopathy would help her. His reply is, "Now, my dear Mrs. I am glad you asked me about that treatment for I am greatly interested in your case and want to see you get well. I am doing 'everything' that can be done for you. I have consulted with Dr. ———, an eminent specialist on nervous diseases and he says you are getting the very best treatment. Osteopathy would not help you in the least; if it would, I most certainly would advise you to go to some good, reputable osteopath, and try it, but you see it is not indicated in your case; your whole system is run down; your blood is impoverished and needs iron; you need a tonic to build up your system, and medicine to help your stomach to digest the food you eat, and osteopathy couldn't possibly do that. Now if you had rheumatism, lumbago or backache, it would be the only treatment for you."

Such is the advice given by all medical doctors with but few exceptions. Another M. D. says to a patient: "Yes, you try osteopathy, and see for yourself; didn't I send Mrs. ——— who has suffered over a year with neuritis, to an osteopath and she took treatment every day for a whole week without improvement? I told her it wouldn't help her, but she would try it."

"You see, osteopathy is all right for 'some' diseases, and we medical doctors refer those cases to the osteopath where it is indicated."

My just think of a man who is so liberal toward the osteopath as to advise a patient he has failed to cure of an ordinary case of neuritis after over one year's treatment, to try one week's osteopathic treatment to see if it helped. Just think of it, "one whole week."

For any one to refer to osteopathy as massage and rubbing, is ridiculous in the extreme. And as to the treatment being "injurious." Yes, it is injurious to disease and to the medical doctors' practice, for it replaces disease with robust health and the medical doctor loses a patient. Still another kind is the medical doctor possessed of the "slanderous" tongue, and the one who will deliberately make false statements as to the character and standing of the osteopathic schools, and in answer to them it is only necessary to say that the best investigation on the part of any one who wishes to know the truth will learn that the osteopathic schools teach everything that is taught in any of the best medical schools in the world. If they did not, why are the osteopathic physicians able to pass the examination given by the State Medical Examining Boards in every state in the union?

The subjects taught in the osteopathic schools and in which they are examined by these State Medical Boards are as follows:

Anatomy, Physiology, Toxicology, Osteopathic Mechanics, Bacteriology, Clinical Diagnosis, Physical Diagnosis, Surgery, Obstetrics, Pediatrics, Nose and Throat, Electro-Therapeutics, Dermatology and Syphilis, Dietetics, Embryology, Anatomy, Chemistry, Principles of Osteopathy, Comparative Therapeutics, Pathology, Osteopathic Diagnosis, Applied Anatomy, Gynecology, Eye and Ear, Mental and Nervous Diseases, Genito-Urinary Diseases, Hygiene and Public Health, Medical Jurisprudence.

The subjects taught in the osteopathic schools are necessarily presented in a manner entirely different from those of the medical schools, because the principles of the two schools are fundamentally different. Can you find a catalogue of any medical school that gives a more thorough course of instruction?

The minimum amount of time required in the osteopathic schools is three years of nine months each; some require four years of eight months each.

The medical doctor who misrepresents to the public the standing of the osteopathic schools in his effort to belittle the osteopathic physician, is telling what he knows is not true, for he has known for a good many years that the osteopathic schools are equal in comparison with the best medical schools, and that the osteopathic physician must pass identically the same examination as that given to the medical doctor.

The osteopath, everywhere, are successfully treating both acute and chronic ailments of men, women and children. It has successfully treated every disease that medicine has, and it goes one step farther by getting quicker results in acute cases and curing many diseases wherein medicine is an acknowledged failure.

And right here let me say, if it were not for these failures of medicine the osteopathic profession would not be in existence today. That osteopathy has and will successfully treat both acute and chronic diseases is a matter of record. The searchlight of investigation into the merits of this profession will reveal a world of truth, hope and relief to those suffering from ill health.

K. L. SEAMAN, D. O., Third Floor Shoaff Bldg.

ARTIST AGED 90 MAKES BIG TRIP

For Two Months He Will Camp on River in Wilds of Canada

TO GET NEW MATERIAL

Boston, Mass., July 21.—Although he is 90 years old, Mr. Walter M. Brackett, probably the oldest painter in America and an ardent fisherman for seventy-five years, has gone to a camp near the banks of the Saguenay river, in Canada, where he will remain for the next two months fishing and obtaining material for some more of the paintings of salmon and trout which have made him noted throughout the United States and Europe.

Some of his friends will drop in at his camp late in the season, and he has promised to provide them with the greatest fishing they have ever enjoyed. Mr. Brackett has had one guide at his camp for the last thirty-five years, a French Canadian who is best known as "Louis." He and Louis have a deep affection for each other, and when Mr. Brackett goes to the Saguenay they meet at the boat and are constantly together until Mr. Brackett returns.

Among those who will fish with Mr. Brackett this year are Mr. J. Murray Kaye, a publisher of Boston; Mr. Frank Webster, member of the firm of Kidder, Peabody & Co., bankers; and Mr. George L. Pickering, grandson of Timothy Pickens, once secretary of the navy.

Mr. Brackett is as hale and hearty as a man of forty, and those who have been with him in the Canadian woods say his powers of endurance are wonderful. He rises every morning at daylight, and it is long after the shadows have closed in at night before he retires. He likes a good cigar and a pipe and drinks moderately.

"I have no particular recipe for long life," he said just before he started for Canada, "but I believe in moderation in all things. A man should take plenty of outdoor exercise, should do work that is congenial and should be regular in everything that he does. If he sticks to these things there is no reason why he should not live as long as I have or longer. I eat anything I like and have never had a stomach ache in my life."

Mr. Brackett was the personal friend of Edwin Booth, and he knew intimately Joseph Jefferson, Longfellow, Oliver Wendell Holmes, Lowell, Garrison, Whittier and Bayard Taylor.

He was one of the founders of the Boston Art club, in 1862.

HONESTY BRINGS ITS OWN REWARD

Jackson, Laborer, Thinks It Unlucky Day When He Finds $80. THEN RETURNED IT

New York, July 21.—Benjamin Jackson is an honest man and says he is going to continue being honest, even if it did "spoil his whole day." Jackson is employed as a porter on the French line piers and was working there when the frame of that line left. One of the passengers he attended was W. T. C. Waterman, who arrived at the pier in a taxicab less than ten minutes before the vessel left.

In his anxiety to go on board Mr. Waterman dropped a wallet containing more than $800 in currency and express money orders in the taxicab. Jackson found it and hurried to find the owner, who preceded him on the pier. Mr. Waterman had not discovered his loss when the porter arrived with the wallet.

"Thank you, my boy," exclaimed the elated passenger, and taking the wallet, darted up the gangway.

An agent of the steamship line who heard of the incident afterward sent for Jackson and complimented him on his honesty. He told him that the passenger who recovered the purse was so elated that he probably had forgotten to give him something. Jackson was told that his honesty would not go unrewarded and that he could take the rest of the day off.

Jackson left and sat on a hoghead in front of the pier for the remainder of the day.

"I can take the day off eh?" he said. "Well, this is immense. Haven't got a cent to go anywhere and haven't got nowhere to go anyhow. Now, I am hooked out of the only chance I had to pick up a few dollars and quarters in time. Honesty is the best policy all right, but it often interferes in the success of your business."

HAD NARROW ESCAPE.

Miss Ruth Stevens Falls From Boat at Lake James Sunday.

Miss Ruth Stevens, of 1402 Fairfield avenue, employed at the General Electric works, had a narrow escape from drowning Sunday when she fell from a boat at Lake James. Attracted by her cries for aid, Henry Mortuary, a member of the party, succeeded in reaching her and holding her head above the water until a launch was summoned and pulled them from the water.

Ladies! We have just received 500 pairs of the famous "Mary Jane" pumps in patent and dull leather, $2.50. Get a pair while they last.

SIMON'S SAMPLE SHOE SHOP,
5th Floor Shoaff Bldg.
"The Shoe Store in the Air"